Anxious Inquirer writes the horse editor asking how to dress poultry. The dressing should be done with an axe, and decidedly decollete, leaving the church sociable portion of the bird with the head; the corset of the bird should be filled out with delicate insertion, flavored au jus. Feathers are strictly barred in any part of the dressing.

Bowel Complaint in Children.

When six months old the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, a well known merchant of Agnewville, Va., had an attack of cholera infantum. Chamderlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was given and effected a complete cure. This remedy has proven very successful in cases of bowel complaint in children and when given according to the plain printed directions can be relied upon with perfect confidence. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to small children. For sale by all good druggists.
