STAGE TO AID SALE

Actresses Will Offer Red Cross Seals Today.

JEWISH WOMEN IN CHARGE

Players From Orpheum and Baker Theaters Will Coax Money From Public to Help Great Anti-Tuberculosis Fight.

"Red Cross seals? They're only a penny each!" This half query, half declaration will be an oft-repeated utterance in the city today, and its iteration and reiteration is calculated to net a neat amount for the furthering of the fight against the "white plague."

Today's sale is in charge of the Council of Jewish Women, and that body, through its president, Mrs. Isaac Swett, and the head of the day's committee, Mrs. M. Stobel, has gained the willing consent of several of the stars from the Orpheum and Baker theaters to appear at different hotels and assist in the seal sale.

The appearance of actresses in the department stores and the hotels during the sale of Red Cross seals has always given a decided impetus to the sale, and today is not expected to be an exception.

Mary L. Shaw, of the Orpheum; Florrie Millership, of the Orpheum; Elizabeth Ross, of the Baker players; Roshanara, of the Orpheum; Minnie Townsend, of the Baker players, and Grace Tyson, of the Orpheum, all the Orpheum players being on this week's bill, are the women who will sell seals "for sweet charity." Miss Shaw and Miss Millership will sell at the hotels between 12 and 1 o'clock, and Miss Townsend and Miss Ross between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Arrangements for the placing of the women in the different booths have been made by Mrs. Stobel as follows:

FATHER KIDNAPS CHILD

BABY GIRL TAKEN FROM HOME BEFORE MOTHER CAN ACT.

Baker Sheriff Arrests Parent Who Wants to Take Infant to Jail, but He Finally Yields His Claim.

BAKER, Or., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Seizing his 11-months-old baby daughter, clad only in a nightrobe, and wrapping the child in a blanket to protect her from the cold, Lee Heninger, of this city, rushed from his home early this morning, before his wife could comprehend the situation sufficiently to offer effective objections.

Grief-stricken, Mrs. Heninger rushed to a neighbor's house, telephoning to the police for aid, and the case was turned over to Sheriff R. P. Anderson, who, with Deputy Robert Nelson, arrested the father at the home of his brother, Robert Heninger, shortly after noon.

At first Heninger was unwilling to give up the child, and insisted on taking the little one to jail with him, but later agreed to allow the mother to take possession. Perched in a chair in the Sheriff's office, apparently none the worse for her adventure, the youngster crowed with delight when her mother arrived.

Heninger would give no reason for taking the child, but was freed on his promise to cause no further trouble. He is said to have lived with his wife but little in the last few months.

ABERDEEN ELECTION CLOSE

Warm Contest Centers Around Port and School Board Offices.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Despite the light vote polled, Saturday's school and port election here was the warmest in the city's history. For the two and three-year vacancies on the Board of Education, A. C. Gallaher, insurance man, and State Representative Dan Pearsall were chosen. Pearsall won over Dr. Lawrence Hopkinson by a margin of but 14 votes. C. P. L. Roberts, Civil War veteran, ran fourth.

In the port election A. C. McNeill, of Montesano, is now conceded winner by about 200 votes. The race was one community against another. Complete returns probably will not be available until tomorrow night.

One charter amendment, on which the citizens of Fairview are sharply divided, carries with it a bond issue of $12,500, to be used to provide a water system for the city. The other amendment relates to changes in the city boundary and is intended to correct an error in the description of the lines.

Gresham Election Is Tomorrow.

GRESHAM, Or., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Municipal election will be held in the town of Gresham Tuesday, December 7, for the selection of three Councilmen to serve for the ensuing two years.
