OREGON CITY, OREGON, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1911.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

McNAMARAS WILL TELL PROBERS ALL

CONSPIRATORS WHO ADMIT DENYING TO BE SENTENCED TODAY.

CONFESSION IS NOT MADE PUBLIC

Government Expects To Obtain Evidence Pointing To Gigantic Plot—Accused Going Before Grand Jury.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.—James B. and John J. McNamara will appear before the Federal grand jury here tomorrow morning to tell their stories. They will go before that body immediately after sentence by Judge Walter Bordwell. This declaration was made here late tonight on unimpeachable authority.

The announcement afforded an explanation of the meager confession written late today by James B. McNamara in the jail corridor, in the presence of his attorney, those of the state and his brother, John J. McNamara, in which "Jim" explained how he blew up the Los Angeles Times October 1, 1910, causing a loss of twenty-one lives.

District Attorney Fredericks admitted tonight that, in addition to the written confession, both brothers had furnished information of signal value to the state. It is practically assured that when the men appear tomorrow before Judge Bordwell, the District Attorney will recommend such leniency as the court may see fit to bestow.

The moment sentence is pronounced, according to plans completed tonight, the brothers will be served with summonses to appear before the Federal inquisitorial body.

The decision reached by the McNamaras is regarded here as of vast importance to the whole country. If there is a gigantic dynamiting conspiracy, which is what the grand jury wants to know about, the state tonight is convinced that tomorrow's developments will place on record the name of every man of importance and position in it. With this information it is believed the work of Federal grand jurors here and in Indianapolis will be fairly simple.

HYDE FIGHTS TO RULE OUT FORMER STORY

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4.—A crucial point in the state's case against Dr. R. Clark Hyde, on trial for the alleged murder of Colonel Thomas H. Swope—whether the physician's testimony in the former hearing may be introduced as evidence in this trial—probably will be decided by Judge Porterfield tomorrow.

An attempt was made by the state today to get before the jury testimony intended to contradict a statement made by Dr. Hyde in the previous hearing. Announcement was also made by Assistant Prosecutor Jost that the accused physician's entire testimony would be read to the jury.

BABCOCK ESTATE IS VALUED AT $8,000

The estate of Samuel J. Babcock, valued at $8,000 was filed for probate Monday. The personality is valued at $7,000 and the realty which consists of five acres of land at $1,000, and brings an annual rental of $120.

The funeral of Mr. Babcock was held at the family residence Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and the interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. The services were attended by many members of Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic, Mr. Babcock having been a member of that organization.

BUILDING FINE SCHOOL.

A fine modern school house is being built at Welches. It will cost $1,000, and H. W. Lang is the contractor. The light enters from two outside doors, front and rear, and a good supply of hygienic blackboards, Miss Bonnie Lewis, of Gladstone, is the teacher.

PROF. ANDERSON BEREAVED.

Father of County School Supervisor Dies in Kansas. C. F. Anderson, supervisor of County Schools in District No. 2, has received a telegram announcing the death of his father at Lincoln, Kan. Mr. Anderson was seventy-five years of age and was a veteran of the Civil War. He was ill only a few hours. The deceased was one of the best known men in Lincoln. Professor Anderson, during his vacation last summer, visited his father.

SUES ON GROCERY BILL.

H. P. Brightbill, the grocer, through U'ren & Schusel, filed suit Monday against W. C. Powell for $227.54, alleged to be due for groceries. Thomas Montefine sued Francisco Samate for $150 alleged to be due on a promissory note.

LITTLETON MAKES IMPASSIONED PLEA

CONGRESSMAN CALLED AGENT OF TRUSTS BITTERLY ATTACKS ACCUSERS.

IMPEACHMENT OF NEW YORKER ASKED

Opening of Congress Marked by Dramatic Appeal For Square Deal—Many Rally To Littleton's Aid.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—An investigation of the operation of the so-called Anti-Trust League was demanded by Republican Leader Mann in the House at the opening session of the sixty-second Congress today, after a remarkable speech by Representative Martin W. Littleton, of New York, who charged Henry S. Martin, secretary of the league, with attempting to defame him.

It was the climax of a dispute between Mr. Littleton and Chairman Stanley, of the Steel Corporation investigating committee.

Round after round of applause punctuated Mr. Littleton's defense of his integrity and Democrats and Republicans assured him of their confidence.

Meantime, Mr. Martin had handed to Speaker Clark a petition, asking that Mr. Littleton be impeached on the ground that he had "co-operated and conspired with heads of the trusts" to prevent a continuance of the Steel inquiry. This memorial, however, was not presented to the public.

Mr. Littleton assailed Martin and others as in conspiracy to use the Steel investigating committee to depress the value of stocks in Wall street.

JOHN D. QUILTS AS HEAD OF OIL TRUST

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—John D. Rockefeller resigned today as director and president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

John D. Rockefeller was elected to succeed Mr. Rockefeller.

