TEMPERANCE WOMEN OUTLINE WORK.—"Agitation, Education and Organization," was the slogan adopted by the County Women's Christian Temperance Union institute held in the Woodstock Methodist Episcopal church, Friday. Mrs. Mary L. Mallet, county president, presided. Mrs. R. McCourt outlined plans for work during the ensuing year in temperance and social purity. She urged that to do effective work the mothers must be reached and instructed in the real needs of childhood, and that the masses must be reached through personal work, the press and the pulpit. Mrs. Mary L. Mallett read a paper on "City Beautiful," Mrs. L. Little on "Health Culture," and Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden on "Purity in Art and Literature." Carlton Dark, son of Rev. E. F. Dark, won the medal contest. The women of the local union served refreshments.

"ARCHAIC GREEK ART" IS SUBJECT.—The second of the free Sunday afternoon lectures given by the Portland Art Association at the Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor streets, will take place today at 4 o'clock. The lecture will be on "Archaic Greek Art," by Mrs. Ralph Wilbur. The Davies drawings and paintings now on exhibition will be removed from the galleries early in the week. The Museum hours are: 9 to 5 week days; 2 to 5 Sundays; free the afternoons of Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. In the Monday afternoon series of lectures, the first on the Medieval Period will be given tomorrow, at 4 o'clock, by Miss Henrietta H. Failing.

"DISEASE is a synonym for ignorance, wilfulness and cussedness." "What is needed is change of habits, not change of climate." "There is but one cure, and that is the removal of cause."—Extracts from "The Stuffed Club." Mr. R. A. Maynard and Mrs. Mila Tupper Maynard, of Denver, will give a series of lectures on the subject of health from the viewpoint of the teachings of "The Stuffed Club," on the evenings of January 10 to 14, at 8 o'clock, in the Masonic Temple Hall, Tenth and Yamhill streets. The subjects are: "Education versus Medication," "Knife and Fork Suicide" (digging our graves with our teeth), "Master or Mastered," "Human Conservation," etc. See announcements in the newspapers as to afternoon meetings. Both Mr. and Mrs. Maynard have had extensive experience as lecturers. You cannot afford to miss these meetings. Come and bring your friends. No charge for admission. Be on time!*

EAST SIDE DISCUSSES THEATER PROJECT.—The special committee from the East Side Business Men's Club has conferred with John F. Cordray and T. J. Thomas concerning a theater on the East Side. It was decided that at least a half block extending from Grand to Union avenue would be required and revenue-producing stores are contemplated. It was estimated that the building would cost between $225,000 and $250,000. Many inquiries have been received from Eastern cities since the agitation was started. The committee will confer with property owners to ascertain how they feel about the project.

OWNERS of property and residents of Irvington and Holladay Addition are urgently requested to attend the meeting to be held at lecture room of First Universalist Church, Friday evening, January 13th, 1911, at eight o'clock, to take measures to prevent the adoption and passage by the Council of Portland of the proposed ordinance granting a franchise to the Mt. Hood Railway to lay tracks upon Halsay, Twenty-fourth, Weidler, Wheeler and Broadway streets and operate railway trains on said streets. *

SISTERS ARE GRATEFUL.—The Sisters of Mercy of St. Agnes' Baby Home, Park Place, return their grateful thanks to all who helped to make Christmas bright and joyful for their little charges. The following they wish to especially thank: Pacific Coast Biscuit Co., Allen & Lewis, M. Seller & Co., American Bakery, Cathedral Aid Society and many other ladies of the Parish. Mrs. F. Smith, Mrs. Wittmard, Mrs. M. G. Munley and Mrs. Devaney.

NEW DENTAL COLLEGE PLANS PREPARED.—Plans have been prepared by Architects Jacobberger & Smith for a five-story reinforced concrete building to be erected on East Sixth and Oregon streets for the North Pacific Dental College. The building will be 100 by 100 feet, with full cement basement, and the cost is estimated at $75,000.

CHARLES HEBBERD, manager of the Tull & Gibbs Portland store, together with C. P. McCullough and H. L. Stevens, managers respectively of the furniture department and women's apparel department, left for the East during the past week to effect their purchases for the coming Spring season. *

WOODLAWN POST INSTALLS.—The following were installed as officers of Gordon Granger Post of the Grand Army of the Republic Friday night: Commander, Edwin E. Covey; senior vice-commander, H. H. Bailey; junior vice-commander, J. G. Barber; adjutant, W. H. Murphy; surgeon, J. T. McHolland; chaplain, J. R. Clark; quartermaster, J. M. Blair; officer of the day, Charles S. Elwood; outer guard, J. J. Hughes; quartermaster sergeant, M. C. Robinson; post color-bearer, W. G. Roberts; trustee, Charles E. York; patriotic instructor, H. C. Dutton. The Relief Corps elected officers as follows: President, Mrs. I. Gray; senior vice-president, Mrs. J. Wheeler; junior vice-president, Mrs. N. Roeth; treasurer, Mrs. Murrett; Chaplain, Mrs. Murphy; conductor, Mrs. Eisenhauer; assistant conductor, Mrs. Hough; guard, Mrs. Warwood; assistant guard, Mrs. Roberts; musician, Mrs. Thornton; press correspondent, Mrs. Willey; patrotic instructor, Mrs. E. Owen; color-bearers, Mrs. Vanhorn, Mrs. Milligan, Mrs. Greene and Mrs. Daniels.

