FORMER NAZI HEAD SUFFERS HEMORRHAGE

NUERNBERG, Germany, Nov. 19 (AP)—Ernst Kaltenbrunner, former chief of the nazi security police, suffered a brain hemorrhage in his cell last night, but a spokesman for the U. S. prosecutor's office said today he would have to answer charges sometime before the international war crimes tribunal.

An indication that Kaltenbrunner would not be present at the scheduled opening tomorrow of the trial of top-flight nazis came from physicians at the 116th U. S. army hospital where he was rushed for treatment. The doctors said he "was finished" with the trial, at least temporarily.

The spokesman in the office of Justice Robert H. Jackson, chief U. S. prosecutor, said the court itself would decide whether Kaltenbrunner would be tried at a later date when his condition improved or be brought into the trial. The prosecution regards Kaltenbrunner as the No. 4 defendant among the list of indicted nazis.

Postponement Pressed

France and the Soviet Union are pressing for a postponement of the trial. If it opens on schedule there may be only 19 of the 24 nazis listed in the original indictment on hand.

Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Balbach, industrialist, is suffering from softening of the brain and has been excused. Robert Ley, labor front boss, committed suicide several weeks ago in his cell. Martin Bormann, No. 2 nazi and Adolf Hitler's deputy, is officially listed as missing and will be tried in absentia. Rudolf Hess, No. 3 nazi, is reported mentally incapable, and a ruling on whether he will stand trial is awaited.

Hospital attendants said Kaltenbrunner showed a slight improvement this morning. The defendant himself said: "I am sorry I will be unable to face trial Tuesday."
