EX-BANDIT TOTTERS OFF TO POOR FARM

Chris Evans, Bowed by Years and Bloody Memories, Is Public Charge.

YOUNGER DAYS' VIGOR GONE

Man Who, With John Sontag, Waged War on Railway Which Acquired His Property, Prepares to End Days at County Farm.

Chris Evans, famed highwayman, who with John Sontag won more repute in California as slayers than did Tracy and Merrill in Oregon, entered yesterday upon the last quiet chapter of an eventful life, when he was taken to the Multnomah County Farm to pass his remaining days.

It was a palsied old man, bowed with the weight of 70 years and a heavy-laden memory, who was committed yesterday on the order of Dr. E. P. Geary, county physician. His left eye and right arm are gone, and Evans' iron constitution is fast failing, said the physician. Last year Evans went to California to have a surgeon remove a bullet from a wound in his head, and though the operation was successful, it brought little relief.

War Waged on Railway.

Evans joined his wife in Portland in 1911, upon his release from Folsom penitentiary. Mrs. Evans is living at 340 Second street. There are four sons living.

Relentless war against the Southern Pacific was begun by Evans when he was served notice by that corporation that his grant of land in the San Joaquin Valley, on which he had raised wheat and stock and where his home was, had reverted to the railroad.

Fifteen men were sent from Fresno as agents of the Southern Pacific to drive Evans and other settlers off the land. Evans heard of the approaching posse, organized his neighbors, and the rifles of the homesteaders left not a man of the 15 alive.

In the eviction proceedings and prosecution which followed Evans escaped and joined with John Sontag. A band of lawless men was organized. They had for their cardinal rule that theft from the Southern Pacific was not real stealing.

Trains Are Held Up.

Acting on this principle, they began to hold up trains. They robbed the express companies and trainmen, but did not molest passengers.

Finally the man-hunt became too general and the robbers retreated into the Sierras. For nine months they were sought by posses. Finally, Sontag and Evans were cornered in a hut near Dunlap. In a revolver and rifle duel two of the posse were killed and the bandits escaped.

Later they were surrounded and took refuge in a haystack, where in a murderous battle with the pursuing gunmen, Sontag was shot to death and Evans was riddled with bullets. He had an arm and leg shattered and an eye shot out.

He was sentenced to life imprisonment, but after a few years' service escaped from the penitentiary with Ed Morrell. He was captured by a ruse, and sent back to prison. He had served 12 years when Governor Johnson heeded the pleas of his wife and released him on April 15, 1911.

CHURCH TO BE TRIBUTE

$10,000 MEMORIAL PROPOSED FOR REV. JOHN GLEN.

Free Methodists Need Larger Home and Plan to Honor First Pastor With Modern Building.

The erection of a $10,000 Glen Memorial Church is planned by the First Free Methodist church, as a monument to its first pastor, Rev. John Glen. Rev. Mr. Glen was also the first pastor of the Free Methodist Church in Seattle and came to Portland from that city. He did much not only to form the church here but to hold it intact, and hard work and long service for the church undermined his health.

Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist Church, said yesterday that as yet no site had been selected and that he hoped to have the plans well under way by the annual conference in May. The present church at Ninth and East Mill streets is not large enough. The new church will be modern and fully equipped.

Three children of the late Rev. Mr. Glen survive him. Professor Irving M. Glen, head of the fine arts department of the university, is his eldest son. Another son, William Glen, is manager of Crane Company, Spokane, Wash., and his daughter is Mrs. A. S. Kerry, formerly of Seattle, where she was prominent, now of Kerry, Or., where her husband has extensive lumber interests.

BARBER DENIES GUILT

M. H. M'CALL ENTERS PLEA TO CHARGE OF MURDER.

Insanity to Be Defense of Slayer of W. A. Shaner, Killed in Morgan Building on Christmas Day.

Marcus H. McCall, a barber, who shot and killed W. A. Shaner, another barber, last Christmas day, pleaded not guilty to a charge of murder before Presiding Judge Gantenbein yesterday, and his trial was set for February 6. Insanity will be his defense.

Shaner was killed primarily because he was thought to have secured the discharge of McCall from a barber shop in the Morgan building, in which both men worked. McCall entered the shop on Christmas Day, had a shave and haircut, and turned to Shaner, asking "Have you got your gun with you?" and opened fire.

Three bullets entered Shaner's body, and McCall then diverted his attention to a negro porter whom he chased up Broadway.

That McCall is insane and was not responsible for his actions is the plea to be made by Attorneys W. A. Carter and W. E. Critchlow, appointed by Judge Gantenbein to represent the prisoner. The attorneys have asserted that investigation has shown that McCall was subject to epilepsy when young,

HAIR COMING OUT?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Look, Mother! Is Tongue Coated, Breath Feverish and Stomach Sour?

Cleanse the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quickly.

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat, give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels, no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

A chief witness for the defense will be Mrs. McCall, divorced wife of the slayer, who lives in Portland.

MURPHY MUST SERVE

RIGHT OF MUNICIPAL JUDGE TO TRY STATE CASES UPHELD.

Presiding Judge Gantenbein Rules That Power of Justice Court Is Vested in Police Court.

The power of the Municipal Judge to sentence persons found guilty of state offenses was upheld by Presiding Judge Gantenbein yesterday when he denied a writ of habeas corpus demanded in the Circuit Court by Attorney Morris Goldstein for Jesse Murphy, a bootlegger sentenced by Police Judge Langguth.

The petitioner in the action held that Judge Langguth had no jurisdiction, as his power of punishment for state charges had been taken away from him with the creation of the District Courts.

Deputy District Attorney Collier argued that Judge Langguth was ex-officio Justice of the Peace by virtue of his office as police judge, and that it was not the intention of the Legislature in the act of 1913, doing away with justice courts in cities of 100,000 population or more, to take away any of the authority or power previously vested in the Municipal Judge.

Judge Gantenbein ruled with Mr. Collier and the writ was denied. Murphy was sentenced January 11 to serve 50 days in jail or to pay a fine of $200.

BRIDEGROOM, 40, MODEST

Reporter Cautioned Not to Mention Marriage to Girl of 16.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—"It is against the law to publish the names of couples securing marriage licenses if they don't want you to," Austin M. Harritt, of Portland, told a newspaper reporter who was in the Auditor's office today when he was issued a license to marry Miss Flossie Dot Reynolds, of Ballston, Or. The reporter, however, did not believe him. Harritt is 40 years old and his bride 16. Her mother, Ida Reynolds, was with them and consented to the marriage.

Another 16-year-old bride got a marriage license here today. Hazel Kearns, accompanied by her father, E. T. Kearns, of Portland, who gave his consent, was married to Ray Ogilvy, 23, of Pendleton, Or., by Elder A. D. Skaggs.

HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM CATARRH

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmint (double strength), take this home, add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful 4 times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat.

It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Everyone who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need.
