The public is anxiously awaiting the return of the President to Washington to see what his next move along the lines of railroad legislation will be. If he really means that Congress is expected to take up railway rates legislation the people may look for an extra session, for if it goes over until the next regular meeting it will be crowded out. The only way to push things to a good finish is to put it up to Congress in a special session.

Admiral Togo seems to recognize the difference between a large fleet under steam and a few vessels with their fires banked.

A Portland grand jury is after the grafters. It is to be hoped they will catch a few of them.

It is time for the Portland baseball team to enter that "plea in abatement."

SUMMONS

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHINGTON

Allen & Lewis, a corporation, Plaintiff, vs.
Fred Verbauwhede and Nathalia Verbauwhede, Defendants.

To Fred Verba uwhede and Nathalie Verbauwhede, the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby commanded and required to appear in the above entitled court in the above entitled cause on or befor e the expiration of six weeks' publication of this summons in the Hillsboro Argus, commencing with the issue of April 27, 1905, and ending with the issue dated June 8, 1905, and that you appear and answer on or before the 8th day of June, 1905.

And you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against you, and each of you, for the sum of $194.34 and interest at 6 per cent, per annum since September 24, 1904, and the costs and disbursements of this action, and for judgment and order of the above entitled Court for the sale of the following described real property, to-wit:

The west half of the northeast quarter of section 29, township 3 north, range 3 west of the Willamette Meridian, in Washington County, Oregon, containing 80 acres.

This summons is served on you by publication by order of the Honorable L. A. Rood, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated on the 27th day of April, 1905, which order required the publication thereof once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks in the Hillsboro Argus, and that you are required to appear and answer on or before the 8th day of June, 1905.

Dated this April 27, 1905.

H. T. BAGLEY,
Attorney for Plaintiff.
