Reservoir Project Bid Is Awarded

Congressman Al Ullman announced Wednesday the awarding of a contract in the amount of $13,935.98 for construction of the Gerber Reservoir Maintenance Station and the supply and installation of a lightning protection system.

Construction is slated to start June 25.

The contract was awarded to A. E. Fitzgerald of 329 Rogers Street, Klamath Falls.

This work is being accomplished under the accelerated public works program, and is largely in response to efforts of the congressional delegation to attain approval of added projects for areas of substantial unemployment.

SOC Alums Elect Lee

Members of the Old - Timers Branch of the Southern Oregon College Alumni Association attended their biennial reunion June 7, 8, and 9 on the college campus, and picked Jeff Lee, Klamath Falls, as new alumni secretary.

Highlights of the reunion included the election of officers, and a resolution that the new classroom building to be constructed on the SOC campus be named after Professor B. F. Mulkey, who served as president of the Southern Oregon Normal School from 1902 to 1907. The group also set up an Old-Timers loan and scholarship fund which will be administered by the SOC Foundation. Chairman of the foundation committee, Professor Albert Joy, Harbor, met with the committee Saturday afternoon and reported that funds could be presented to the college and earmarked for the purpose intended.

ADC Reports Men Needed

The United States Recruiting Service has vacancies for qualified men in the United States Army Air Defense Command, said Lt. Col. Arthur G. May, the commanding officer of the U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station at Portland.

Colonel May further stated that under this program a young man can make application, qualify and choose the missile unit to which he would like to be assigned. Vacancies are presently available at the following locations: Dallas and Fort Worth, Kansas City, Key West, Miami, Omaha and Lincoln, and Seattle and Spokane. He said also that this is the first time since last October that the Army has had vacancies in the Regular Army Missile Units and this has always been a choice program for men enlisting.

For further information contact Sgt. M. W. Buess, Klamath Falls, Army Recruiter, 417 Main Street, or phone TU 4-8401.

Sick Donkeys

ABORFIELD, England (UPI) — Mrs. Violet Philpin, 61, said Wednesday she has spent several thousand pounds on her hobby of buying and caring for "sick donkeys that nobody wants."

Don't Let Very Young Make Final Decisions

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: My wife and I have had a continuous argument for 15 years. We decided it was about time we asked somebody to settle it once and for all. You have no idea what trouble we have run into because of this one misunderstanding.

When my wife tells me on Thursday that we are going to her mother's house "next Saturday" I get the idea she means the Saturday of the same week—like "the day after tomorrow."

This is one of those crazy things that probably bugs many people. Will you be good enough to print my letter and your reply in the paper? It would help us a lot. —IN A DAZE OVER DAYS

Dear Daze: According to Webster's Third International Dictionary "next" means: "Nearest. Nothing intervening, adjoining in series, immediately following."

So, if on Thursday your wife tells you you are going to visit her mother "next Saturday" it clearly means the day after tomorrow because that's the nearest Saturday—immediately following, with nothing intervening.

Dear Ann Landers: We are having the same family fight for the third summer in a row. Our son is now 11 years old and since he was 9, I (the father) have felt that Delbert should go to camp—even if only for two weeks. Delbert does not want to go to camp and his mother says there is no reason we should insist on it.

I wouldn't mind if the boy did something constructive during the summer—but all he wants to do is stay up half the night watching TV, sleep late in the morning and then nag his mother to take him swimming or to a movie in the afternoon.

My wife says the youngster should not be forced to leave home because it might make him feel rejected. She says he could be emotionally damaged for life. Your advice is wanted.—THE SINGLETON.

Dear Singleton: Your wife is raising a vegetable instead of a son and you must share in whatever happens to the boy—if you permit her to get away with it.

Pre-teen children should not be allowed to make such decisions. They are equipped with neither the judgment nor the maturity to make the choice.

Camp would give the boy what he needs most—discipline, responsibility and healthy competition with other boys. This year don't ask Delbert—tell him he is going to camp, and then send him. He may surprise everyone—including himself—and have the time of his young life.

Dear Ann Landers: I've been dating this man for three years. I've tried four or five times to break up with him but he won't let me.

Whenever I tell him I don't want to see him any more he begins to bawl. He says if I drop him he will sell his car, quit his job, and become a bum. He talks about joining the Foreign Legon or getting on a freighter—or maybe just killing himself. I doubt that he'd go that far but I could never be sure.

Yesterday my boss asked me to work late and finish some reports so he could take them out of town. I had to call my boy friend and cancel our dinner date. He began to cry on the phone and it took me 20 minutes to get him off.

I want to get rid of him permanently but he won't let me. Can you help?—CHAINED

Dear Chained: Translated into honest English your problem reads something like this: "I'd like to dump this guy but there's no one else in sight and I don't want to sit around alone night after night. He's a bore, but he's better than nothing."

What this fellow needs is professional help. And what you need is the courage to face some lonely evenings until you can replace the cry-baby with someone more stable.

Confidential to OUT OF STEP: Nonsense. This is nothing to be worried about. The great philosopher Thoreau said, "If a man does not keep pace with his fellows perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer."

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Rare Clover Discovered

Clover, commonly a three-foliate herb, is superstitiously heralded as a symbol of good luck when it has four leaves, but what unknown powers could a six-leaf clover possibly possess?

This is the problem which confronts Elizabeth Kooken, who found a rare six-leaf stem yesterday in the front yard of her home at 1756 Washburn Way.

Since she has never seen such an over-abundance of leaves on a single stem of clover—and neither have her neighbors—the stem is being carefully preserved in a jar of water for all non-believers to drop in and view.

ACCUSES U.S.

TOKYO (UPI) — The North Vietnamese army high command has accused the United States of "feverishly" accelerating the buildup of American military forces in South Viet Nam, Hanoi Radio reported in a broadcast monitored here today.

The radio said the Communist army high command demanded that the International Control Commission "draw appropriate conclusions and urge the United States to cease all introduction" of military personnel and equipment into South Viet Nam.
