TROOPS PROCLAIM GOMEZ PRESIDENT

MADERO IS BITTERLY ASSAILED BY REBEL GARRISON AT JUAREZ.

NAMING OF SUAREZ IS DENOUNCED

Chief Executive Condemned By Soldiers And Called Traitor To Country—Reforms In Taxation Asked.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 1.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez is proclaimed provisional president of the Mexican republic, and Francisco I. Madero is criticized in bitter terms in a proclamation secretly circulated today among the revolting Juarez garrison and members of the so-called new revolutionary junta in El Paso. The proclamation is dated: "Revolutionary camp in Chihuahua, February 1, 1912." It bears the signatures of Louis Fernandez and Colonel L. Salazar, "chiefs of the forces of the north." The proclamation taken here has another indication of the possible connection between the revolt of the Juarez garrison and the Zapata movement in Southern Mexico. It is addressed to the "valiant sons of Chihuahua," and recites how they were among the first to second the Madero revolution of November 20, 1910, to "overthrow the tyranny which for more than thirty years joked with our rights."

"We did not get into the revolution," continues the proclamation, "that Don Francisco I. Madero might rise to the presidency to exploit the gratitude of a fanatic people, but to work out these great problems of government, namely, equal justice, equal payment of taxes, abolition of governmental favoritism, which supports an aristocracy at the expense of the masses, and an equitable distribution of property."

President Madero is criticized specially for "installing in office Vice-President Pino Suarez against the will of the whole republic." The proclamation pledges adherence to the plan of Tabuacaya, and declares "the elections of the 1st and 15th of October null and void; the congress dissolved and its acts void, and the motive of its adherents to be the election to the presidency of Emilio Vasquez Gomez, who guarantees us, the country and all men that he will comply with the ideals of the last glorious revolution."

VAIN SEARCH MADE FOR BERNART'S BODY

An unsuccessful effort was made Thursday to find the body of Joseph Bernart, the aged logger, who was swept to death in his gasoline launch over the falls. It is thought that the body is wedged between rocks, and probably will never be recovered. The bodies of several persons who were swept over the falls were never found. The Bernart launch, which was found under the suspension bridge and towed to shore, is a complete wreck. Its owner probably was killed instantly.

PORTLAND HOUSE TO FURNISH FILMS

New Playhouse Is To Be Located On Site Of Stores Of Straight & Salisbury And J. Westergard.

Oregon City is to have another moving picture theater. George Simmons, formerly a partner of Charles Schram in the Grand Theater, has leased for fifteen years a building which will be erected by the Mount Hood Brewing Company on the site of the store conducted by Straight & Salisbury and J. Westergard's harness shop on Main street. The building will be of concrete, and the theatre will be thirty-one feet wide and 105 feet deep.

Work on the building will be started in March, and the theater will be opened in May. Mr. Simmons has made arrangements with a Portland concern to furnish him films, and it also is his intention to have vaudeville turns occasionally. The theater will have a seating capacity of about 400.

MILITARY BAND GIVES CONCERT THIS EVENING

The Philharmonic Military Band, under R. V. D. Johnston, will give an open-air concert at the corner of Seventh and Main streets this evening, commencing at 8:15 o'clock. There will be about thirty-five players. Arrangements have been made for seating the players. After the concert the band will go to the Poultry Show, and render an elaborate program.

Local critics who have heard the band at recent rehearsals promise a rich musical treat. Conductor Johnston has accomplished wonders. Dr. Clyde Mount will be the cornet soloist for the Poultry Show.

Morning Enterprise.
To the Editor:—I want to say I like the Heart to Heart Talks and the quotations framed, given in the Morning Enterprise. I have heard several persons speak of them very highly. People read what is set before them, and absorb a certain amount of it, if it happens to be good,—"a grain of truth planted in the thoughts of mankind"—who knows what the harvest may be? And I for one wish to thank you for printing these helpful thoughts.
MRS. IDA M. HART.

KRAMER TO LECTURE TOMORROW NIGHT

Harold Morton Kramer, the famous novelist, will lecture here tomorrow night at Woodmen Hall under the auspices of the Lyceum Bureau. As has been the case with so many platformists and authors, Mr. Kramer came to the Lyceum through the doors of a newspaper office. As editor of a daily paper of influence he took cognizance of the deplorable condition of civic affairs in his state a few years ago, and his vigorous attacks launched the reform wave that demolished political machines and made honest men governors and mayors. And with it all he turned a listening ear to the drum beat of his country and was at the head of the first company of soldiers in his state to answer President McKinley's call for volunteers in 1898.

