HELP WANTED—MALE.

WHAT Navy training develops: When a boy after being in the Navy goes back home to visit, why do the other boys of his age seem young and undeveloped beside him? The answer is—Navy Training.

Four years in the Navy will build a strong physique; will teach self-reliance, obedience; will give alertness, wide-awakeness; will make a young man able to give orders and to take orders.

Beside that, the young man gets steady pay and good pay. He has the chance to save. Fine opportunities for promotion. And he has the congenial companionship of fine young men.

The United States Navy has an extremely fine body of trained men. The Navy Department wants and accepts only the best. It prefers not to enlist, but does recommend that serious-minded, ambitious young men between the ages of 17 and 35 investigate the Navy's opportunities. Those stated above are by no means all.

The nearest Navy Recruiting Station is at 219 Railway Exchange Bldg., Portland, Or. The officer in charge will be glad to see parents and sons, and explain everything you wish to know about work, pay, promotion, retirement, recreation, etc. Or send for "The Making of a Man o' Warsman"; it is free. Address Bureau of Navigation, Box 326, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.
