Stock Leaders Show Drops

NEW YORK, April 26 (AP)—A little short covering and timid buying here and there by professionals kept the stock market pretty well balanced today although many leaders slipped and dealings were among the slowest of the year.

Transfers dwindled to around 100,000 shares for the two hours.

Schenley was an active and relatively strong spot. Publicker and American Woolen also were favored.

In the plus column most of the time were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, American Telephone, North American, International Paper, Pacific Western Oil, Kennecott, Dow Chemical and Air Reduction. Bonds were uneven.
