A GOOD BARGAIN.
Let's not waste time talking about the used-car proposition. To get right down to brass tacks, a used car has either got to be a good buy or a bad buy.
Don't judge a bargain by what you spend, but by what you get for your money.
When you buy a used car here you can drive away with the satisfaction of knowing that you've got more than a dollar's worth for every dollar invested.
You'll find your car here—come in and pick it out.
