REAL ESTATE.

Wanted Badly

We have just received two orders from outside parties for West Side apartment houses, one up to $100,000 and another up to $150,000. Must be priced to sell. This is a bona-fide proposition from people who mean business. If your property answers the above, kindly notify us not later than Monday, October 9th. See Geo. P. Henry, with

For Sale—Flat and Apartment Property.

IRVINGTON FLAT ONLY $7500.
To my knowledge there is not another flat at this price in Irvington. Five large rooms in each flat, double basement, each with steam heating plant, and laundry trays, wash basins in each bedroom, double garage. Here is income value, as well as a good buy.
MR. LEMONS, Bdwy. 6007.

APARTMENT HOUSE "FOR LEASE."
I have one of the classiest apartment houses in this city and will lease for a term of five years. This house is located close in, and there was never a vacancy. There are 31 apartments, and all is required is three months' rent in advance. Here is an opportunity of your life and is a great money maker. AF 931, Oregonian.

APT. HOUSE.
Have one that is a bargain at $75,000; big monthly net; will trade for larger proposition or other income property. J. Robbins, 361 Ry. Exch. Bdwy. 5931.

NEW DOUBLE flat on west side boulevard; income $90 per month. Large tract of ground. Will sell for $8000; terms. BEN RIESLAND, 404 Platt bldg.

4-FAMILY FLAT, $16,000.
South of Washington-st., steam heating plant, good income, excellent condition; some terms.
