Police Alerted For Cigarette Flippers

Oregon state police have been alerted to keep an eagle eye out for cigarette flippers, the Keep Oregon Green association has been advised.

In a letter to all state police stations, H. G. Maison, superintendent, says this is the critical season for forest fires. He also cited a section from the state law: "No one shall, at any time, throw away any lighted tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, matches or other lighted material, on any forest land, private road, public highway or railroad right of way within this state."

Albert Wiesendanger, executive secretary of Keep Oregon Green association, association, pointed out that pointed out that the legislature at its last session raised the penalty for throwing lighted material to $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for us to six months from conviction.
