GALLERY OF NEW MEMBERS OF OREGON LEGISLATURE

WILLIAM A. CARTER, REPRESENTA TIVE FROM JACKSON COUNTY.

GOLD HILL, Or., Dec. 21.—William A. Carter, Representative from Jackson County, was born in Tennessee in 1874. At the age of 15 years he moved with his parents to Willow Springs, Mo., and two years later graduated from the Willow Springs High School. In 1893 he came to Jackson County, Oregon, with his parents, and has since resided at Gold Hill. Ambitious to follow the law, Mr. Carter pursued his studies at night after his day's labor was done, engaging in mining as a means of livelihood, from 1893 to 1896. He continued his studies for four years while serving as City Recorder of Gold Hill, until 1899, when, at the age of 25, he was admitted to practice in the courts of Oregon. He is now the junior member of the law firm of Hammersley & Carter, of this place.

Mr. Carter is an ardent Republican, and made an active canvass in the election, his success being attested by the fact that he was elected by a majority of more than 200 votes over his Democratic competitor in a county generally conceded to be anti-Republican.

EAST SIDE CHURCHES.

Attractive Christmas Services Have Been Arranged.

In the East Side churches, as well as the West Side, today's church services have been arranged with a view to celebrating the Christmas holiday. The music has been made a special feature of the worship at all the churches.
