

BROWNELL'S CLACKAMAS MEETING.

Clackamas, Ore., May 22.—(To the Editor of the Enterprise.)—Senator Brownell in his address at Clackamas said that he had formerly rode on a railroad pass, but does not do so now, although admitting that he had received a great many passes from the railroads for other people.

He stated that he had always fought the railroads and would continue to do so. He admitted that these same railroads had given him hundreds of passes for distribution during the past twelve years.

He loses his case of self-evident contradictions in the statement of it. He would have his audience believe that he has grown so strong in "civic virtue," which he loudly preaches, that he now abhors the use of a pass himself, but at the same time is willing to procure railroad passes with which to impair the "civic virtue" of his neighbors.

He procures these passes, too, from the very railroads he has been fighting for twelve years and whom he promises to continue to fight.

Now, if we accept Mr. Brownell's statement to be true, we are forced to adopt one or the other of the following conclusions, namely:

1st. Either that the railroads have been fooled all the twelve years they have given the passes to Senator Brownell and his political friends, and have considered him their friend; or 2. That they have cheerfully given hundreds of passes to their publicly avowed enemy.

It does not take the railroads twelve years to discover whether a state senator is a friend or an enemy.

No one could be made to believe that the railroads give passes so freely to the man that is fighting them and has been for twelve years and promises to continue to fight them.

Who ever heard of anyone having a horse and buggy or an automobile with which to give his enemies a free ride, and yet if we believe the public statements Senator Brownell makes, this is just what the railroads are doing and have been doing for twelve years—giving passes to their enemy.

This condition of things might come to pass when the millennium is at hand, but not under the present order of affairs. It is only a piece of political fiction, conceived by Mr. Brownell to mislead.

No, Senator, this explanation of the wholesale use of these free passes is not satisfying to the thinking element of your Clackamas audience.

People who think cannot be made to believe that the railroads are giving away such a great money equivalent, as these passes represent, to their avowed enemy, without the hope of anything in return.

Some of the staunchest friends of the railroads in the United States Senate at Washington that have been quietly fighting President Roosevelt and his railroad rate bill, have also been the loudest to shout for "civic righteousness" and to contend that they are with the President and against the railroads. Senator Steve B. Elkins, of West Virginia, is of that class, but in order to be re-elected he has to stand with Roosevelt and his railroad policy, for West Virginia would turn him down in the coming election if he did not do so.

Well how do such men as Elkins, Aldrich, Depew, Foraker and all that class of Senators who are fighting for "special interests" get in to the Senate?

Why the answer is easy, they place a trained politician in every county in the state from which they hope to be returned to the U. S. Senate and load them down with railroad passes and other perquisites with which to control and corrupt the people. Then these politicians take along some whiskey or other vitals or have their friends do it, which is safer and preaches "civic virtue" and "civic righteousness." They become the veritable apostles of "progress and civilization," until they gain the confidence of the people with the help of these railroad passes.

I am a Roosevelt Republican and have an unaltering faith in his honesty of purpose to deal out justice fair and equitably between the railroads and the people and among all the varied interests of this nation, but the man who has been mixed up in so many entangling alliances with the railroads as has Senator Brownell and whose position on these passes and other matters is so contradictory as his own public admissions prove them to be, is not worthy to be trusted as a friend of the people and of President Roosevelt. I believe with Governor Folk that the people should vote their partnership a part of the time and their patriotism all the time.

Respectfully yours,
C. F. CLARKE.

CIRCULAR LETTER TO VOTERS.

Oregon City, Oregon, May 22, 1906.

To the Voters of Clackamas County, Dear Husbands, Brothers and Sons:

We, your wives, mothers, sisters and daughter, after having crossed the plains with you to build a new Land of Freedom, after braving the perils of starvation, Indian wars and frontier hardships, after tending your hearthstones for two generations and giving you the best of our lives for the conquest of the wilderness, today ask for the ballot. We have owned lands with you from the beginning, have attended the same schools, and in no respect differ from you in intelligence or interest in the country.

Brothers, the only people in Oregon who cannot vote are idiots, criminals, insane people and—women. It hurts our feelings to be so classed, we who have taught the schools of Oregon for sixty years, who have paid taxes and obeyed laws had no voice in making. Indians are voting now. American-born Chinamen, negroes, and foreigners after only a short residence here, and yet we, daughters of the country, are shut out.

We are interested in the same things that you are, in good men in office, in good laws and low taxes—in fact, what are you interested in that does not affect us? Are Indians, or Chinamen, or foreigners better able to decide these questions than we? If we had a vote in a quiet, dignified way we could express our wishes without undue publicity. Taxation without representation is tyranny are you less patriotic than our Revolutionary fathers? Will you not fight for this cause? The ballot for Oregon will do more for Oregon than the Lewis & Clarke Fair did in the wonderful new time so swiftly coming, hence, voters, we ask you to put an X opposite 302 on your ballot June 4th for the women of Clackamas county.

