MEN'S AND BOYS' MACKINTOSHES

Not the hot, heavy, ill-fitting affair you've known and often condemned. These are an entirely new kind—light, well ventilated and stylish. Made to fit and of a cloth so treated chemically that it is absolutely rain proof. These garments look like the ordinary top coat, except in length. The only trouble is we have got more on hand than we want to carry over, and in order to make them move lively will cut the price in two. So come quick and get a first-class rain coat at one-half its value.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The Cleveland brigade has organized and incorporated itself in New York as the Samuel J. Tilden Club. It declares for a Simon-pure old fashioned Democracy—a Democracy that will win battles, not a Democracy that fights 16 battles to win one victory. This means war on Bryan and there are other revolting troops. The Anaconda, Mont., Standard, an arch-bimetallic Democratic paper, discusses the proposition of Mr. Bryan to do battle for the Kansas City platform in this vein—concluding that it is absurd:

"We are not informed as to the precise character of the newspaper that Mr Bryan intends to publish, further than that it will devote itself to the advocacy of the principles enunciated by the Kansas City platform.

"The principles of the Kansas City platform were eminently sound in the main, and will be equally so four years hence, but the conditions to which they are to be applied may be altogether different—so much so that, as stated in that platform, they may seem to be both far-fetched and out of date. For example, the Kansas City platform demands that the Filipinos shall be treated the same as we have promised to treat the Cubans. This was all right at the time, but the situation may be so changed within the next four years that a repetition of this demand would seem nothing less than absurd. And so with other things."

If Bryan had announced that he intended to print a newspaper devoted to the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, whatever they may be, he would have escaped the above criticism. There is enough in the Democratic platform as formulated in Kansas City, and endorsing the one of four years before to keep 10 newspapers or parties busy defending and ruin them all.

The New York World in an editorial takes Mr. Bryan to task for "keeping it up," and it shows what ricks a man runs, brilliant, able and tireless as Mr. Bryan is admitted to be, who wears himself out butting his head against a wall. The World says:

"In a speech at Omaha last night the twice-defeated candidate for President began where he left off before the election. He scorns to admit that he may possibly have been mistaken in any of the positions he has taken. Moses descending from the mountain with the tables of stone was not more certain of the absolute authority of the Ten Commandments than Mr. Bryan is of the inspiration of the Chicago and the Kansas City platforms. But if by any chance he may have been wrong, he would still rather be wrong than be President. We 'must continue to fight,' he says.

In the last five campaigns Mr. Bryan has made thousands of speeches. There is scarcely a state and hardly an important cross road that has not heard his eloquence. And in every successive election the voters have repudiated him and rejected with increasing emphasis the planks and the policies that differentiated the Chicago platform from all the Democratic deliverences that had preceded it. The bottom of the toboggan slide to destruction was reached in the last election, when Mr. Bryan received only thirteen electoral votes outside the Southern States wherein elections are still decided in advance, and without any real contest, by the race issue.

"If Mr. Bryan has not had enough of this—if he has no respect for the judgment and the will of the people plainly and repeatedly expressed—it is time for the rank and file and for the sane leaders of the Democratic party to inform him and all concerned that they are done with folly and frenzy and fusion, and purpose to abandon suicide as a settled policy."

OREGON CITY FINANCES.

Mayor Grant B. Dimick has the following wholesome suggestions in his message:

"Our present indebtedness began practically in the year 1885. The indebtedness of the city then was about $15,000. Since 1890 the debt increased with alarming rapidity and now amounts to about $97,361 exclusive of water bonds of $10,000 and proposed sewer bonds amounting to $12,250, making a total indebtedness at present of $99,211.

"It is our imperative duty to preserve our public credit and to that end I would caution you to use it sparingly, avoiding all occasions of unnecessary expense and the accumulation of debt. The modern system of incurring indebtedness has become prevalent in cities as well as among individuals and to both should be discouraged. The great burden of modern times is the assumption of our own obligations and of those contracted for us by others under the signal fallacy that indebtedness brings prosperity."

ROOSEVELT'S HASTY ACTION

On his summarily removing the District Attorney of New York, the Times of that city says:

"If this matter is sifted, it appears that the District attorney is removed for no official act whatever. The only thing of real importance charged against him is that he publicly approved of Devery's action, and this, as above noted, is denied, and certainly is not proved. If it had been distinctly proved, it would be a most atrocious sentiment for any man in his office to express; but it would not be an official act. The office of District Attorney is elective. The authority it possesses comes from the highest source known in a representative popular government. The Governor has the power of removal from it, but it is a power to be used only when the incumbent has forfeited his title by an essential betrayal of his official trust or an essential abuse of his official authority. He may be shown to the Governor to be a most unfit man to elect, as Gardiner unquestionable is, but to justifiy his removal he must be shown to have violated the law governing his office or to have committed an offense that clearly makes it unsafe and wrong to leave him in the office. We find no such showing in the testimony before the Governor."

