Easterners Welcome Sun

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sunny weather and rising temperatures lent a hand today as Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia dug out from a record snowfall that all but paralyzed the hardest hit areas.

Schools were closed in hundreds of localities in the three states. Two Virginia highway deaths were attributed to the storm.

The arrival of sunny skies and higher temperatures—expected to reach into the mid-40s — were helping some, but highway crews faced the enormous task of clearing roads.

Main highways were opening and traffic moving, but secondary routes were yet to get attention.

Even as the Weather Bureau reported the coastal low which brought so much snow, sleet and rain to the three state-area had moved well out to sea, it predicted increasing cloudiness and more snow for the mountain sections Saturday night.

Northern West Virginia had 11 inches of new snow atop 31 inches left from earlier storms. State roads officials said 20 per cent of the Jefferson-Berkeley-Morgan County area was isolated prior to the most recent storm. They said it will be several days before secondary routes are opened to traffic.

2 Captured After Tip

PORTLAND (AP) — An anonymous telephone call led to the arrest Wednesday night of two escapees from the Washington State Reformatory at Monroe.

Police said the escapees, Jimmy D. McDaneld, 22, of Tacoma and William Robert Goss, 23, of Portland, were arrested in a downtown tavern. They offered no resistance, police said.

McDaneld and Goss participated in a mass break from the reformatory Monday. Of the five who fled, two are now still at large.

A police department spokesman said today that detectives got on the trail of Goss and McDaneld after receiving an anonymous phone call that they were staying at an apartment house here. A search of the apartment house failed to turn up the men, but police then learned they were at the tavern and the arrests followed.

Both McDaneld and Goss had been serving terms for forgery at the time of the escape.
