

A Graduation Gift to Remember a Lifetime

Pretty soon the boys and girls will leave school, many of them to take up for the first time the real business of life. School days are over. Work is beginning. The long, hard road lies ahead.

Our wish for the young graduate is the gift of a stout spirit that will endure and the vision to see the silver lining in the darkest cloud.

Graduation is the big event in their young lives, and parents and relatives should make the occasion one to be long remembered.

As an appropriate gift for young men graduates, we suggest an Elgin Watch. One of our favorite models, a beauty in appearance and one that will give a lifetime of satisfactory service.
