Canby Department

Dr. John Fuller

On last Monday night the various school districts surrounding Canby held a special election, called for the purpose of deciding the union high school question. Of the ten districts voting, five favored the union high school, four opposed it and one district's vote resulted in a tie. The Marks Prairie district vote will decide the question, the vote of this district being cast Saturday, August 26th.

Mrs. Levi Balmer of Salem was badly bruised in an accident which occurred near the south approach of the Molalla river bridge on the highway, at nine o'clock Wednesday night. The accident was a peculiar one in that the injury was sustained in a second accident at the same time and place.

Due to a brilliant headlight on a car approaching the Balmer car, the two cars came together, with a result that both autos were badly damaged and the occupants badly shaken up, although no injuries were sustained by either of the parties.

While those involved in the accident were surveying the damage, a truck, driven by Donald Browner of Woodburn, approached from the north and all except Mrs. Balmer stepped aside to let it pass. Mrs. Balmer was struck by the truck and severely bruised. After receiving treatment at the office of Dr. Dedman, she was able to resume her journey.

Mrs. L. V. Gray and Miss Esther Noble were business visitors in Portland last Monday afternoon.

E. F. Howe returned last Thursday from an extended visit at Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., and his son, Ernest Howe, left Canby on Friday, in company with Mr. Mitts, for a deer hunt in the Cascade Mountains.

Frank Allen, former business man of Canby, but now of Kalama, Wash., is a business visitor in the city this week.

Mrs. Grant White motored to Portland last Monday.

Bill Lamb, who navigated one of the big 75 horse power combines in an eastern Oregon wheat field during the last harvest, returned to Canby last Monday. He reports a good yield of wheat in that part of the state, with wages ranging from four dollars per day for common labor, to fifteen dollars per day for operators of the large combines.

Arthur Graham and wife, C. H. Shelton and wife, Mr. Shelton's mother and Miss Lenora Pendleton, motored to Portland Sunday.

W. H. Wang and wife, former merchants of Canby, returned last Monday from several months' sojourn in California and old Mexico. Mr. Wang says he saw nothing on his trip which to him looked so good as a home in Canby.

Craig Dedman returned to Canby last Monday from the coast, where he has been employed since the close of school days. He expects to return to the state university this fall.

Dr. Mundy, a former dentist of Canby, was in town this week.

A lively game of baseball was expected last Sunday between the Canby and Donald teams, but the Donald boys failed to show up. That the occasion might not be a failure, the Canby team played a bunch of "pick-ups" around town and worked off the superfluous energy held in store for the Donald team. The result was a "white-wash," to the amusement of the good crowd in attendance.

Harold Oathes, the bus driver who had a hair-raising experience on the Portland-Astoria highway Monday,

When an insane man killed one and seriously wounded another man by the use of a gun, is a Canby boy. His parents live on a farm near town.

All preparations are being rushed for the big day in Canby on Saturday, Aug. 26th, when the Ford and Fordson people are to put on their big parade. About fifty prizes are in store for the drivers of Ford cars, who prepare to pull off their respective stunts in the parade. Canby is expected to have all business houses closed from 10:30 to 12 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wells and daughter of Macksburg are in Canby, making arrangements to take over the local telephone office Sept. 1st. They will have a sale at their Macksburg home on Thursday, Aug. 24th. On Saturday night, Aug. 19th, ninety of their neighbors met at their home in a farewell surprise party. Neighboring chats, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by old and young, who tendered their regrets at the loss of their good neighbors. But Canby is hopeful that Macksburg's loss may be their gain and that all may be mutually benefited in the new work. Mr. Wells and family are taking up at our telephone office.
