BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

The Portland club, in spite of many red-hot baseball fans, is not a one-man team. Yesterday while Kenneth Williams stood idly by swinging his huge shillelah awaiting his turn at bat, "Babe" Borton larruped one of Otis Crandall's shoots over the right field fence and won another ball game from the Los Angeles crew.

The score was 3-2, and the contest went 10 innings.

When "Babe" stepped to the home plate in the last half of the tenth it looked like an Angel victory, for, after a tight 1-1 pitching duel between Penner and Crandall, the Angels finally broke through in the first of the 10th and scored a run.

Borton's Wallop Delights Fans.

Undaunted, scrappy Dennis Wilie, who conducts raffles during the off-season in Texas, broke the ice in the last of the tenth by drawing a walk from Crandall. Borton bats behind Wilie and Williams behind Borton, but Williams wasn't needed. Borton sighted along his big bludgeon, timed his punch, and whacked a line drive over the palisades toward right center, high and dry over the wall, thereby stealing some of Mr. Williams' specialty stuff.

About 1500 Rose Festival visitors were in the stands, and after one startled moment's pause the gang let loose in a series of Comanche war whoops.

Mr. Crandall, needless to say, did not join in the hilarity. Imagine Barney Oldfield riding a velocipede and you have a good picture of the former New York Giant as he strolled sadly back to the dugout.

Line Drive Hits Fournier.

Jacques Fournier, the well-known Chicago Frenchman, figured in an accident at first base that almost resulted seriously. Ken Williams hit a line drive at rifle speed down the first base line, and it caromed badly and hit Fournier just below the eye, knocking him head over heels.

Portland and Los Angeles players rushed to his assistance, and when they got Jacques to his feet he looked like a victim of the Messines Ridge. Dr. Max Rosendorff, who jumped over the railing from the stand to administer first aid, said afterward that Fournier had received a severe wound on the cheek bone, but not serious, however.

Killefer finished the last six innings at first base, and almost aided in bringing defeat to the Beavers' doorstep.

Crandall Forces in Run.

Penner and Crandall both pitched good ball, Penner allowing nine hits, but only one earned run. Charley Hollocher threw low to first base in the second inning and allowed Meusel to score after his walk.

Portland tied this up in the last half of the second, when Crandall deliberately walked Fisher with the bases full and then lost control and walked Penner, forcing in a run. Three walks and a hit by Farmer featured the inning.

Neither team scored again until the 10th, when Killefer singled through short and sailed to third on Meusel's double to the left field fence. Killefer scored what appeared to be the winning run on Ellis' long sacrifice fly to Williams.

A great many of the fans imagined it was all over and began the funeral march to the exits which was so rudely interrupted by "Babe" Borton's home-run thump. Score:

BEZDEK HERE AGAIN TO SEE 'HOLLY' WORK

Pirates' Scout May Make Offer for Clever Beaver Shortstop This Week.

YANKS ALSO SEEK PLAYER

Third Baseman Boekle, of Great Falls, Purchased for Pittsburg Club—Other Northwest Talent Is Looked Over.

Still in quest of a couple of infielders, Hugo Bezdek, scout for the Pittsburg Nationals, dropped into Portland yesterday from Spokane for another squint at Charley Hollocher, Portland shortstop. "Ivory Hunter" Bezdek sat in the stands for two weeks and watched all the Northwest League clubs perform at Spokane, Great Falls and Butte, and the sum total of his peregrinations was the purchase of Third Baseman Boeckle, of the Great Falls club.

Boeckle is a California boy. He broke in at Tacoma last year, and either was traded or released by the Tacoma management. He bats right-handed.

Hugo gave Pillett, the big Oregon pitcher, a close scrutiny, and he says Pillett ought to develop into a big-leaguer in a year or two.

"He isn't ripe yet," added Scout Bezdek. "I telegraphed to Barney Dreyfuss, Pittsburg owner, and told him I had a great prospect named Pillett. Barney wired back: "I don't want prospects. I want players now."

Hugo immediately dropped all negotiations for the Tacoma twirler.

Bez was in Butte at the time Joe McGinnity threw up the managerial ghost. McGinnity, it appears, was "requested" to quit.

"They're a tough bunch up in that mining burg," said Bezdek. "Two men were killed while I was there. A spent bullet or a rock must have hit Hugo in the mouth in Butte, for he came back minus a front molar.

The Pittsburg man-hunter said that Ken Williams looked sweet to him, and he wished he was a first baseman instead of an outfielder. "Bunny" Brief hasn't made any tremendous hit to date, and the Pirates are in search of another initial sack guardian.

Bezdek refused to comment on Hollocher. Dreyfuss wants a shortstop or second baseman, and it is probable some offer will be made to Walter McCredie within the next few days. Scout Kelly, of the New York Yankees, is said to be on his way here to bid for the Portland shortpatcher.

* * *

No new local development cropped up in the Coast League salary slashing furore yesterday. Bill Fincher is one Beaver who says he isn't worrying. Fincher says if the Coast League closes shop he can go back to the St. Louis Americans and get a good chance to make good. Fincher belongs to St. Louis and reverts in the Fall, anyway. Penner reverts to Cleveland, but, it is understood, Kenneth's salary was not trifled with.

"Oh, I guess we'll have to come to it if the owners insist," replied one player, when queried about the situation.

"We positively will not stand for any cut," said another player a little later on. So that's where the matter stands. Neither the Beaver nor Angel players have called any meeting yet to consider a concerted decision.

* * *

Games today and tomorrow at Vaughn street will be called at 4 o'clock instead of 3 P. M., owing to conflicting parades downtown. Mails or Fincher will twirl today for Portland.

WHEN bread is made into fresh, hot-buttered toast, it has more flavor.

Toasting puts more flavor into most good things—seals it in, so to speak.

And toasting puts more flavor into Lucky Strike cigarettes; the tobacco—it's toasted.

Better still it's Burley tobacco—toasted. Lucky Strike is the real Burley cigarette—something absolutely new in cigarette flavor.

This toasting not only gives Lucky Strike cigarettes flavor but keeps it there—seals it in. They're always fresh.

And because everyone has been wanting real Burley cigarettes, everyone has been buying them—look at all the Lucky Strike smoke circles.

Have you tried the famous "toasted cigarette"; begin today.

HERRMANN IS QUIZZED

INTERSTATE CIRCUIT OF MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS OUTLINED.

Counsel for Baltimore Federal League Club Seeks to Show Violation of Sherman and Clayton Acts.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—Only two witnesses were called today in the $900,000 anti-trust suit of the Baltimore Federal League club against organized baseball as represented by the American and National Leagues and the National Baseball Commission, August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission, occupying the stand the greater part of the day. Edward Hanlon, owner of the site of the Baltimore club's ball park, was the other witness.

Pursuing a line of examination designed to show that organized baseball was engaged in interstate commerce in the sense of conducting an interstate business, Stuart S. Janney, chief counsel for the complainants, drew from Mr. Herrmann an outline of the interstate circuit of the eight clubs in each of the major leagues and the fact that visiting teams and their respective leagues receive a certain part of the gate receipts at the end of each series.

Hanlon gave an analysis of the valuation of the Baltimore club's franchise, players' contracts and improvements at the time of the culmination of the peace agreement, placing the total amount at $205,000. Actual damages of $800,000 were suffered by the elimination of the Federal League, according to the allegations on which the action is based and for which triple damages are asked in accordance with the Sherman and Clayton acts.
