Several families of new immigrants have arrived from the east and scattered over various portions of the county. The Portland railway officials state that the exodus to the coast will be extensive this year and Washington county will doubtless get its share.

Gen. Ransom Woman's Relief Corps would gratefully acknowledge the receipt of $20.40 donated by the Hillsboro Dramatic Club. The Woman's Relief Corps of Oregon are raising a fund to build family cottages at the Soldiers' Home, at Roseburg, so that the veterans sent there need not be separated from their wives. For this reason the Hillsboro Woman's Relief Corps feel very grateful to the Dramatic Club for their generous donation.—Gen. Ransom Relief Corps.

There promises to be a lively contest for state senator in the coming county convention. Among those already in the field are E. W. Haines and T. H Adams of this city and Dr. Wood and E. B. Tongue of Hillsboro Dr. Wood had been talked of at first as the float candidate but there is so little prospect of getting anything from Multnomah that he does not count on it, and prefers to make his fight for the nomination in his home county.—Forest Grove Times.
