Some one reported a "hop blight" in Washington County, to the Oregonian the other day, being written up at the Portland end. This is error. There is some indication of hop aphis, owing to the moist weather, but the growers here have the pest well in hand and are spraying in good shape. There is no reason to feel "panicky" over results.

Dr. F A. Bailey reports that as the result of the heavy rain Tuesday night, much tall grain is somewhat fallen and that clover uncut is badly matted. Much of this, however, will straighten and the down-pour has done a world of good to late sown grain and to the vegetable crop.

Wisdom, of the Rural Spirit, secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Keane, of Portland, assistant secretary and stenographer. President Wehrung

Talk about mules—a few years ago the man who had a span of mules in Washington County (and his name was N. Somer, of Laurel) was the cynosure of all eyes. Today you can see a fine span of Missouri canaries almost any time, hitched to the chain in front of the court house. Better still, you can see all kinds of mule colts coming in from the north since W. W. Paine, the Glencoe stockman, settled out that way and commenced putting his Jack in the stud. The mules are the boys, just the same.

S. J. Galloway is down from Buxton to celebrate the Fourth with his family.

J. S. Swalley, of Reedville, was in town yesterday.

Saturday Evening Telegram and Argus, $2.00 per year.

Eugene Delplanche, of Centerville, was in the city the last of the week.

Miss Edna Freeman, of Portland, is the guest of Miss Byrtle Sabin.

H. Welch and wife, of beyond Glencoe, were in the county seat Monday.

John Goebel, the Laurel veteran, was in yesterday, greeting his veteran friends.

Hugh Rogers, timber inspector for the railroad, was down from Buxton, yesterday.

Miss Mabel Gilbert, of Wasco, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M Collins.

Wanted: Girl or woman for general housework, at once.—Mrs. F. J. Bailey, Hillsboro, Ore.

Green Walker and wife, of near Roy, were down Sunday, guests of H. D. Schmeltzer and wife.

Do you want a buggy? We have the finest lines ever shown in this county.—Schulmerich Bros.

Henry W. Jones, of Mountaindale, was in town yesterday, coming in to remain over the celebration.

Chas. True, an old timer of Middleton, and H. L Kocher, of the same section, were in the city yesterday.

R. S. Varley, who recently bought the Haynor place, west of town, was in town yesterday to see the crowd.

The Misses Lottie Wann and Sadie Berst, of Portland, are out to spend the national holiday with friends and relatives.

Capt. Wilbur Wiley, who has been up on the Columbia, in the Priest Rapids section, is in town to remain over the Fourth.

Ladies' knit and muslin underwear, latest patterns; embroideries and laces—finest line in the county, at H. Wehrung & Sons.

A. B. Smith, superintendent of construction on the P. R. & N., above Buxton, was down yesterday, coming in to spend the Fourth.

If you want to spray your hops remember that the Greear Feed Store, Second Street, keeps Whale Oil soap and quasia chips, in any quantity.

Henry Guild, of Portland, and who has been on the Oregonian, was in the city yesterday, the guest of his brother-in-law, Hon. W. N. Barrett.

S. A. D. Meek, of Mountaindale, and whose father, Col. Joe Meek, was always marshal at Fourth of July celebrations, was in the city yesterday.

Good, gentle, true and sound work or driving horse, for sale; weighs 1100. Goes at a bargain; color, black.—E. E. Lyons, northeast of Hillsboro.

J. C. Lamkin yesterday received from Albert Tozier, making a trip in the east, a bouquet of laurel leaves, gathered from the tomb of Jefferson Davis, the leader of the Confederacy.

John McNamer is now running a through-trip in one day stage from Forest Grove, leaving out of Forest Grove at 6:00 in the morning, and using three relays of horses to effect the trip.

In July brightly shines the sun—
These days we'd rather walk than run;
And cool soft drinks, ice cream and such,
Appreciated very much.
So come with wife, sweetheart, or friend,
Or come alone—for we intend
To suit you all—though wants may vary,
At Palmateer's Confectionery.
—L. J. Palmateer, Prop.

Thos. Wilkes, who has been in Arizona for a year or so, and who was at Denver prior to that, arrived the first of the week for an extended stay in Washington County. He is a brother of J. B. Wilkes.

Talk about natty uniforms—but the Newberg band, which is in town yesterday and today, playing at the celebration, is uniformed in very swell suits, and created quite a murmur of admiration among Hillsboro citizens—the young ladies going into rhapsodies over the musicians. The boys are gentlemanly, and their visit to this city is one long to be remembered as a feature of the reunion and celebration.