How Are Your Nerves.

If they are weak and you feel nervous and easily "flustrated," can't sleep, and rise in the morning unrefreshed, your blood is poor. Strong nerves depend upon rich, nourishing blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the nerves strong by enriching and vitalizing the blood. It gives sweet, refreshing sleep and completely cures nervous troubles.

Nausea, indigestion are cured by Hood's Pills. 2

Captain Ammen Retires

Brooklyn, Jan. 5.—Captain F. J. Ammen, civil engineer of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, retired to day from active service. He is the oldest and ablest civil engineer in the United States Navy, and an effort is being made to have him retained for some years under the provisions of the personnel bill, under which he may be pressed into service for twelve years longer. CIRCUIT COURT MARION COUNTY

Judge Boise held a short term Friday and will not hold court here again until about the 15th, as he opens the regular term of the county court at Dallas, on the 7th. Isaac J. Stratton, plaintiff, vs. Pete Olsen defendant is the title of a new suit filed in the circuit court. The suit is instituted to collect $100 with interest at the rate of 8 per cent from April 13, 1899, alleged to be due on a note. The note is secured by a mortgage on a 7½ acre tract, being lot No. 27 of the Capitol City Fruit Farms. Foreclosure of the mortgage is asked for, a special attorney's fee of $35 and the costs and disbursements of the action.

At 2 p. m. the long drawn out case of Mary Shaw vs. J. E. Ferris came up on a demurrer in Judge Boise's court. Last July Mrs. Shaw began suit to remove J. E. Ferris from one of the Shaw fruit land tracts near Shaw's Station, on the ground that Ferris had not paid for the same agreed in his contract of purchase. The first complaint was attacked by demurrer and demurrer sustained, and Friday Attorneys Bonham & Martin on the part of J. E. Ferris, argued and submitted a demurrer to an amended complaint, Attorneys P. H. D'Arcy and John A. Carson appearing for Mrs. Shaw.

CLYDE VAUGHN OF JEFFERSON

A private examination of Clyde Vaugh, as to his sanity, was made Friday last by Drs. Byrd and Williamson, of Salem, and Hawk, of this city. The result is not made public, though it is understood the physicians did not entirely agree in their opinions. Of late Clyde denies that he committed the assault on Miss Jones.—Jefferson Review.

No one needs to be told to try to cure a cough. But any one will be glad to be told of a means of cure which will be thorough and lasting. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine which can be confidently relied on to cure diseases of the organs of respiration. It cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bronchitis and bleeding of the lungs. It cures when nothing else will cure, and the local physician says: "There is nothing more that we can do."

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid by less meritorious medicines, will sometimes try and sell a substitute when the "Discovery" is asked for. No substitute medicine will satisfy the sick like "Golden Medical Discovery." It always helps. It almost always cures.

"Two years ago a severe cough started on me and I was also bothered with catarrh," writes Mr. F. Schief, of Dansville, Livingston Co., Mich. "I could not sleep nights, as the cough was worse at night. I tried several cough medicines, but to no avail, until a year ago, when I got so bad I could not breathe through my nose at times. I then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After taking eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and at the same time using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, I am a well man. I can thank Dr. Pierce for my good health, and will recommend his medicines to any one suffering from the same trouble."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

"I Followed Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Now I am Well."

A woman is sick—some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds back something, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and this completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it a wonder, therefore, that the doctor fails to cure the disease? Still we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician. This is the reason why hundreds of thousands of women are now in correspondence with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. To her they can give every symptom, so that when she is ready to advise them she is in possession of more facts from her correspondence with the patient than the physician can possibly obtain through a personal interview.

Following we publish a letter from a woman showing the result of a correspondence with Mrs. Pinkham. All such letters are considered absolutely confidential by Mrs. Pinkham, and are never published in any way or manner without the consent in writing of the patient; but hundreds of women are so grateful for the health which Mrs. Pinkham and her medicine have been able to restore to them that they not only consent to publishing their letters, but write asking that this be done in order that other women who suffer may be benefited by their experience.

Mrs. Ella Rice, Chelsea, Wis., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years I was troubled with falling and inflammation of the womb. I suffered very much with bearing-down pains, headache, backache, and was not able to do anything. What I endured no one knows but those who have suffered as I did. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. I doctored with the physicians of this town for three months and grew worse instead of better. My husband and friends wished me to write to you, but I had no faith in patent medicines. At last I became so bad that I concluded to ask your advice. I received an answer at once advising me to take your Vegetable Compound, and I did so. Before I had taken two bottles I felt better, and after I had taken five bottles there was no happier woman on earth, for I was well again. I know that your Vegetable Compound cured me, and I wish and advise every woman who suffers as I did to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Believe me always grateful for the recovery of my health."—MRS. ELLA RICE, Chelsea, Wis.

$5000 REWARD Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank, of Lynn, Mass., $5,000, which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonial is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission.—LYDIA E.
