INDIANS ARE AFTER RUM DEMON'S SCALP

Umatillas Will Take Part in State Convention of Anti-Saloon League.

SESSION OPENS TONIGHT

Mayor Albee to Preside at First Meeting in White Temple—Governors, Congressmen and Local Officials to Speak.

Three Governors of states and the Congressmen who introduced the National bill for prohibition will attend the state convention of the Anti-Saloon League, which opens tonight at the White Temple. Besides these prominent officials, there will be numerous state and county officials, for one of the features of the convention will be the consideration of methods of enforcing the Oregon prohibition law.

The three Governors who will participate in the programme are Governors Withycombe, of Oregon; Alexander, of Idaho, and Lister, of Washington.

Congressman Richard Pearson Hobson, who fathered the prohibition bill in Congress, will arrive in Portland tomorrow morning, and will give an address tomorrow night at the Armory.

Last night Parsons Montanic and J. Cornelison, Indians from Umatilla, came to Portland to participate in the convention. They are both singers and will appear in the programme in their native costumes.

"We are out to scalp the biggest enemy that humanity ever had," says Cornelison, "and when we get him scalped, then you will hear us whoop as no Indian ever whooped before."

MAIL INSPECTOR RETICENT

P. L. Neil Uncertain as to Course in Santa Clara Investigation.

P. L. Neil, Postoffice inspector, has returned on the steamer P. A. Kilburn from Coos Bay, where he had been making an investigation of the loss of mail on the wrecked steamer Santa Clara. It is known that he examined a number of witnesses at the scene of the wreck, but he declined to discuss the matter last night.

Mr Neil admitted that he might take up the matter with the United States District Attorney today.

"I am not certain now that I will do that even," he said.

OLD SEWER TO BE FILLED

East Alder Street Work Will Cost About $1000.

The City Council yesterday approved Commissioner Dieck's plan to fill up the old trunk sewer in East Alder street, from the river to a point midway between First and Second streets, to prevent it from collapsing and damaging the pavement in the street. The work will cost about $1000.

A new trunk sewer is being constructed in the street, and the old one is to be abandoned. Mr. Dieck says it will be an extremely difficult task to fill the old one.

FOLIAGE DONORS THANKED

Oregon Commission at Fair Appreciate Green Decorations.

R. A. Booth, of the Oregon Commission at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, has written to Mrs. B. T. Voorhorst, who engineered the plan of sending Oregon evergreens to decorate the state building on Oregon day at the Exposition, expressing the appreciation of the Commission.

Mr. Booth writes: "It was thoughtful and very kind to offer to provide flowers and evergreens for our decorations at the Oregon building on Governor's day. They came in good shape and were used to advantage and looked beautiful. For this splendid service, personally and for the Commission, I beg to most heartily thank you."

"The thanks for the success of the undertaking are really due to those who assisted so loyally in gathering the foliage, braving the rain and the wet earth and underbrush," said Mrs. Voorhorst, "and I want them to share in the expression of appreciation from the Commission."

Among those who gathered foliage are the following: Fulton School, Kenton School, Arleta School, the James John High School, of St. Johns, and the Linnton School; also a delegation of the Masamas, who brought in some exceptionally fine specimens both of the Oregon grape and of wild rose tips.

CHRISTENSEN TO FIGHT

CITY EMPLOYE TO BE OUSTED PLANS ACTION DECEMBER 1.

Civil Service Board and Courts to Hear Matter as to City Council's Right to Abolish Position.

Rights of the City Council to abolish the civil service position of chief clerk of the Municipal Free Employment Bureau and re-establish the bureau under the name of the Public Employment Bureau, with two directors not subject to civil service, is to be the subject of a contest about December 1, when the change in names and positions is to be made.

The Council last week abolished the position of chief clerk of the Municipal Free Employment Bureau, held by C. E. Christensen, and re-established the service under the name of Public Employment Bureau. It is planned to oust Mr. Christensen December 1 and appoint a successor not subject to civil service. Mr. Christensen says he will contest the action before the Civil Service Board, and in the courts if necessary.

City Attorney LaRoche has ruled that the action of the Council is legal. Mr. Christensen has raised the point that the charter provision on which legality is based is intended to give the Council power to employ people for special service of a more or less temporary nature.

It is contended that the Council, by following the policy adopted in this case, could abolish civil service altogether by abolishing all the positions and re-establishing them, subject to Councilmanic appointment.

The Council has made similar appointments to positions in the last two years. The position of secretary to the motion picture censorship board was created without civil service jurisdiction, as was the position of public defender.

It is possible the Civil Service Union, affiliated with the Central Labor Council and the American Federation of Labor, will take a hand in the proposition.

UNION EXPULSION FOUGHT

Frank Harwood, of Orpheum, Puts Case Up to Executive Body.

Frank Harwood, for the past two or more years the leader of the Orpheum Theater orchestra, who was deprived of his membership in the American Federation of Musicians owing to charges brought by the local branch of that organization that he had been imported from England, his former home, will carry his fight for reinstatement to the executive committee at St. Louis, and will go there to lay his cause before that committee if necessary.

It is understood that friends in the musicians' local will aid in demanding his reinstatement.

Spite is charged by Mr. Harwood as the reason for his expulsion, and he has many friends among the union musicians who will back his fight for reinstatement. Mr. Harwood came here from England three years ago and has been identified with Portland musical circles since that time. He has written several scores for musical productions and has staged a number of vaudeville productions.

BIRD LAW SHOWS EFFECT

Wild Ducks and Geese Are More Numerous in Northwest.

The Federal law governing the shooting of migratory birds is already showing results in an increase in the number of geese birds in the Northwest, according to a declaration made yesterday by E. S. Cattron, United States inspector, migratory bird law, who has returned to his headquarters in this city after trips made through Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Mr. Cattron said that he noticed the ducks to be particularly numerous and the geese also showed an increase.

The Federal law prohibits the shooting of migratory birds after January 15. Under this law any killing of birds after mating is prohibited. Hours in which shooting may be done are prescribed.
