Taylor Considers Indians Mediocre

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —Stanford coach Chuck Taylor, who's been outspoken in predicting Indian victories, including the 12-2 upset of Illinois, isn't saying yet whether his boys can beat Navy Saturday.

Taylor told football writers Monday the Illini overthrow didn't mean anything and he considers Stanford "a mediocre team" in the Pacific Coast Conference.

Of Navy, he said:

"Our scouts reports that Navy has some hard running backs and a good line. I've been told that Ronnie Beagle is an end we must collar. He's a good pass-catcher."

The Indians may do a little passing of their own. Taylor said he'd prep the boys for Navy by "going like 60 on passing this week."

The Middies have defeated William and Mary 27-0 and Dartmouth 42-7.

California coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf said "Oregon is better than the record shows." Pappy's Bears meet Oregon in Berkley Saturday for their conference opener after the 27-13 loss to Ohio State in last week's intersectional.

"As I see it," Waldorf said, "Oregon hasn't jelled yet. It may find itself against us."

In Eugene, Oregon Coach Len Casanova tried to pull his boys together with a skull session. He said it was designed to correct the situation which brought two upsets: Oregon 18-13 by Stanford and 7-6 by Utah. Casanova pointed out Oregon led both opponents in every statistic except scoring.

Delighted with UCLA's 12-7 Maryland victory, Bruin mentor Red Sanders told the Southern California football writers he's aiming for No. 1 national rating since his boys can't go to the Rose Bowl. The Bruins played in the New Year's Day classic this year and are ineligible for a repeat.

Sanders said his line on offense "played the best game I have ever seen a collegiate line play." The Bruin squad put in a day on passing to give the air-minded Washington Huskies a dose of their own medicine Saturday in Seattle.

USC fullback Jim Decker has recovered from a knee injury and will be in the lineup for the Trojan game in Los Angeles against Texas Christian Friday night. Center Marv Goux and tackle Mario Dore, hurt in the 12-7 victory over Northwestern, are also expected to be ready, said coach Jess Hill.

Coach Jack Myers said when Idaho meets his College of the Pacific Tigers in Stockton Saturday night, his boys finally will be facing a team "that won't have us overmanned, but will be on a par with us." The Tigers have lost all three games. Idaho has scored only one touchdown in three meetings.

College Grid Briefs

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Coach Kip Taylor criticized his Oregon State Beavers Monday for mistakes they made in last week's 17-7 loss to Washington and warned of probable lineup changes before Saturday's game with Washington State.

Taylor called the offensive and defensive line play disappointing and said the tackling was not sharp enough.

OSC will play Washington State at Pullman.

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Oregon players received only minor hurts in last week's game with Utah and should be in good shape for the Saturday encounter with California, Coach Len Casanova said Monday.

The game will be played at Berkeley.

SEATTLE (AP) — Apparently fully recovered from a head injury, sophomore Bobby Cox turned up at the Washington football drills Monday and appeared slated for frontline quarterbacking duties when the Huskies tackle tough UCLA here Saturday.

Cox was injured Saturday in Washington's 17-7 win over Oregon State. Sandy Lederman, the Huskies No. 1 quarterback, broke a leg in the same contest and will be out for the season.

Coach Johnny Cherberg had three other quarterbacks working in Monday's drill. They are sophomore Chuck McAninch, Everett; Mel McCain, Seattle, and Ron Terry, a transfer from Banning, Calif. Junior College.

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — The Oregon State T attack came in for attention Monday as the Washington State Cougars opened practice for Saturday's Pacific Coast Conference game here.

Coach Al Kircher said most of the drills will stress defense against the Beaver formations.

The Cougars are expected to be at nearly full strength for the Saturday clash. Halfbacks Dewey Keith and Denny Rath were hurt in last week's 40-14 loss to Texas but are expected to be available at game time.

HUGE . . . Coach Buddy Parker glances anxiously at Les Bingaman as the largest man in professional football, weight is at 349½ pounds before one of the Detroit Lions' ball games. Bingaman will be the middle guard on defense, for the professional champions this season.

New York Southpaw Leads ERA

NEW YORK (AP) — Southpaw Johnny Antonelli posted the lowest earned run average among major league pitchers while producing 21 victories and six shutouts for the New York Giants during the regular 1954 season.

Antonelli, who had his talented left hand in two of the Giants' World Series triumphs over Cleveland, permitted 66 earned runs in 259 innings for a sparkling 2.29 earned run mark, statistics compiled by The Associated Press disclosed today.

CAPTURED

Mike Garcia of the Indians, a 19-game winner, captured the American League title with a 2.64 average, barely edging Chicago's Sandy Consuegra, who finished with 2.67.

Garcia gave up 76 earned runs in 259 innings and Consuegra, with a 16-3 won-lost record, allowed 49 in 155.

A pitcher must work at least 154 innings to be considered for the crown.

Lew Burdette of Milwaukee wound up a poor second to Antonelli in the National League, giving up 74 earned runs in 237 frames for a 2.81 slate. Lew won 15 games and lost 14.

Ruben Gomez of the Giants, another World Series victor, finished third with 2.84 on 70 earned runs in 222 innings. He had a 17-9 won-lost record.

SIMMONS FOURTH

Curt Simmons of the Philadelphia Phillies was fourth with 2.92, followed by Robin Roberts, also of the Phillies with 2.96 and Gene Conley of Milwaukee with 2.97.

Early Wynn of Cleveland ended up in a third-place tie with teammate Bob Lemon in the American League. Each had an average of 2.72. Wynn permitted 82 earned runs in 271 innings and Lemon, 78 in 258.

Steve Gromek of Detroit was fifth with 2.77. Next came Virgil Trucks of Chicago, 2.78, and Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees, 2.82.

Edmonton Tops Calgary

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP) — Edmonton cashed in on Calgary fumbles Monday night to defeat the Stampeders 21-6 and earn a berth in the Western Interprovincial Football Union playoffs.

Calgary went out in front 6-0 in the first quarter but the Eskimos came back with three converted touchdowns and a field goal to gain third place in the standings.
