You can have your seats reserved at Shively's without any extra cost for Eli Perkins' lecture. There will be a packed house as many seats have been sold already.

A house owned by James Beeson, of Beeson's Mill, out on the Abernethy, was burned Saturday night. The loss was about $500, there being no insurance. The family of Edward Traylor, occupied the house.

A great many complimentary remarks are made by visitors to our city upon the appearance of the well kept lawn surrounding the court house. The credit is due Peter Nelson, who for eight years has filled the position as janitor. The entire care of the grounds is left to his direction and the tasteful management of the flowers and shrubbery is proof of his efficiency and industry.

John Shadle has secured a lease of the Oriental Hotel, and has thoroughly renovated the house, painted, carpeted and refurnished the rooms and put everything in first class order. The table is now equal to if not better than any hotel in the city. Board can be had at reasonable rates by the day, week, or month. First class accommodations for transient custom. This house will hereafter be known as the "Willamette Hotel." 5t
