CHANCERY SALE.
Pursuant to a decree rendered by Part I of the Chancery Court at Nashville, Tenn., and entered of record in minute book 94, pages 256 et seq., in the case of Union Bank & Trust Company, trustee, and others against Bon Air Coal & Iron Company and others, notice is hereby given that I will sell at public auction at the south door of the courthouse in Nashville, Tenn., beginning at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of Monday, the 23d day of April, 1917, and, if necessary, adjourning said sale from day to day until all of said property shall have been sold, the following described property, to wit:
Being all of the lands of the Bon Air Coal & Iron Company lying in the state of Tennessee in the counties of White, Cumberland, Carter, Van Buren, Putnam, Dickson, Hickman, Lewis, Wayne, Hardeman, Lawrence and Davidson, being described in the decree in this cause, and more particularly in the decrees entered in minute book 89, pages 20 et seq., and minute book 94, pages 256 et seq., to all which reference is made. Said property consists of coal mines, iron mines, iron furnaces, ore, coal, timber and other lands, together with the fixtures installed and equipment connected with the operation of the several plants respectively. Said lands contain about 170,000 acres. Also the personal property of the Bon Air Coal & Iron Company, other than pig iron, consisting of materials, stocks of goods, and all other personal property which does not form part of the equipment of the mines and works.
For the terms and conditions of said sale purchasers are referred to the undersigned.
