BISHOP SCADDING.

Arrives in Salem Today Will Preach Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Right Rev. Bishop Scadding, D. D., will make his first Episcopal visitation to Salem today. Tomorrow he will preach in St. Paul's church at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public is always welcome at St. Paul's, and the rector and people extend a special invitation to everyone to attend the services tomorrow.

This evening a reception will be given Bishop and Mrs. Scadding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thielsen, Court and Capital streets. The same general invitation is given. The bishop and his wife desire to meet as many as possible of the people of Salem. All who attend will be cordially welcomed.

Bishop Scadding is in the prime of life, just past 44. He is a tremendous worker, and a successful one. He is a leader of men, and wins their confidence at once. The bishop is something of an athlete, and an enthusiastic camper and fisherman. In the short time he has been in Oregon he has impressed all who have met him as a strong, devout and broad-minded man.

Mrs. Scadding is a charming and unassuming lady, who has been a great help to her husband. in his ministry, and an ornament to society. She will doubtless win a place in the warm affections of the people of Oregon.

TRILL ANSWERS LETTER.

Thinks Recorder Moores Ought Not to Attack His Financial Standing.

To the Voters of Salem:

I wish to call your attention to the article in last evening's Journal written by Recorder Moores, wherein he quotes me as saying that if the nominee was for any other office than the one I was a candidate for I would keep the name off the ballot, but for one in which I was a candidate myself I would put it on. He then goes on and asks if "I would violate the law," and answers that "I would waive that."

I wish to bear Mr. Moores out in his statement this far: When he asked me what I would do if I were in his place, I said I would have put the name on the ballot, feeling as he had already expressed himself, that the candidate has a just right there; but if there was a technical point to decide and the candidate was my opponent I would put his name on and give him the benefit of the doubt, but if he were not my opponent I would leave him off, and I added that I thought that public sentiment would bear me out. But in my case there was no doubt in the mind of Mr. Moores but that my name justly belonged on the ballot.

He insinuated, in closing his article, that I am not a taxpayer, that I am not interested in the development of the city, that I am an office-seeker. Well, I am a poor man, but I feel it no disgrace, just so long as I am honorable, pay my debts and I am a gentleman, and I feel as though I am not deserving of ridicule for it. As to my interests in Salem, I must say I haven't any elsewhere, and I think if I had been sparring for some small city office for 10 or 15 years Mr. Moores might justly call me an office-seeker. I am a young man obtaining a professional education, paying for it through my own honest labor, and, perhaps, when I reach the age of Mr. Moores, I may be as high upon the tax rolls as he is; that, too, through my own efforts and not as the fortunate heir to valuable property.

WOOD CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Several of the State Institutions Have No Fuel Engaged.

When the bids for wood for the state institutions were opened a week ago, it was observed that there were no bids submitted for several of the state institutions. The board has not yet decided what to do to secure fuel for these places. In the instances where bids were submitted the contracts hav ebeen awarded. A full list of all the bids submitted was printed in this paper last week.

For the asylum all the first growth at $3.50 and under was accepted, and no second-growth, except one lot that had already been contracted for.

At the asylum farm the first-growth at $3 and under was accept-growth at $3 and under was accepted.

At the penitentiary all the wood submitted was accepted.

All the first growth at $4 and under was accepted for the reform school, and all of the second growth at $3 and under, where the bidders complied with the terms of an advertisement.

EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGE.

School Teachers Should Investigate the Free Trip to Jamestown.

We would call to the attention of Marion county school teachers now with us the exceptional value from an educational standpoint of our trip to the Jamestown exposition.

During the year 1907 this great international military, naval, historical and industrial exposition will be held on and near the waters of Hampton Roads, Virginia, in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the first permanent English settlement at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607.

The Jamestown Tri-centennial exposition will differ distinctly from other expositions, as it will have a great international naval rendezvous and military encampment, to which invitations have been extended by the President of the United States. Many countries have accepted and will not only participate in the naval and military features but will also make industrial displays as well.

During ordinary times the vicinity bordering on Hampton Roads so famous in history, possesses sufficient attractions to warrant its selection as a meeting place, while during the exposition period its natural advantages will be wonderfully augmented.

We would be glad to have the teachers call during their stay in the city that we may explain how this trip can be obtained. Some young lady from Marion county will have the time of her life and help give our county such advertising as it has never received before. All expenses will be paid by The Capital Journal and the Pacific Northwest, with which The Journal has associated in what will prove to be the biggest longest and best newspaper excusion ever given in the United States. Come in and obtain full particulars.