One critic has said: "He has become a master in the use of his native tongue." He is a lecturer whose eloquence arises from a heart-beating in sympathy with his fellow men.

WEST SIDE LOCKS TO BE CONDEMNED

PRICE ASKED IS CONSIDERED TOO HIGH AND LAW WILL BE INVOKED.

RAILWAY COMPANY WANTS $450,000

East Side Property Owners Demand $2,000,000 For Right of Way—Fight Is Not Abandoned.

A telegram received from Washington Thursday gives the information that the government will institute condemnation proceedings against the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company for the West Side locks and canal. It is reported that the company has made a big reduction in the price asked for the property, and has agreed to take $450,000 for it.

This price is considered too high by the government, and it is believed the property can be obtained for a smaller sum. The government engineers favored the route surveyed on the East Side for a canal and locks, but the indemnity asked by the property owners, has led to the conclusion that the West Side route is more preferable. The East Side property owners would have asked at least $2,000,000, and the money could not be raised to meet this. The state has appropriated $300,000 and the government $300,000 for building the canal. The estimated cost is $750,000 and it is thought the government will appropriate the additional amount required.

Members of the Commercial Club said Thursday night that the fight for the East Side route had not been abandoned, but it is thought the West Side route will be chosen by the government. The present canal will be enlarged and modern locks will be installed. With the improved canal and the river between here and Portland dredged, which has been promised, Oregon City will have facilities for water traffic equaled by few cities in the state.

LODGE OF ELKS TO GIVE BALL APRIL 12

The funeral of Frederick William Keferstein, the former wealthy paper manufacturer of Germany, who committed suicide in a room at 312 Railroad avenue Wednesday morning, will be held at the Holman Undertaking Establishment at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Turn Verein Society will be in charge, and the burial will be in Mountain View Cemetery. Otto Edwin Keferstein, son of the man who killed himself, received a cablegram from his uncle George Keferstein, who lives in Germany, Thursday, giving the information that it would be impossible for him to give financial aid to the boy and his aunt, Mrs. Clara Fiedler, at this time. The boy has been offered a position in one of the paper mills.

POULTRY SHOW TO OPEN TODAY

MORE THAN 400 FOWLS FROM CLACKAMAS COUNTY ARE ENTERED.

MILITARY BAND TO FURNISH MUSIC

Chickens Of All Varieties To Be Shown—Cats, Ducks, and Geese Also Will Be Exhibited.

The first poultry show ever given in Oregon City starts this morning at 9 o'clock at the Armory. The exhibition will end tomorrow night. There will be more than 400 birds on exhibition, most of which will be from Clackamas county.

W. E. Pratt, who is in charge of the Oregon City Transportation Company, has a collection of cats at the wharf, which will be exhibited. Old Tom, a cat with unusual intelligence, will be one of those placed on exhibition. At one time this cat had a narrow escape for its life, it having been taken to the river by its former owner and placed in a sack with a rock attached to act as "sinker." The cat, as soon as it was placed in the sack, found an opening, and escaped, but not before it had received a drenching. When the owner returned to his home he was astonished to find that animal sitting on the veranda enjoying the bright sunshine. The cat refused to recognize its master who had tried to drown it. Old Tom, since being taken care of by Mr. Pratt, has grown fat and sleek, and is envied by all cats in his neighborhood. The cats owned by Mr. Pratt are rat killers.

Mrs. Frank Brownell has eight cats to exhibit and they will be in their finest trim on Friday evening. Among this collection will be "Jack Johnson," with his fighting mitts on, "Lou Dock-stader," "Jack Darling," "Angelica" and "Divalo" (Heavenly Twins); "Sou" (the mother) and "Booker Washington" (adopted).

Mrs. Chris Hartman has entered "Hans," one of the finest Angora cats in this city. "Hans" is well known in his neighborhood. One woman in this city, who had intended exhibiting her cat, which she thought would win a prize, was disappointed Thursday morning when he came home with one eye shut tight and a large piece of flesh missing from his face.

"Spike Beautiful" is another intelligent cat of this city, whose mistress resides at Greenpoint. "Spike Beautiful" is sixteen years of age, and no doubt she would have made a record for herself, had she not engaged in a fight.

"Gibbton" is the name of a cat belonging to a well-known family at Gladstone. It was the intention of