WANT FREE DELIVERY.

Receipts of Oregon City Office Entitled People to Service. Postmaster T. P. Randall has renewed his efforts towards securing for Oregon City a free delivery of mail within the city limits. Mr. Randall appeared before the City Council last Friday night and explained that the receipts of the Oregon City office are now sufficiently large to entitle this city to this service but that before the same could be established the Government requires that the houses be regularly numbered and the names of streets be posted. He asked the Council to take action toward having this done.

On motion the matter was referred to the committee on Streets and Public Property with power to act in formulating plans. This committee will prepare ordinances covering the subjects presented and submit the same at an early meeting of the Council.

Last year the receipts of the Oregon City office exceeded the required amount of $10,000, necessary for securing free delivery service, but the department refused to grant free delivery at that time for the reason that after deducting the box rental, receipts the total fall below $10,000. For the year ending June 30, next, Postmaster Randall reports that the receipts of the office will be between $13,000 and $14,000, exclusive of box rentals, and it will be on this showing that the establishing of a free delivery will be asked at this time.

DON'T READ THIS. Mr. N. F. Nelson, Independent candidate for Senator from Clackamas County, has lived in Polk county for about forty years, and during all of that time, he has been my neighbor and friend. All of these years his standing for honesty and ability has been absolutely unquestioned; hence I in common with many of his old time neighbors, endorse his candidacy and believe the people of Clackamas county might do much worse than to elect him to the State Senate at the coming election.

W. T. PEARCE, Deputy Assessor for Polk Co.

HIGH SCHOOL PICNIC. Go by Steamer Spencer to The Dalles and Return. The pupils of the ninth grade at the Barclay high school, accompanied by the members of the tenth grade as invited guests, spent Saturday on a picnic up the Columbia river. The party, which was under the chaperonage of City Superintendent Clark and Mrs. Godfrey, made the trip on the Steamer Spencer. Those forming the party were: City Superintendent Clark, Mrs. Godfrey, Mary Scott, Alice Goetting, Genevieve Capens, Winnie Jackson, Hazel Gisher, Luella Niles, Eva Phillips, Mary Sandstrom, Lizzie Roos, Ethel Park, Will Jackson, Allie Grout, Carl Schram, Henry Frost, Harry Schultz, Millard Gillett, Will Strohmeyer, Harley Blackwell, Rutherford Ward, Malcolm Telford, Raymond Caulfield, Isidor Price, Lloyd Harding, Russell Wood, Harold Waldron and E. S. Latourette.

Tomorrow the ninth grade pupils will be the guests of the tenth grade when a picnic will be held at the site of the old hatchery on the Clackamas. The trip will be made in hayracks.

ABOUT THAT SHORTAGE.

Certain unscrupulous persons are making capital out of the statement I had in the county papers of last week. I did not mention under whose term of office the shortage occurred for I do not know, but I understand the shortage occurred several years ago and the present incumbent has nothing whatever to do with it.

LOVER MEETS IRATE FATHER.

Wall Harris, Deaf-Mute, is Roughly Handled by Girl's Parent.

Wall Harris, an employe in the Doernbecker furniture factory at Portland, was unable to report for work Monday morning and instead occupies a cell in the city jail here all because of a storm interview he had Sunday afternoon with R. D. Decker, whose daughter Harris has for some time been enamored of.

For more than a year Harris has persisted in showing attentions to Miss Decker, who is also a mute, notwithstanding his suit was not encouraged by the girl and was firmly opposed by the parents. Sunday afternoon Harris, partly intoxicated, went to the Decker home with the intention of exterminating the family as he announced reaching the Decker's at Clackamas Heights. Upon reaching the home of the Decker's, Harris was invited in and sat and conversed in the sign language with members of the family. Scarcely a half-hour had elapsed when Harris became angered and announcing by his method of conversation that he intended to do bodily harm to the entire family, removed his coat in preparation, but before he got into action, Mr. Decker had sliced the fellow and thrown him headlong through the door. In his hurried exit, Harris received a severe cut on the back of the head besides being otherwise disfigured while all of the fight was immediately taken out of him.

Officers were telephoned and informed that Harris had been seriously hurt. Deputy District Attorney Schuebel, Chief of Police Burns and Deputy Sheriff Brown procured a conveyance and brought Harris to this city where he was lodged in the jail after Dr. Mount had attended to his injuries, the gash in the head requiring six stitches for proper treatment.

When intoxicated, Harris is extremely troublesome, having about a year ago created a similar scene at the home of Decker's and all because of unrequited love for the young woman who still rejects his suit.

Harris has been held to the circuit court in bonds fixed at $500. In default of bail he was committed to jail. Harris is charged with threatening to commit murder, the accusation being based on his assault on Miss Decker's father.

CAUGHT COLD WHILE HUNTING A BURGLAR.

Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanorgan, provincial Constable at Chapeau, Ontario, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by Howell & Jones.
