
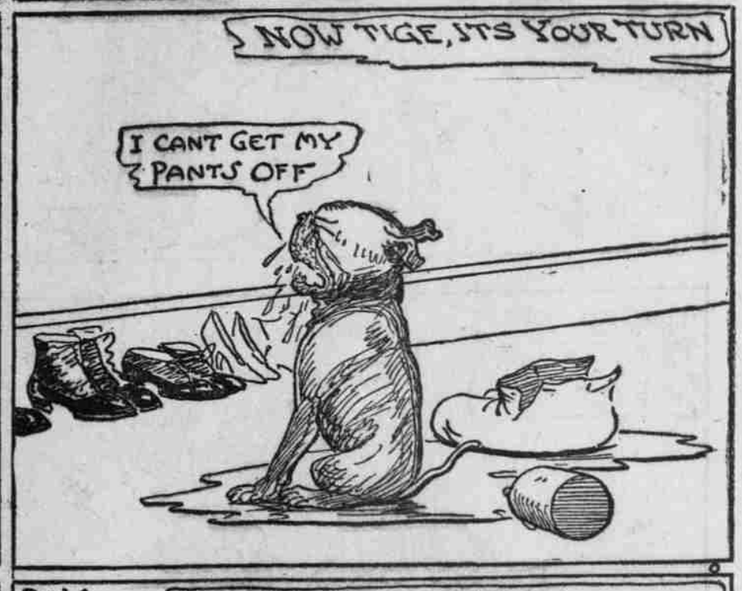
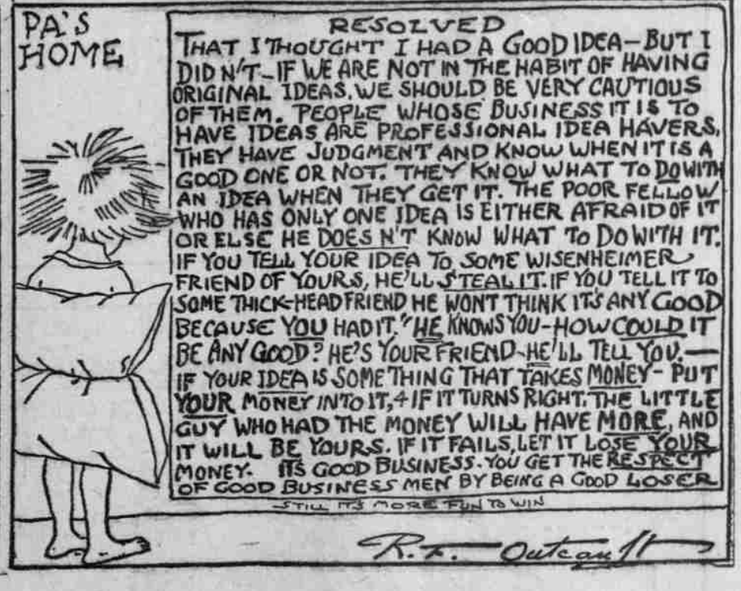
Smitty's ma says she was always strong for that fox who got sore because he could n't get the grapes and said they were sour. She says, that fox was a philosopher. If he had cried and kicked about it he would have been a cheap boob. When you cant get a thing and you know it, she says, forget it — and say its sour, because it is if you cant get it. Be a sport and dont kick when you cant get a thing — just take what you get in this world and be thankful for it. She says. Well! she's got Smitty and I guess she's thankful for him. Thats some thankful

NO, TIGE DID NOT "GET IT IN THE NECK" THIS TIME.




Copyright, 1918, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved.