

His Foot Nearly Severed.

W. S. May was using an ax in the Crown mill one day last week when it slipped and came within an ace of cutting his left foot off. The sharp tool cut clear through the bone and within an eighth of an inch of a large artery which had it been severed, must have caused death. Mr. May has been for several years a fleet runner, but the accident will quite probably materially injure him for this sport.

Another Divorce Granted.

Mrs. Mary Robinson on Tuesday was granted a divorce by Judge McBride, dissolving the marriage contract between herself and husband, Frank Robinson. The grounds on which the divorce was granted are cruel and inhuman treatment, and the evidence was conclusive to the facts alleged in the complaint. Edward M. Brownell appeared for plaintiff and Hon. Harrison Allen, district attorney, represented the state.

Cured When Doctors Give Him Up.

William Hornshub, who has suffered for a long time from some serious ailment which has ever baffled the skill and knowledge of the doctors to solve, returned from Chicago a few days ago where he has been under the care of the renowned Dowie. Mr. Hornshub has returned to this city completely cured of this serious trouble and now or by what means the marvelous cure was effected is mysterious in the extreme. Mr. Hornshub has been away several months, and when he went away the doctors had almost abandoned hope of his recovery. His friends in this city will be gratified to learn of his recovery.

A Delightful Time.

Friday night about twenty young ladies and gentlemen assembled at the home of the Misses Cochran and enjoyed a pleasant Halloween social time. The home was prettily decorated with ivy and autumn leaves. The evening was spent in instrumental music and games. One very novel and interesting game was a question game, which, by the way was original, and was termed "Men of Oregon City," and one of the questions propounded was "Who is the warmest man in town? Answer—"Burns." Another question was "Who is the sweetest man in town? Answer—"Sugarman." After a delightful evening spent in this way a tempting luncheon was served and greatly enjoyed.

Granted a Divorce.

Monday afternoon Mrs. L. Hayden, of Highland, was granted a divorce from her husband, Joseph William Hayden. George C. Brownell appeared for the defendant and the plaintiff being in default, judgment was rendered without any contest, to defendant. It appears from the facts developed in the case that Mr. Hayden's husband has been away from her for five years and defendant has been left entirely to her own resources for a livelihood. She was allowed her divorce and granted the care, custody and control of a minor child.

Salvation Army News.

Major and Mrs. Dubbin, Captain and Mrs. Brown, from Portland, will conduct two grand meetings in the Salvation Army hall on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 15th and 16th.

When you visit Portland don't fail to get your meals at the Royal Restaurant, First and Madison. They serve an excellent meal at a moderate price; a good square meal, 15c.

Don't forget the old man with the fish on his back.

For nearly thirty years he has been traveling around the world, and is still traveling, bringing health and comfort wherever he goes.

To the consumptive he brings the strength and flesh he so much needs.

To all weak and sickly children he gives rich and strengthening food.

To thin and pale persons he gives new firm flesh and rich red blood.

Children who first saw the old man with the fish are now grown up and have children of their own.

He stands for Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil—a delightful food and a natural tonic for children, for old folks and for all who need flesh and strength.

DELIGHTFUL HALLOWEEN PARTY.

AT THE HOME OF MRS. GEO. C. BROWNELL.

Sixty Young People Were Present.

The home of Mrs. G. C. Brownell Friday evening was the scene of a delightful Halloween party. It would be difficult to imagine a more pleasing affair and a better time could not well have been had. At an early hour a large assembly of ladies appeared on the scene, dressed in white robes and pillow cases; the object of these unusual costumes was to give the young men a good scare on their arrival. When the young men came a few minutes later the ghosts rushed out and gave them a shock which completely unnerved them. The evening was most delightfully spent in games, both novel and old, and at a late hour a tempting luncheon of cake and ice-cream was served. All over the lawn, from every limb, was to be seen pumpkin lanterns, and at the two gates two more very large ones were burned. This social was given by the young people of the Presbyterian church, but the attendance was not confined to members only, for many others graced the occasion with their presence. It is the intention of the young ladies and gentlemen to hold similar socials during the winter, and a good time will be enjoyed.

THE CATARACTS' FEAST.

BANQUET GIVEN BY J. W. LODER A SUCCESS.

A Good Time in General Had By all Present.

Tuesday night being the regular time for the monthly business meeting of the Cataracts, witnessed a large assembly of firemen at the banquet hall. John T. Loder, who has been a faithful fireman for a long time decided that it was his time to "treat," and he at this time did so to a degree highly pleasurable. About thirty were present, and the evening was enjoyable spent in pleasant story telling and social conversation. This was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind which the Cataracts have been enjoying lately, and many more such times, equally as enjoyable, will be had this coming winter.

A Correction.

Oregon City, Oregon, Nov. 3, 1902.

Editor: The resolutions published in the Portland Telegram and purporting to come from Oregon City Typographical Union, No. 541, were not authorized by this Union—in fact, had not been considered by this Union nor read at any session thereof. This statement is made for the reason that it might be inferred from the wording of the resolutions in question that the Typographical Union is more favorable to one fair office than to another, which is not the case.

The fact is inefficably fixed in the records of this organization and, we believe, heartily approved by your many thousand readers, that the Courier was the pioneer among Clackamas county papers to recognize organized labor.

With best wishes for the Courier and with assurances of our cordial fealty and friendship, I am,

Very respectfully yours, S. J. Roman, Secretary.

Court Opens.

Monday morning bright and early, the November term of the circuit court opened with Hon. Thomas McBride on the bench and the usual number of attorneys present. As usual the court read the docket and dismissed the jury till Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Clackamas Falls and Portland Motor Line.

The new motor line to tap the northern part of the county, will have a length, from its starting point at Clackamas Falls to Portland, of about 30 miles. It will pass through Currinsville, Eagle Creek, Borings (the new village where the central electric power house will be), Lentz and Gresham. Three sawmills are going in along the line of the road, one of them, a large one, at Borings. This village is booming. It has been laid out in blocks, it will soon be placed on the market. Jas. Roots, a resident of Clackamas precinct, owning a large tract of land, including the ridge or hog-back along which the road had to rise out of the canyon of the north fork of Deep creek, on its way to Portland, took advantage of his opportunity by exchanging the gift of a right of way for the location by the railroad company, on account of its central location, will form the distributing point for Powell's valley and the surrounding sections. It is located seven miles from Sandy and the county court will be, or has been, petitioned for a road from Sandy to Borings. The creamery business, which is a money maker for the small farmer no less than for the large one, will receive an impetus from the railroad.

Complete line of general merchandise at Parkplace Cash Store at prices equal and lower than Portland. Best and finest line of shoes ever shown. Produce taken.

THANKS GENTLEMEN.

THE COURIER STARTS OFF IN GOOD SHAPE.

Many Friends Call on Us and Subscribe and Wish Us Well.

The New Proprietors of the Courier took possession of the paper on last Saturday at noon. More than a hundred people have been in to see us and wish us well. Many have shown their appreciation of the new enterprise by renewing their subscriptions or becoming new subscribers to the paper, for all of which we are deeply grateful. Courtesy of this kind are helpful to the "stranger in a strange land." We want our friends and patrons to call on us often. We want as many new subscribers as we can get. We promise to make a paper worthy of the town and county. It will take time and a little patience. Bear with us. We have now 1800 names on the Courier mailing list. Two thirds of these are from six months to five years in arrears with their subscriptions. We want to clean up the list and start off with a clean balance sheet as it were. Can't you who are in arrears assist us to do this by coming in and settling for the arrearage? M. E. L. Westover, the local editor, may call on you. If he does, pay him. We don't want any name on our list unless the party wants to take the paper. The Courier is not to be forced on any body. Therefore, we want a settlement of the old accounts and want to start fresh. All of the back subscriptions are due to the new proprietors.

He Wins the Stove.

W. H. Vaughn, one of the best known residents of Clackamas county, who owns a fine large farm at Molalla and who keeps his farm up in first-class shape, has been taking an active part in a spirited contest for a fine heating stove, given by Wilson & Cooke. This stove was put up to the man raising the six finest potatoes in Clackamas county. Several fine potatoes weighing several pounds were entered in the contest, and Mr. Vaughn brought in six potatoes weighing six pounds apiece, and as a result won the fine heating stove put up by Wilson & Cooke. Mr. Vaughn has had the reputation for raising the finest potatoes in Clackamas county, and for that matter Mr. Vaughn raises the best garden truck in the county.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

From the Atchinson, Kan., Daily Globe. This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and talm, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock. J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo. Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it is possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

Now, look here, young man, don't be so careless. Don't put off any longer; have your case attended to today. For your looks tell on you. You may conclude to get married some day, and to live happy you must be a man rugged and strong physically and mentally. So many divorce cases we hear of, it is an investigation was made would disclose the fact that physical and nervous weakness of the husband caused the wife to finally hate him. Woman love a manly man, just as much as men love beautifully developed, healthy, red-cheeked women. Blotches and pimples show something wrong. All kinds of diseases are cured by this old doctor. It is not necessary to go to see him; in a few diseases where surgery is required or cancers, old ulcers and such, it is better to see him, but all weakness and private conditions can be cured at home.
