PRIMARY CAMPAIGN MAY BE LIVELY ONE

Hot Congressional Fight in Washington Possible.

REPUBLICANS ARE ACTIVE

Senator Poindexter Held Committed to Support of Senator Jones Seeking Re-election.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—A republican congressional fight may enliven the last month of the primary campaign in the state of Washington this year, but surface indications are that the present members of the delegation have the edge on the different contests.

There is no secret of the fact that Senator Miles Poindexter, chairman of the senate republican campaign committee, is committed to the support of Senator Wesley L. Jones for re-election, and if he can aid the Jones candidacy by doing so Poindexter purposes to spend some time in this state.

Thus far neither Senator Jones nor his friends have felt that they needed the support of national leaders. Senator Jones is completing his 22d year in congress, 12 of which have been spent in the upper house, and during his career the senior senator has come into personal contact with thousands of voters scattered throughout the entire state.

Significant Fact Noted.

A significant fact in the Jones campaign, declare republican politicians, is the circumstance that at the conference of radical groups in Yakima last week no one except Forest L. Hudson, a railroad man, was found who was willing to make the race against Jones, and Hudson offered to get out of the way if anybody else could be found to enter the fight.

However, there is a strong undercurrent of opposition to Jones among politicians, just as there has been for several years. Had there been a careful grooming of some kind for a long period of time the Jones contest might have been made far more interesting in the primaries. In political circles it is regarded as certain that the name of George F. Cotterill will be filed as the democratic candidate against Jones.

The announcement that Tom Corkery of Spokane would contest Representative J. Stanley Webster's renomination in the fifth district is not surprising and it would not have been unexpected even if the non-partisan league groups at Yakima had failed to indorse him. Corkery was a Bull Moose candidate for representative in the same district, then later had the republican nomination against C. C. Dill, the democratic incumbent in 1916. In 1918 republican leaders in the district induced Judge Webster to resign from the supreme court bench and make a fight against Dill. Corkery thought at that time that he should have been given another chance to defeat the democratic incumbent and he has nursed a grudge against the republicans who brought out Webster.

Webster Has Opposition.

There is a bitter fight on against Webster in some Spokane and Hillyard labor circles, but in the other counties of the fifth district Webster is conceded to be very strong.

Representative John W. Summers of Walla Walla has faced a fight for re-election from the fourth district for a year or more. Captain E. K. Brown of Ellensburg, former prosecuting attorney of Kittitas county and later a member of the legislature, has been an avowed candidate against Summers and has been campaigning in the district for several months.

Politicians do not believe any serious fight will be waged against either Representative Albert Johnson of Hoquiam in the third district or Representative L. H. Hadley in the second.

Representative John F. Miller is being opposed by Major E. S. Gill in the first district, which comprises Seattle and Kitsap counties. Miller got a good start in the Kitsap county fight, where an alliance of active republican workers organized for him a few weeks ago and would appear to have all the better of it in that corner of the district.

GIRL ROBBER, 17, JAILED

THEFT OF MANY AUTOMOBILES ADMITTED, SAY POLICE.

18-Year-Old Laborer Also Taken. Chauffeur Arrested on Tip Furnished by Pair.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—With a 17-year-old girl as one of their number, a youthful band, alleged to be made up of automobile thieves, was discovered when Patrolman W. E. Goodwin, of the West Seattle police station arrested the girl and a young man companion on Beach drive in West Seattle.

The pair had come to the place in a stolen automobile, the police say, to get a cache of automobile tires, which had been taken from a stolen car and hidden in the brush.

Patrolman Goodwin took the girl and her companion to the West Seattle station, where they were questioned. Captain C. G. Bannick said the girl confessed that the band had stolen several automobiles and that she had been trying to get them to stop.

The girl arrested is Genevieve Hayes, and her companion gave the name of Alvin E. Lipsky, 18 years of age, laborer.

On information given by Lipsky and the girl the police later arrested Albert J. Blackmore, 28 years of age, chauffeur.

TOURIST TRICK DETECTED

"NO GAS" SIGN REPORTED AS DIVERTING STATE TRAVEL.

Oregon Said to Be Minus Gasoline and Machines Urged to Take South Route.

Tourists making the transcontinental trip to the Pacific coast are being diverted from Oregon because of the gasoline shortage, according to a letter received by George Quayle, secretary of the state chamber of commerce, from W. E. Meacham, secretary of the Baker county chamber. Mr. Meacham says that reports have been received there that a sign has been put up in the tourist camp ground at Salt Lake City warning tourists to keep away from Oregon, as there is no gas to be had in the state. Automobile tourists who came into Hood River reported they found similar signs along their road in Idaho advising them to take the southern route.

Secretary Quayle will seek to ascertain whether there is an effort made to divert travel from Oregon, and, if so, to endeavor to have such discrimination discontinued. According to reports, the gasoline shortage is general on the coast and is not confined to Oregon. While it is true that gasoline is being rationed, supply has been available at most points for emergency requirements of tourists and for commercial and industrial needs, according to information that has been received.

TRAVELER DRINKS POISON

MAN TAKEN FROM TRAIN DIES IN WALLA WALLA DEPOT.