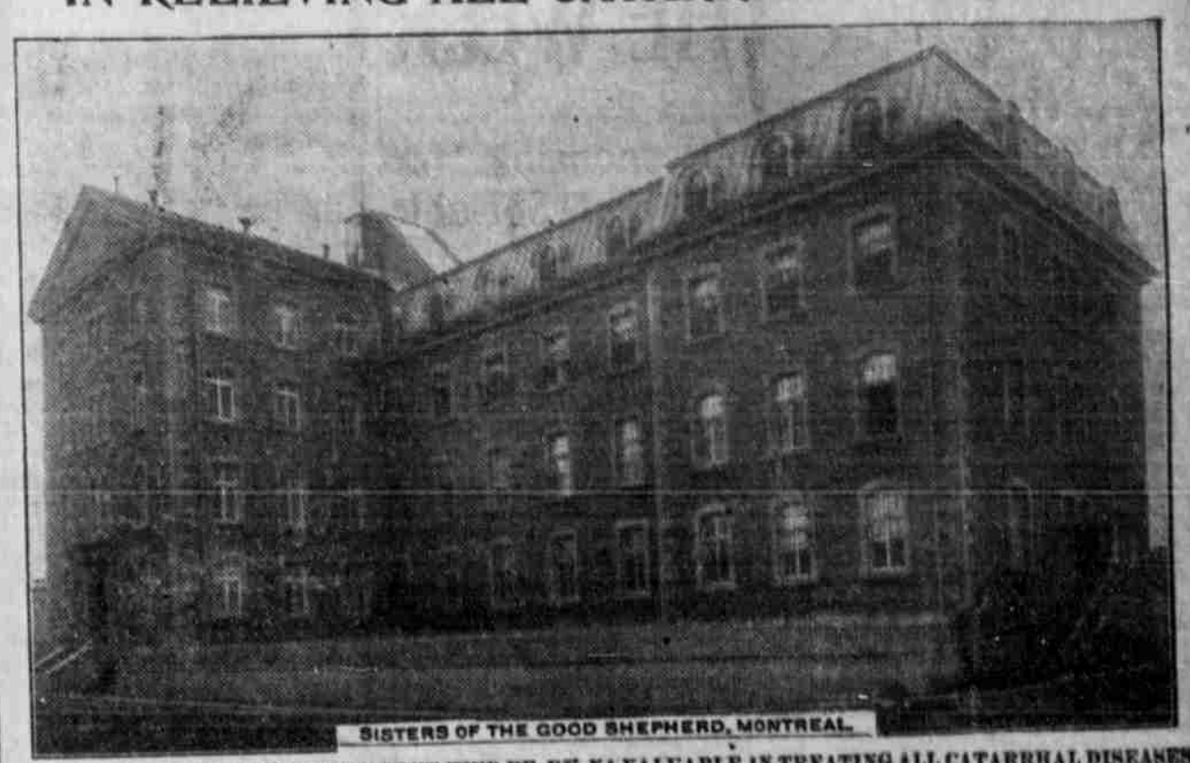
PROMINENT HOSPITALS SAY
PE-RU-NA DOES WONDERS
IN RELIEVING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES.



SISTERS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, MONTREAL.

HOSPITALS ALL OVER THE CONTINENT FIND PE-RU-NA VALUABLE IN TREATING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES.

CATARRH of the respiratory organs is a common ailment in Canada for at least two thirds of the year.

This condition is no doubt caused by the long, severe winters experienced in this part of the continent.

Therefore, when Peruna was discovered by Canadian people to be a reliable remedy for these catarrhal diseases, it at once became a popular medicine, not only among individuals and in families, but in the great hospitals, where it was used as a preventative and relief in hundreds of cases.

These institutions do not hesitate to give their endorsement of the remedy which has been so helpful in the treatment of their poor and sick.

Among these institutions is that of the Sisters of Good Shepherd, who gave the following endorsement:

The Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Having used Peruna for the past few months, for our sick and poor, we are happy to say that it has given us great satisfaction.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, Montreal.
August 20, 1903.

After a continued use of the remedy, this institution has found no reason to change its good opinion of the remedy and expresses its satisfaction in the following terms:

Montreal, Nov 7, 1903.

We found Peruna a relief in several cases.

We can say it is a good tonic and we are very thankful

Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

When catarrh once fastens itself upon the system, it becomes an obstinate disease to eradicate.

A systemic remedy—one that reaches every internal organ of the body—is an absolute necessity.

Peruna is just such a remedy. It searches out the cause of the disease, healing and strengthening the mucous membranes, and thus giving Nature an opportunity to perform her part of the restorative process.

One of the many hospitals which have found Peruna of value in treating old and obstinate cases of catarrh is the Hospital St. John, who write, as follows:

"We are happy to tell you that your Peruna has given us satisfaction. Three patients have tried it, one 68 years old, Renoui Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is much relieved, more than he has been for a number of years.

"A young girl, 15 years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of Peruna caused to disappear.

"As to myself, two bottles have convinced me that Peruna is magnificent as a tonic.

"Before the treatment I could not walk for a quarter of an hour without experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily.

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

Hospital St. John, of St. Johns, Province of Quebec.

A later letter received from the same institution reads as follows:

"Three weeks ago I wrote to tell you how satisfactory we found Peruna. We recommend it highly for colds, coughs, catarrh and neuralgia.

"I have used it myself as a tonic with the best results, taken as directed, half a teaspoonful every half hour."

Peruna not only promptly relieves coughs and colds in their first stages, but is equally prompt and efficient for catarrhal diseases in the chronic stage.

Of course, it is only reasonable to suppose that a great deal less medicine will be necessary to cure a slight attack of catarrh than would be required to relieve the ailment after it had been allowed to become chronic.

Directions for taking the remedy will be found on each bottle, also in Dr Hartman's book, called "The Ills of Life," which can be obtained from your druggist for the asking.

For special instructions writs to Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