SCHOOL CONFERENCE PLANNED

An important conference will be held next Saturday all day at the Standard Oil Company house, Clackamas county. At 10 o'clock the teachers council will assemble for an institute. At noon lunch will be served to the teachers by a mass meeting of parents and teachers will convene to consider many problems, relative to the public school.

THREE PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

William Hardin, accused by his stepdaughter, Eva Woods, A. A. Armstrong, accused of criminal assault, and Francis Dwiggin and Harry Clark, accused of stealing a suit of clothing, pleaded not guilty in Judge Campbell's court Monday.

H. E. CROSS ELECTED MAYOR OF GLADSTONE

LAWYER DEFEATS O. E. FREYTAG BY VOTE OF 85 TO 44—NELSON, WILKINSON, HAMMERLE, HOWELL, WILLIAMS AND PARRISH ARE ELECTED COUNCILMEN.

H. E. CROSS.

Harvey E. Cross was elected Mayor of Gladstone Monday over O. E. Freytag, the present mayor, by a vote of 85 to 44. Frank P. Nelson, James Wilkinson and Frank A. Hammerle were elected councilmen to serve one year. Chambers Howell, A. Williams and C. W. Parrish were elected councilmen to serve two years. John N. Slevens, who had no opposition, received 117 votes for recorder. J. C. Paddock, who also was without opposition, received 101 votes for city treasurer.

COUNCILMAN-ELECT HAD BURGLAR CHASE

John F. Albright, who was elected councilman in the First Ward Monday had an exciting experience with burglars Sunday night. Mr. Albright was getting ready to retire when he heard a strange noise at a rear window. He rushed out in the yard and saw two men running toward the street. Mr. Albright gave chase but the burglars outdistanced him. About half an hour later burglars tried to enter the Seventh Street Bakery, but were frightened away. Policemen Green and Frost, who made an investigation, think they were the same men Albright surprised.

BARCLAY SCHOOL ELECTS.

John Haleston Gets Highest Number of Votes for "Mayor." The Barclay school election Monday resulted as follows: Mayor—John Haleston 15, Alice Hester 9 and Delias Armstrong 10. Treasurer—Herbert Harris 7, Carrie Moore 19 and John Ford 6. Council, First Ward—Virginia Shaw 1, Marion Pickin 2 and Albert Roake 1. Council, Second Ward—George Roos 7, Edmond Bollack 8. GRANT B. DIMICK ELECTED MAYOR

FORMER EXECUTIVE CARRIES EVERY WARD, HAVING MAJORITY OF 112.

WILLIAM ANDRESEN MAKES GOOD RACE

John F. Albright, William Beard and Fred J. Tooze Elected To Council—Plan To Police Hill Section Wins.

Grant B. Dimick, for four years Mayor of Oregon City and four years Judge of Clackamas county, was on Monday elected Mayor of Oregon City by a comfortable majority over William Andresen. Dimick carried all three wards, nosing out in Ward No. 3 by twelve votes. The former Mayor obtained a majority in the three wards of the city of 112 votes.

John F. Albright was elected to the council from the First Ward, receiving 136 votes to 78 for M. D. Phillips. In the Third Ward William Beard was elected councilman over E. P. Elliott. Beard's vote was 86 and Elliott's 29.

The proposal to place a night policeman in the hill section of the city carried by a tremendous majority, the vote being as follows:

	Ward 1	Ward 2	Ward 3
Yes	149	261	85
No	54	90	28
Majorities	95	171	57

F. J. Tooze was chosen councilman in the Second Ward without opposition, his vote being 247 out of 230 votes cast. M. D. Latourette had no opposition for City Treasurer, and obtained 573, his vote being as follows: First Ward, 195; Second Ward, 278; Third Ward, 160.

There were 658 votes cast for Mayor, which is considered a fair vote, when it is remembered that the campaign was an unusually quiet one. The vote for Mayor was:

	Ward 1	Ward 2	Ward 3
Dimick	126	195	66
Andresen	96	125	53
Dimick's majority	30	70	13

Mr. Andresen, when seen last night, after the result was known, said he had no comment to make, other than to thank his friends for their work and support in his behalf.

Judge Dimick gave out the following statement last night:

"I have been informed that I have been elected Mayor of the city by 112 majority and I am proud of the fact that my friends have confidence in my integrity. I desire to state that I have made no campaign either for the nomination or election, nor have I asked a legal voter in Oregon City to support me; nor have I made a promise to appoint any man to office, or even intimated that I was favorable to any person for any position. After January 1, with the cooperation of the council we will give Oregon City a good straight business administration for the ensuing year. I appreciate the many campaign put up by Mr. Andresen and consider him one of our best citizens."

ERNEST J. SIAS LECTURES.

Ernest J. Sias, the well-known lecturer, appeared before a large audience at the Baptist church Monday night in the third of the Lyceum series. The lecture was one of the finest ever given in this city and Mr. Sias held the rapt attention of his hearers. His subject was "The Lost Chord." Mr. Sias was for two years manager of the Western Lyceum Circuit of the Redpath Central in the West.
