ANDERSON'S JERSEYS
AT AUCTION.
GRESHAM, OR.,
SATURDAY, Dec. 20, 1919.
The entire well-known herd of grade Jerseys, 40 hogs, team of horses and other articles will be sold on the Anderson farm, five miles east of Gresham, on the old Barlow road, one-half mile east of Gillis station, on the Mt. Hood car line. Cars leave Portland, First and Alder sts., at 8:45 the morning of the sale.
13 cows—Heavy producers, some fresh, others to freshen soon and some in all stages of lactation.
10 heifers—Three to freshen soon, others are younger and have been bred, all sired by Lord Tennison (his dam, Lady Tennys of Ingleside, has produced 98 pounds of milk per day and had a lb. of M. record of 388.96 lbs. fat). Six of the females that are carrying calves have been bred to Lady Tenny's Chief, a half-brother to the above bull. Nothing but pure-bred bulls have been used in this herd for sixteen years and they are all very desirable.
Herd bull—Lady Tenny Chief, dropped June 12, 1917, solid color and a beautiful individual, easily handled and a sure breeder. He was sired by Chief of Multnomah and his dam was Lady Tennys of Ingleside.
40 head hogs—Pure-bred Durocs (not registered), brood sows, bred gilts and younger pigs, both sexes; also the great herd boar Golden Rufus.
Team of horses—Well-matched bays, weight 2600 pounds, sound and right.
Implements—Three-inch tubular skein wagon, manure spreader, mowing machine, sage disk plow, narrow cart and three section harrow, 10 Louden stanchions, single buggy and harness, spring-tooth harrow, set of heavy harness, De Laval separator, 8-bottle Babcock tester and many other articles.
Terms—$20 and under cash. Over $20 six months' time will be given on approved notes.
Sale positive. If weather is stormy, sale will be held under cover. Sale starts at 11 o'clock; lunch at noon.
