Wreckage Of Plane Found

MANILA, May 22 (AP)—Wreckage of a luxury liner carrying at least 11 Philippine government officials and a crew of seven was found today on a mountainside on Mindanao. All aboard were believed dead.

Incorrect maps which show towering Mt. Katangiad in the wild Bukidnon plateau region as 7800 feet, instead of its actual 9300 feet, apparently brought disaster to the plush-lined, twin-engined aircraft on the mountain's cloud-obscured northern slope.

An American 13th airforce B-17 will fly to the crash area tomorrow to determine the feasibility of helicopter operations to speed the search for possible survivors of the wrecked plane.

It was the personal plane of President Manuel A. Roxas, who ordered Maj. Gen. Rafael Jalandoni, chief of staff of the Philippine army, to fly to the scene and direct operations.
