Appointment Slate Set As Ike Plans Vacation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower cleans up some long-standing Washington appointments today before hopping back to Gettysburg, Pa., for a vacation.

One is to greet the National Rural Letter Carriers Assn., which opens its convention here today.

The vacation, with golf at the top of the menu, will include considerable work leading up to the President's meetings late this month in Europe with leaders of the Western alliance. He is expected to remain in Gettysburg until near the time of his departure Aug. 26.

Eisenhower Monday set up a Summer White House office in a three-room suite of the Hotel Gettysburg, which overlooks the town's central square. He usually works at his farm outside town when he stays at Gettysburg.

His conferences with European leaders are a prelude to the visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that starts Sept. 15.

Although he notified the small hotel in advance, Eisenhower's appearance there Monday to inspect the office space took towns-people by surprise. By the time Eisenhower left the hotel half an hour later a large crowd had collected to cheer him across the sidewalk.

One aspect of the hotel visit took Eisenhower by surprise too. When he reached the hotel lobby he discovered that he was wearing one street shoe and one spiked golf shoe. He had come directly from the golf course and somehow had changed only one shoe on the way. A secret service man made a quick trip back to the car to collect the other shoe for the President.

The President's suite on the third floor of the hotel is right in the middle of the historic Pennsylvania town of 7,000 population.

Across the square is a building where Abraham Lincoln paused for a time to polish his Gettysburg address. A drugstore now occupies the street floor.

Down the street to the left of the hotel are a barber shop and a lunch room. Around the corner on the road leading to Harrisburg are a dress shop, a telegraph office, a movie theater and a onetime gymnasium now being used as a press headquarters.

A White House desk, swivel chair, lamp and pen were brought to the hotel office from Washington. The hotel furniture includes three maple chairs, a cane chair, end tables with lamps, a small davenport, and a mirror. There also is a 21-inch television set.

One of the two telephones is hooked to the White House. The other is No. 1 on the hotel switchboard.

Hotel Manager Henry M. Scharf, who greeted the President at the hotel door, was asked if the rooms were called the presidential suite.

"It will be from now on," he grinned.

Last Fire Death

CHICAGO (UPI)—A 14-year-old boy Sunday night became the 95th victim of last December's fire at Our Lady of the Angels School. William Eddington, an eighth-grade pupil, had been the last one still hospitalized as a result of the blaze which flashed through the grammar school minutes before classes were to be dismissed. The fire's death toll now stands at 92 children and 3 nuns.

First recorded use of firearms in battle was at Metz, France, in 1324, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.
