Tutor Raps Short Skirts

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Are short skirts indecent?

William N. Craley, principal of the suburban Central Union High School, says skirts with hemlines above the knees certainly are indecent.

When he made this known in personal warnings last week to a handful of the 700 girls in the junior-senior high school, he started a sizzling feud that boiled over today into the hands of a 12-member citizens committee.

At a noisy meeting Monday night, at which parents referred to Craley as dictatorial, the school board decided to let the citizens committee resolve the hemline controversy.

When one parent asked for a show of feeling on whether the board and school administration should be thrown out, about 650 of the 700 persons at the meeting stood up.

The 96 pupils who brought the issue to a head last Friday by staging a sit-down strike in the school cafeteria were readmitted to school Monday. Observers said they didn't notice any bare knees.

Man Indicted For Slaying

EUGENE (AP)—William Gordon Jordan, 57, Goble, Ore., was indicted today by the Lane County Grand Jury for involuntary manslaughter.

Jordan is accused of "culpable negligence" in the shooting of Willard Dale Carney, 51, Costa Mesa, Calif., in a hunting accident.

Carney was killed when struck by a bullet at the base of his neck while hunting north of Mohawk last Thursday.

AUSTRIA LODGES PROTEST

VIENNA (UPI) — The Austrian foreign ministry Sunday protested an alleged violation of Austrian air space by a U.S. Army helicopter. An official report said the helicopter, stationed at Toelz in West Germany, landed at Schoenbichl in the Tyrol, 200 yards inside Austrian territory on Saturday.

Cabbage is supposed to have come from western Europe and England, but ancient Egyptians worshiped it in their religion.

Rumors Denied

SALEM (AP) — The federal government has no intention of moving or closing the Coast Guard depot near Astoria, Rep. Walter Norblad, R-Ore., said Monday.

"Rumors regarding such a closing have apparently been rather widespread, but a check with the U.S. Coast Guard headquarters in Washington, D.C., proves them to be entirely false," he said.

IN ALASKA As in all 50 states, the vitality of busy Americans has moved our economy into a new age of action.

Take Alaska's oil industry, for example: Oil was discovered two years ago, is now flowing in commercial quantities. And starting this week, a new pipeline is speeding it to waiting tankers at Cook Inlet—which is a 22-mile journey through muskeg and swamp forests.

For Alaska, Standard's participation in the pipeline project is another step forward in an expanding oil industry, with new jobs and opportunities. For all America, it will add oil to our strategic reserves—new vigor and strength to our ever-accelerating economy.
