The 20th Century Minute Men who help defend America

Since 1941, thousands of folks in advertising, communications, and entertainment have pooled their talents to make U. S. Savings Bonds a household word

The first Minute Men put down their guns in 1783.

In 1941 a new breed of Minute Men came to the aid of their country to help sell U.S. Savings Bonds. These were the actors, singers and musicians who entertained in behalf of Bonds, backed up by America's advertising agencies, newspapers, magazines, radio, television, outdoor and transit media.

A $50 million budget—free Put all the Savings Bond advertising on a dollar basis and it would approach $50 million a year. The total for 20 years of the Bond Program is estimated at $1.3 billion in free space, time and services.

This amount is swelled every day an uncountable amount by the folks in "show business." Yet not one penny of this cost is paid by the government or the taxpayers.

The built-in features U.S. Savings Bonds are guaranteed to grow in value. They pay 3¾% interest when held to maturity. Your Bonds are replaced if destroyed or stolen. And every Bond you buy is a share in a stronger America.

Come to your country's aid —and your own—now.

"The Advertising Council is proud of its role," says Theodore Repplier, President, The Advertising Council.

"Everyone in the advertising and entertainment fields and allied industries who has been involved with the U.S. Savings Bond Program will tell you what a rewarding experience it has been. We're proud of our part in the Bond Program which has helped Americans become owners of $43 billion in Bonds today."
