CORRESPONDENCE

LOGAN.

An epidemic of measles is reported, but those afflicted are better. School closed at Lower Logan Tuesday.

The Logan baseball team defeated Shoble boys by a score of 23 to 3.

A number of Logansites went to Eagle Creek Grange picnic Saturday, May 20, and had a very enjoyable time.

Grain looks fine in this locality, but early fruit will be scarce, especially cherries.

Mrs. M. C. Ward writes from the Deschutes they have an acre of onions that are looking fine, also potatoes and other garden vegetables.

TWILIGHT.

James Hylton, while working in the Willamette paper mills, had the misfortune to have his hand badly hurt on a saw.

E. S. Hinkle, of Portland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey last Sunday.

Mr. George Lazelle made a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

William Curran and daughter, of Portland, spent last Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Frank Black.

Wallace McCord has gone with a surveying party and expects to be away several months.

The family of D. L. Boylan are recovering from the measles. A number of Portland friends of Mrs. William McCord spent Tuesday at Maple Lawn farm.

A picnic was held in the grove near the school house last Monday afternoon. It was the last day of school.

A short program was given by the pupils, and the remainder of the time was spent playing games and eating ice cream, a treat from the teacher, Miss Lessee McDonald.

MRS. E. H. HARRIMAN TO FOUND BIG UNIVERSITY IN WEST

NEW YORK, May 26.—Announcement was made today that Mrs. E. H. Harriman would found a great university in the West as a monument to the memory of her husband.

The institution will be called the Edward H. Harriman University. Speculation as to the exact location of the Harriman University favors Southern California.

Mrs. Harriman has not divulged her plans in this respect, except to say that the institution will be on the Pacific Coast.

Matin Nuisance.

It makes one blush. What is the matter with some women? The safety of one's neighbor is sure sacred.

One may risk one's own life if one desires to. But only those of the finer orders would risk hurting another.

Usually it happens to those who thus offend are eminent in wealth and selfish. Occasional a woman whose whole life is devoted to that of a person not thus thoughtless.

Happens are easily cut off and sharpened, and they should be the right length. Too long points are as dangerous as they are ugly.

As for these protruding points, which are a criminal menace, they are as ridiculous as would be a trailing petticoat with a skirt of walking length.

From the Weekly Enterprise November 5, 1866. Home Manufactured Clothing.—It is with pleasure that we call the attention of the trade to the facilities Mr. C. M. Kester has for supplying the market with home manufactured clothing, etc. We sometimes hear a

Cardinal Gibbons Celebrates His Twenty-fifth Anniversary

CARDINAL JAMES GIBBONS recently celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to that rank and at the same time celebrated his fiftieth year as a priest. The occasion was thus a silver as well as a golden jubilee, and the Paulist fathers of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, in New York, presented to the only American cardinal a coat of arms elaborately carved, painted and inlaid in gold and silver.

From the Weekly Enterprise November 19, 1866. An old minister enforced the necessity of difference of opinion by argument: "Now, if everybody had been of my opinion, they would all have wanted my old woman." One of the deacons who sat just behind him responded: "Yes, and if everybody was of my opinion, nobody would have her."