Buxton: Mrs. A. E. Mead, of Green Mountain, has been seriously ill with the measles, but is now recovering. There were several cases in the neighborhood but all are getting along nicely now. There was no school last week in the Meade district on account of measles.—Miss Ethel Smith has returned to her home at Knob Hill, from near Seattle, Wash., where she recently completed a nine months' term of school.

The above is the complete roster up to 2:30 yesterday.

The Veterans elected the following officers: R. W. McNutt, president; Jabez Wilkes, vice president; W. R. Whitney, 2nd vice; H. G. Fitch, secretary; S. Howell, treasurer; F. A. Haines, chaplain. They will hold their next semi-annual meeting at Hillsboro in October.

J. E. McNamara and wife, formerly of The Dalles, now of Portland, are out for the Fourth in old Hilltown.

J. J. Hartley, of above Banks, was in town Tuesday, and went to Portland yesterday.

Mrs. Lydia Bowen, widow of the late Chas. Bowen, was out this week, from Portland, attending the encampment.

A. H. Tanner Jr., who is staying at the mill above Gaston, came to the city Monday afternoon, in company with Frank Challacombe, and the two rode their horses up and down the street, one of them nearly running down the eldest son of L. M. Hoyt. The young men were arrested and the next morning came back and Tanner Jr. was fined $30 and his companion, $10. They deposited cash bail the night on which they were arrested. Recorder Bagley felt disposed to be lenient with the boys, but young Tanner was altogether too "fresh" the night of his arrest, and the Court did not think he was a subject for judicial generosity. Tanner figured in the land fraud cases a year or so ago, and is supposed to have been the typewritist who wrote the fraudulent contract upon which Senator Mitchell based a defense in the Federal Court.

Agent Vickers states that he does not think the Southern Pacific will be troubled with car shortage this season as heretofore, as the company has made every possible effort to get rolling stock so they can operate in conformity with the amount of shipping. The state commission, for the protection of shippers, has laid down a rule that the agents shall keep a register of all applicants for cars, name and address of applicant, number of cars wanted, when cars will be required, kind and size, kind of freight to be shipped, destination of car or cars, when cars are furnished, etc. The commission will have access to this booking, and access to the record must be given to bona fide shippers.

The United Evangelical Church will commence a series of Evangelistic services July 10, on Third Street, near Baseline. A number of outside speakers will be present to assist in the meetings. Rev. C. A. Meck, Ph. D, of Dallas, will preach on Sunday, July 14. A service of special interest will be held in the Evangelical Church on Sunday morning. Sunday evening, program by Sunday School. All are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Everitt, of North Bend, where Mr. Everitt has a drug business, arrived Tuesday, to spend the Fourth in the city. They are guests of John M. Brown and wife. Mr. Everitt says the Coos Bay section has a great future before it, and the big boom will come when the railroad strikes through the coast mountains.

D. J. Haines, State Patriotic Instructor of the Oregon Grand Army of the Republic, was in town Tuesday, and addressed the veterans at Shute Park. Mr. Haines is a Kentuckian, and was in Co. F, Twenty Sixth Infantry. He is one of the able speakers among the Old Guard.

Nelson P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, Pa., has filed a mortgage for $60,000 on 2,034 acres of timber land in township 2 North range 6 West, Wm. H. White being the mortgagee. Mr. Wheeler should "endeavor" to get along very nicely in this vale of tears.

D. B. Reasoner completed the Scholls' bridge across the Tualatin, Monday, and returned home that evening. Travel was stopped but six days. E. P. Cornelius, Ray Reasoner and El. Craig, were helping D. B. on the structure.

We carry the best shoe on the market for the money. W. L Douglas and Dr. Reed's famous cushion shoes for men. Leading makes for ladies. Latest styles and finish.—H. Wehrung & Sons

For Sale: Fifty acres cleared land in the viciniy of Hillsboro, on rural mail and milk route; near telephone line. Fine location; good building site.—Inquire of Argus.

A Cornelius lad stole a revolver from A. H. Tanner Jr., above Gaston recently, and the property was returned to the owner, Monday.

John Wunderlich, the painter, is suffering from lead poison in one of his eyes, and is under the treatment of Dr. Tamiesie.

County Judge J. W. Goodin went to Scholls, Tuesday afternoon, to inspect the bridge just completed at that place.
