ACTRESS GRANTED DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Actress Claire Kelly, 29, was granted a divorce Monday from Robert Kenaston, 29, son of former actress Billie Dove. She testified her husband hated actresses and "wouldn't let me work."

Miss Kelly told the court that Kenaston, an auto salesman and heir to a wealthy banking family, "was rude to all my friends."

Miss Kelly waived alimony but Kenaston agreed to pay $150 monthly child support.

Pursuant to ORS 477.158, the forester may, during periods of fire hazard conditions, refuse, postpone or restrict issuance of such permits when necessary to prevent danger to life or property. The permit shall require the entrant:

(1) To refrain from smoking except in places designated as safe in said permit.

(2) To build no open fires except in places designated as safe in said permit.

(3) To have as equipment when using campfires, except when traveling as a pedestrian or camping at improved, designated and posted campgrounds, tools specified by the forester as suitable for extinguishing fires.

This Proclamation shall be effective from and after the 26th day of July, 1963, and shall remain in full force and effect until terminated by similar order of the Governor.

Done at the Capitol in Salem, Oregon, this 18th day of July, 1963.