Note Written on Magazine Admits Wrongdoing; Large Sum of Money Found in Clothing.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—A stranger, supposed to be Bert Simont of Colliston, Utah, apparently took poison on the Oregon-Washington Railway & Navigation train from Yakima this afternoon and died in the baggage room at the depot here before a physician could be summoned. The only clew to his identity was a brief note scrawled on the cover of a magazine, reading:

"The wrongs you are following me for I am guilty of except one. Please forgive me. No one can be happy in wrong-doing. Signed Bert Simont, Colliston, Utah."

The only other writing found among his effects was in a time-book and consisted of the story of "The Spoilers" as set forth by the film made from that novel. In this writing the spelling was perfect, but the note was poorly spelled.

He had a large sum of money and a small gold watch, evidently belonging to a woman. The watch had a monogram "L. C." on the back. The man was dressed as a laborer. He was about 35. The small bottle of poison found in his possession was bought at Grandview.

DRIVER OUTWITS ROBBERS

Young Men Attempt Holdup of Taxi Near Hoquiam.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—Early this morning two unidentified young men who had engaged his taxicab held up James Anastos on the road between Hoquiam and Aberdeen. One of three shots fired by the would-be robbers went through Anastos' coat at the shoulder, grazing the flesh. The bandits ordered the driver to stop his car midway between the harbor cities.

Two other automobiles were seen approaching and for the moment diverting the attention of the men, Anastos, taking advantage of this opportunity, struck one gunman in the head and sped away.

SEATTLE ELKS TO MEET

1000 Will Attend Convention of State at Vancouver August 18.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—Seattle's participation in the annual convention of the Washington state association, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will amount to an attendance of approximately 1000 Elks from Seattle lodge, No. 92, including a drill team, or honor guard, and a band numbering 94 men.

This was reported when Gilbert Costello of the local lodge returned today from Vancouver, Wash., where the convention will be held August 18, 19 and 20. Mr. Costello as chairman of arrangements for No. 92, had made reservations for his fellow lodgemen.

FREIGHT INCREASE SOUGHT

Canadian Tariff Boost May Meet Wage Rise.

MONTREAL, July 29.—An additional increase in freight rates will be sought by the Canadian Railway association on behalf of all the roads in the dominion, in order to meet the cost of raising wages to the same level as those of railway men in the United States.

Application for the freight rate increase will be filed with the dominion railway commission, which already has a request from the association for permission to increase rates 30 per cent.

MAN'S ESCAPE NARROW

Lineman's Left Arm Burned to Crisp When Caught in Current.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—George Martin, lineman for the Grays Harbor Railway & Light Co., narrowly escaped electrocution yesterday afternoon when he was caught in an electric current of 2300 volts while repairing wires on a pole at Seventh and K streets. His escape from instant death is considered miraculous. His left arm was burned to a crisp and the right hand nearly burned off.

The quick work of August Niemi, another lineman who had on rubber gloves, saved Martin.

Cut-Over Timber Burned.

BOISE, Idaho, July 29.—(Special.)—Practically 4000 acres of cut-over timber land was destroyed in the forest fire which has been raging on Daggett creek since Sunday afternoon, according to one of the men who has been fighting the fire and who returned to Boise today. He reports that the fire had been practically entrenched at noon Wednesday. Unless an unusually high wind springs up there is little danger of the blaze spreading. The fire is believed to have been started by a sheepherder's camp north of Daggett creek near the Ole Nelson ranch.

Store Has New Manager.

KELSO, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—Walter Huggins of Seattle arrived here this week to fill the position of manager of the Kelso Co-operative store while F. O. Rex, the manager since the store was established, is making an extended stay in California.

GRAND PRE, N. S., July 29.—A monument to the gentle "Evangeline" of Longfellow's poem, was unveiled at Grand Pre today by Lady Burnham, wife of the president of the Imperial Press conference.

Legion to Build in September.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—The executive committee of Smith-Reynolds post, American Legion, of this city, announced today that construction of the Legion's new home will begin September 1. The building will cost $70,000 and will be financed by the sale of 20-year bonds. The Legion has already launched a drive and will start a vigorous campaign to sell the remaining bonds as soon as possible.

Bride Accuses Vancouver Man.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 29.—(Special.)—O. J. Meckes, local business man, was arrested today on a statutory charge. The plaintiff is a bride of a few weeks. Mr. Meckes said today that he is innocent of any wrongdoing. He was released upon temporary bail of $1000, and will be arraigned Friday before Cedric Miller, justice of the peace.

ROSE CITY PARK.
CLASS AND DISTINCTION—$5950
YOU'LL HAVE TO HURRY! We'll leave it to you. Inspect this bungalow, compare it with others they have been asking $7000 for and then be prepared to buy your home. Here truly is a real one, right up to the minute. A real downright super-modern bungalow—everything one possibly could expect—nothing lacking. The very pinnacle of bungalow perfection and too at a price so moderate as to almost make it seem impossible. The location is possibly the very choicest in all of Rose City. $1500 cash will handle. Balance easy monthly payments. Phone Main 3092 and we'll be friends of yours ever after. Someone is going to be downright happy—and it might as well be you. Wife—you come see it first. Husband will admire your splendid judgment. No necessity to go into details about hardwood floors, fireplace, buffet, Dutch kitchen, breakfast nook, full cement basement, furnace, etc. You naturally expect those things.
