The exhibition of the Arts and Crafts Society, now being shown at the Museum of Art, is attracting much attention. Mrs. Lee Hoffman, as president of the society, has been most active in bringing this exhibition to Portland and has gathered around her many interested workers who will be in attendance each day. Thursday evening was invitation night and many responded, and on all sides expressions of pleasure and admiration were heard. Among the out of town exhibitors, probably the metal work of George Gebelein, of Boston, is best known here, many of his pieces being owned in the city. Of the jewelry workers, Miss Mildred Watkins, of Cleveland, is well-known here, having visited often with Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, and having taught here during one Summer. Miss Watkins has a number of pieces on exhibition. The leather work of the Doiese sisters, of Chicago, is wonderfully interesting and beautiful. Of local exhibitors in the metal work, Miss Marjorie Noble, Miss Helen Harmon, Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley and Frank W. Higgins were all being congratulated on their work, and J. Nelson Wisner, of Oregon City, was kept busy accepting praises on his wonderful pieces. The case containing the work of pupils of Frank Higgins was surrounded all evening and came in for praise from friends of the workers. There is much in the exhibit to please all interested in any kind of handicraft. The exhibition is now open to the public each day from 9 to 5 and on Sunday from 2 to 5.

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Quoting from Fra Elbertus the Great, who would dare climb heaven without a ladder, "when right."

No sensible man assumes that the advertiser is unable to make good his promises. This harks back to a time when most advertisements were fraudulent. But the times have changed—the man who advertises now can not afford to misstate. He must produce the goods. And just here let me say that if I did not know that Dr. Cady made good I would not have written his ads. Moreover, it is the mind of the times that if you have a good thing you ought to let people know about it. Success, today, turns on human service, and in human service there is no high nor low.

These little curs that yelp at the Rex Dental Company, because it advertises and because it employs specialists, would do well to look to their mangy pelts and pedigrees, and leave the St. Bernards alone.

Just keep on pulling good teeth that any first-class dentist would save. Most all goods and things of great merit have been introduced through advertising. Without merit ten millions of dollars would not have made a success of any of the following which U ALL NO by these abridged names: Steinway, Roger Bros. "1847" Singer, Wanamaker, Tiffany, Equitable, Ivory, Pears, Sapolio, Pearline, Gold Dust, Bromo, Cuticura, Gillette, Karo, Uneeda, Alveolar, Royal, Regal, Rex.

If any one is wearing a partial plate or bridge, and has two or more teeth left in either jaw, we will supply a full set, without using plates or bridge work, that will be firm in the jaw as nature's teeth, and as permanent and more beautiful.

The work is practically painless, and carries our guarantee of satisfaction.

Curing Pyorrhea (loose teeth), a disease given up by other dentists as incurable, is another of our specialties. We cure it absolutely. It's a boastful statement to make, but we can do anything that is possible in dentistry, and what we do is always of the very highest class. Our booklets, Alveolar Dentistry, are free. Write for one if you cannot call. We have samples of our work to show at all times.
