SCHUEBEL FOR SHAW.

Oregon City, Or., Dec. 21.— (To the Editor of the Morning Enterprise.)—In my opinion Shaw has made an excellent record as Chief of Police and should be retained. Any man who performs his duty, as Shaw has, should be kept in that position as long as he does his duty. I am decidedly in favor of Shaw being retained in his present office.

CHINA'S PREMIER AGAINST REPUBLIC

ENGLAND ASKS SUPPORT OF
OTHER NATIONS IN PLAN TO SAVE MONARCHY

AMERICA SAID TO FAVOR POLICY

Great Britain Believes Separation Of Dependencies Would Mean Complete Disintegration Of China.

PEKIN, Dec. 21.—Premier Yuan Shi Kai today gave his answer to those who are aiming to transform China into a republic. In an official statement he declared without qualification that he refused to accept a republic.

At the Shanghai peace conference Wu Ting Fang, Foreign Minister in the revolutionary provisional Cabinet, spoke strongly in favor of a republic and later Tang Shao Yi, Yuan Shi Kai's representative, said he was convinced that the abdication of the Emperor and the establishment of a republic was the only thing that would satisfy the people.

At the same time he expressed doubt whether it would be possible to persuade Yuan Shi Kai to abandon his plan for a limited monarchy.

It is believed here that Yuan Shi Kai means what he says and will uphold the monarchy. A new situation has arisen. Great Britain, which has been supporting the Premier's mono-archical program for several weeks, is now "strengthened by Japan, and is endeavoring to obtain the support of the United States and other countries." Great Britain believes the separation of the dependencies, Manchuria, Mongolia and Tibet, and the serious disintegration of China proper, would result from the establishment of a republic, whereas the republicans already have obtained in a material way everything they desired.
Only the name of the monarchy is left.

It is said that the American group, if not the American State Department, already supports the British idea and is ready with two, if not three, of the others of the "four-nation group" of financiers to lead Yuan Shi Kai's government money. Negotiations to this end have been proceeding for some days.

ROOSEVELT WILL BE NAMED BY NEBRASKA

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 21.—A movement that may make Colonel Roosevelt an official candidate for President, even against his will, was started in Nebraska today, when a petition signed by John O. Yeiser, an Omaha lawyer, and twenty-five other citizens was presented for filing in the office of the Secretary of State, asking that the name of Colonel Roosevelt be placed in the ballot to be voted at the Republican primaries April 19 next.

The situation is made more complex by the fact that there is said to be no provision in the primary law of Nebraska for the withdrawal of a candidate who has been nominated.
Yeiser, whose name leads the list of signers, said today that he had been "in correspondence" with Colonel Roosevelt, but he refused to say whether or not he had been authorized to make use of the ex-President's name.

"Under our state laws," said Yeiser, "the candidate is not required to accept the nomination, nor is he authorized to withdraw his name, once it has been filed."

Gordon E. Hayes, one of the attorneys for the defendant in the case of Joseph Bichner, a pioneer of Clackamas county, against Aman Moore, president of the Portland Cement Company, introduced witnesses Thursday who testified that the Bichners attacked Moore and that the cement man acted in self-defense in the fight. Mr. Moore alleges that the Rev. S. A. Hayworth's Resignation Accepted

REV. S. A. HAYWORTH.

The members of the Baptist church, at a meeting Thursday night, refused to accept the resignation of Rev. S.
A. Hayworth until he made a request that it be accepted. The first vote was almost unanimously in favor of retaining Mr. Hayworth. The pastor then explained that he wished to be relieved of the charge the latter part of March, and in deference to his wishes, the congregation accepted his resignation. Mr. Hayworth said Thursday night that he had made no arrangements for his future work, but it is probable that he will return to the Middle West. He has increased the membership of the church, and has been regarded as one of the best pastors in the city. D. C. Latourette and Rev. S. P. Davis, staunch friends of Mr. Hayworth, were the leaders in requesting that he retain the Oregon City charge.

