WHOA! STOP RIGHT HERE. Just last week a man made $100 by crossing the Willamette River. Would you make the same trip for the same money? If not, probably you would for twice or three times that amount and if you are going to invest (I say invest because there is no better investment right now than a good used car or truck) in a good used car or truck, you too can be as lucky as the above mentioned man if you will come over and permit us to show you through our stock. We are out of the high rent district, but just close enough in to be conveniently reached from any carline crossing the river. I will just list a few cars in this ad to give you an idea what our stock consists of. Come over and make us prove the rest.