A BORN FIGHTER.—Frank L. Smith has gotten out his shillalah in the cured meat fight and declares he will undersell everybody in Portland. Tomorrow morning everyone of Smith's 22 markets will sell fancy sugar-cured Oregon bacon of medium weight for 20c; bacon of more weight is now 17½c; dry salt pork is 15c; sweet pickled pork is 15c; fancy small hams—yes small hams—are 15c and half a ham is the same price, just 15c; sliced ham is 25c, every ounce is guaranteed selected sugar-cured stock. The cured meats other folks advertise is the dry salt-cured article much inferior to Smith's sugar-cured meats. A three-pound pail of the finest kettle-rendered lard is 45c; a five-pound pail is reduced to 70c, and a ten-pound pail is $1.35. Strictly fresh eggs are 30c; Ferndale butter is 60c; Buttercup butter, a fresh butter is 70c; Norway butter and Oakfarm butter the finest butters on earth are both 50c.

GRAND ARMY INSTALLS OFFICERS.—Lincoln-Garfield Post of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Women's Relief Corps installed officers Tuesday night. The following were the Post officers inducted by J. P. Shaw, past department commander: Commander, Dr. J. E. Hall; senior vice-commander, Joseph Sommers; junior vice-commander, J. O. Brandon; quartermaster, August Wentz; surgeon, J. W. Curran; chaplain, J. S. Hamilton; officer of the day, T. B. McDevitt; officer of the guard, H. M. Krozer; adjutant, R. A. Wohlfarth; sergeant-major, W. E. Hayden; quartermaster-sergeant, A. C. Walters. J. P. Shaw was appointed patriotic instructor.

NO JOKER IN THIS.—Frank L. Smith—everybody's friend—is battering, battering, battering down the price of meats and actually giving away stuff. Beginning Monday in every one of his 22 markets, the smallest as well as the largest, he will give away absolutely free of charge five pounds of fine fresh vegetables: parsnips, turnips, carrots, beets, etc., to the purchaser of five pounds of the following meats: The meat will cost you five pounds for 50c and you may choose from beef flanks, beef necks, Brisket beef, plate beef, short ribs of beef, soft ribs, beef tripe, beef hearts and beef liver. Mutton necks, mutton breasts, shoulder of mutton, flanks of mutton, lamb liver and lamb hearts, veal necks and veal shanks. *

MISS ELLA KENNER'S FUNERAL HELD.—The funeral of the late Miss Ella Kenner, who died in St. Vincents Hospital, was held from Sacred Heart Church, Monday. Miss Kenner was born in Portland 19 years ago and had been prominent in the Sacred Heart parish. Rev. Father Berthold officiated, assisted by Rev. Fathers Commisky and Conway as deacon and subdeacon. The honorary pallbearers were six members of the Young Women's Sodality, Miss Frances Wager, Miss Margaret Mann, Miss Tillie Schomus, Miss Mary Dolan, Miss Mary Mayers and Miss Margaret Duffy. The active pallbearers were: J. Kell, M. Walsh, Edward Lyons, Henry Donkers, Thomas Dunn and L. Schindler. *

"CEMETERY BEAUTIFUL" IS TOPIC.—"Cemetery Beautiful" will be the subject of an illustrated address tonight in Hawthorne Presbyterian Church, East Twelfth and East Taylor streets, by Howard Evart Weed, under the auspices of the Lone Fir Lot Owners' Association. No admission will be charged. Secretary Strowbridge will explain what is being done to beautify Lone Fir Cemetery. He reported yesterday that the names of 800 lot owners had been secured, but that fully 2000 will be required to make the movement a success.

ORIENTAL RUG SALE.—Every rug in the house cut in price 25 to 40 per cent. Nothing reserved. Greatly overstocked, and forced to make this deep cut to reduce. When you take into consideration that our prices are always lower than other dealers, this great price concession means this is the greatest rug buying opportunity ever offered in this city. Our rugs are all marked in plain figures, the green tags show the reduction. Take advantage as the rugs are selling fast. Cash only during this sale. Cartozian Bros., 473 Wash., near 13th st. *

PYTHIAN SISTERS HOLD INSTALLATION.—The officers of Orphea Temple, No. 18, Pythian Sisters were installed Thursday night by installing officer, Matilda Harold, as follows: P. C., Theresa Munz; M. E. C., Emma Roberts; E. C., Mary Littlefield; E. J., Mary Hill; manager, Etna Martin; M. of R. and C., Grace Wheeler; M. of F., Hattie Morris; protector, Elmira Jenkins; outer guard, Matilda Harrold. The initatory degree was given to one candidate and after a buffet lunch a social hour was enjoyed.

THE prize lambs that took first prize and the blue ribbon at the woolgrowers' convention and sheep show was bought by Adams Bros. and sold to G. L. Parker, at 149 First st. Mr. Parker will have the prize lambs on display after Tuesday, January 10. Mr. Parker will be glad to fill any orders for any one with a fastidious palate and appreciates something good to eat. *

Stupendous Cut on Jewelry

For—An Honest Reason

Not the kind the adman turns out with a sharp pencil, or the sales agents work off with a blare and a flare. We never allow any part of our business to go beyond us, never cover mistakes with the divided responsibility racket. Our customers have rendered us a service by trading with us these many years. We'd never hold them up by inflated values dropped low, any sooner than we'd think of holding up a friend in our own home. The monumental cut on jewelry, silverware, diamonds, china, cut glass, etc., is made prior to our removal, a few weeks hence, to Yeon Building. We've always carried standard, high-grade goods, and sold them at popular prices, so these removal prices compel your appreciation. You might doubt their worth if they did not come from our store. Everything must go. We do not expect to hire a wagon as big as a street urchin's limited express to move us. It's a case of the cream of this big, fine stock going to the person who acts quickly.

BUY NOW—Take time to congratulate yourself, and thank us afterward
