NEWPORT BEACH LIFE GAY

Band Concerts and Dances Add to Zest and Jollity.

NEWPORT, Or., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—The zest and jollity of beach life was enhanced Sunday afternoon when the 3d company, coast artillery corps, band of Newport played several selections for the crowd assembled there.

In the earlier part of the afternoon the Bi-Ho-Le-Mar orchestra gave a very enjoyable concert in the National dance hall. It is planned to make these concerts a special feature every Sunday afternoon in August.

Likewise it was a pleasing innovation last week when the orchestra invited all of the children to attend a Friday afternoon dance. This proved so popular that this form of amusement will also be continued.