"LAWYERS DUPED ME" SAYS ALLEGED SLAYER

O. C. AND HOLLADAY
PLAY HERE SUNDAY

HARVEY TELLS WHY HE EMPLOYED COUNSEL

The Holladay Athletic Club football team of Portland, which held the local eleven to a no-score tie in the early part of the season will again attempt to wrest the honors from the Oregon City team next Sunday on Canemah Park Field.

This will also be the last game of the season on the local gridiron. The Oregon City eleven has not had its goal line crossed this season. It has met the best teams from Portland and Vancouver. Should the home team be successful in the coming game they may safely claim the championship of the Willamette Valley. In fact it is doubtful if there is a team in the state of the same weight capable of handling them.
Their record so far is remarkable.
Out of nine games the locals have won eight (one forfeited), tied one and not a score against them. They have piled up a total of 107 points against their opponents' cipher. Vancouver, Edmont Stars and Wabaah received the most beatings. The Holladay management has sent in the same line up as they used before.
This game will without a doubt be the most bitterly fought one of the season. It means the blue ribbon for the winner.

Game will be called at 2:30 p. m. sharp.
Line-up:

PRISONER TALKS OF WORST CHANGE

"THEY CAME AFTER ME IN AN AUTOMOBILE AND SAID I WAS TO BE ARRESTED," DE-CLARES SUSPECT

Nathan B. Harvey, the wealthy Milwaukee nurseryman, arrested on a charge of murdering the Hill family at Ardenwald Station, June 9, Thursday declared that he was duped into signing the contract with Jay Bowerman and W. H. Able to give them $20,000 for defending him in case of his arrest in connection with the crime.

"I was virtually kidnaped," said Harvey. "I was working at my home at dusk one day about five days after the murder when Able and a detective named Mitchell drove up in an automobile. They told me that I was suspected of the crime and that the woods and entire neighborhood were filled with detectives and sheriff's men. This naturally frightened me and before I could collect my senses I got in the automobile with them and was hurried to Mr. Able's office in Portland.

"There Mr. Bowerman joined us, and I was told if I expected the firm to defend me I would have to sign a contract to give them $20,000. This, in my confused state of mind, I agreed to do. However, upon returning home and talking the matter over with my wife I decided that I had made a mistake, and a few days later she and I went to Mr. Able's office, and I told the lawyer I wished to rescind the contract. He said that would be satisfactory to him, and the paper was torn into bits in my presence.
"I admit the fact that I employed a lawyer before I was accused or suspected may seem strange, but under the circumstances I do not think I acted strangely. The appearance of the men in the automobile, their telling me that I was suspected of the crime and that the woods were filled with officers naturally confused me.
"I do not deny that I passed the Hill home the morning of the crime. I had been to Portland to see a Rose

REV. GIBONEY BURIED IN MOUNTAIN VIEW

The remains of Rev. G. William Giboney, who died at his home in Portland on December 19, of Bright's disease, were brought to this city Wednesday for burial in the family lot in Mountain View cemetery, where the body of a child of Mr. and Mrs.
Giboney, a brother of the deceased are buried. A brief service was held in Portland before the departure of the special car for this city, and a service was held at the Presbyterian church here. Many friends of the late pastor attended. Mr. Giboney formerly was pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, leaving here in the fall of 1905. Rev. Dr. Walker, of Calvary Presbyterian church, of Portland, assisted by Rev. J. R.
Landsborough, of this city, conducted the service. A quartet composed of Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mrs. Leon Des-Larzes, Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. A.
E. Frost, rendered "Come Unto Me," "Silver Chord" and "Abide With Me." Three of the pallbearers were from Spokane, Wash., members of the church formerly in charge of Rev.
Giboney, and three from this city, the latter being C. Schuebel, A. Matheson, and W. C. Green.

REPUBLICAN'S HAVE HARMONIOUS SESSION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(Special).—Now that the Republican National Committee has held its session and decided about the convention, the country is breathing easier.
Seemingly no one knew what dangerous and unexpected developments might occur when all of the big men comprising the committee got together and exchanged confidence about the chances of the party for success in the next campaign. It proved to be a pretty tame meeting after all, and the most alarming thing about it was the specter of Iwana Tumbo which many of the committeemen thought they could discern in the background, behind a pillar or among the shadows of the corridors.
