MEIER—LARSON

Mr. Albert N. Meier, of Hillsboro, and Miss Alice C. Larson, of Portland, were united in marriage at St. Matthews' church, in this city, Tuesday, July 9, 1907, Rev. Father Bucholzer, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Meier is proprietor of the bakery on Second street, and was raised east of this city. He has a host of friends who wish him and his bride every happiness. They will take up their residence in this city.

Argus and Journal, $1.75.

H. F. Reese, the Cornelius thresherman, was in the county seat today.

H. B. Nicholas, a Portland attorney, was in town today, on legal business.

If you want a good velvet talcum powder, call for Stearns, at the Hillsboro Pharmacy.

Miss Hahn, of Mountaindale, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Hoffman, of North Hillsboro, today.

There will be a dance at Alpha Hall, Cornelius, Saturday night, July 20th. Walker's orchestra. Tickets, 75 cents. Everybody invited. Come and have a good time.

It wouldn't be a bad idea, now that the county has removed the fence from around the courtyard, for the city to substitute those two watering troughs with two cement receptacles. They would appear to much greater advantage and would not mar the looks of the scene. As long as the old fence remained there it didn't much matter, but an improvement of that nature now should meet with general approval.

Harold Hench, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hench, of near Glencoe, was injured about the face and back of his head at the celebration grounds, on the Fourth. The little fellow fell from a stump as a bucking broncho went past. There are some who say the horse ran against the boy, and others who say that the lad was not struck by the animal. The bruise on the back of his head was quite severe Dr. A. E. Bailey attended the lad, who is eight years old. He has fully recovered. The boy was hurt within the same hour that Ed. Groat, of Scholls, received his injury, and the next day it was reported around town that both had passed away.

Detective Andrew Vaughn and Officer Hawley, of the Juvenile court, were out yesterday, attending the hearing in the case of State vs. Andrew Hoereth, charged with rape, the daughter of defendant being the complaining witness The daughter swore point-plank as to the man's guilt, and Judge Bagley fixed his bail at $1,000, and the original bond was allowed to stand. Hoereth, who has always borne a splendid reputation, is much cast down over the affair.

The Rev. Dr. C. A Mock, of Dallas, will preach at the Tabernacle Sunday morning and evening, and also in the afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Dr. Mock will also preach Saturday evening. A number of the churches will unite in a Union Service in the Tabernacle Sunday evening. The meetings will continue each night during the coming week. Rev. W. W. Sager, of Dallas, will be present and assist in the meetings during the week. All are invited.

If you want to tile your place, get figures from the Groner & Rowell Company, of Scholls. We are the largest manufacturers of drain tile in the county, and have sold our product far and wide. If you are going to build in the Spring, get our figures of brick, building blocks etc. We also furnish lumber, rough and dressed, of all kinds, and deliver if required, in sufficient quantities. Address us at Hillsboro, R. F. D. No. 2.

W. L. Merritt, traveling for the Keystone Type Founders' Co., of San Francisco, made his first trip to Hillsboro, yesterday, and called on the Argus. His company is doing some business in Oregon, he states, and he will work out of Portland in the future.

For sale: Shepherd dogs, Berkshire swine and Shorthorn cattle. The dogs are heelers and workers; the hogs are "doers," and the Shorthorns have a national reputation. Call early for selections. Address A. Chalmers, Forest Grove, Route 2, residing near Centerville.

R. K. Dailey the other day met a Mr. James, of Farmington, whom he had not seen for 25 years. They resided together in Kansas, when that section was considered one of the arid regions of Uncle Sam's domain.

Buffalo Pitts engine, water tank, and Champion Hay Press, ready to run, complete, for $500.—J. A. Moore, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2, residing just east of Hillsboro, this side of Newton.

Lost: Lunch basket, from in front of Tualatin Hotel. Party who took same will please return it to hotel or to county treasurer's office Valuable because of keepsakes in basket.

In another column mention is made of fire at Wm. Crowther's place, on Gales Creek. The building which burned was a house, instead of a barn, the first information being error.

Lost: At merry-go-round, celebration ground, purse with small sum of money and three keys. Finder can keep money if they will return keys—Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, at Hoyt's Store, Hillsboro.

W. H. Galvani, architect and forcible writer along editoral lines, was in town yesterday, on legal business Mr. Galvani still owns some timber land up above Buxton.

Good, gentle, true and sound work or driving horse, for sale; weighs 1100. Goes at a bargain; color, black—E. E Lyons, northeast of Hillsboro.

Chas. W. Brewbaker, who married at Port Orchard in 1900, sues Emma Brewbaker for divorce, alleging desertion at Portland, in 1905 There are no children to the union.

In July brightly shines the sun—
These days we'd rather walk than run;
And cool soft drinks, ice cream and such,
Appreciated very much.
So come with wife, sweetheart, or friend,
Or come alone—for we intend
To suit you all—though wants may vary,
At Palmateer's Confectionery.
—L. J. Palmateer, Prop.

Mary Ramsey Wood, of this city, and who is now in her 121st year, was crowned Queen of Oregon by Hon. Geo. H. Williams, ex-mayor of Portland, July 4, in that city.

For Sale: Fifty acres cleared land in the viciniy of Hillsboro, on rural mail and milk route; near telephone line. Fine location; good building site.—Inquire of Argus.

Andrew Jack, the Farmington hop grower, was in this morning, and says there is no evidence of blight down his way, and that the hop crop is looking fine.

PROMINENT SCHOLLS' CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Jacob W. Ratcliffe, ex-Banker, Dies From Apoplexy

DEATH DOUBTLESS INSTANTANEOUS

Once in Mercantile Business at Scholls—Extensive Traveler

Jacob W. Ratcliffe, of Scholls, succumbed to a stroke of apoplexy, Monday evening, about 6:25. Mr. Ratcliffe was in an out-building when death overtook him, and a half hour before he had talked with his wife and his son, T. R., apparently in usual health, although he had been a sufferer from organic heart trouble for some time. He sustained a severe fall after the stroke, but the attending physician, Dr. Linklater, who was called on post mortem, states that life must have been extinct when the fall took place, as there was no flow of blood from the wound, showing heart action had stopped. Deceased was born near Hamilton, Indiana, April 3, 1844, and was married to Miss Grace Forest, in Indiana, Jan. 20, 1869. Later they moved to Kansas, where Mr. Ratcliffe was for twelve years in the banking business. He and his wife came to Oregon seven years ago, and settled at Scholls, where he engaged in the mercantile business, selling later to Rowell Bros. and T. R. Ratcliffe, a son. His wife and the following children survive: Geo. W., assistant supt. of the Walla Walla Electric line; H. T., manager of the Kansas Grain Co., at Pony Rock, Kas.; and T. R., connected with the Rowell Bros. & Co.'s store at Scholls.

The funeral will be held Sunday and the son from Kansas will arrive in time for the obsequies.

Mr. Brown spoke of his missionary labors morning and evening, last Sunday, from the Cong. pulpit. He returns to Ceylon in November, for another stay of 10 years.

On the square—Hillsboro needs a rest room, furnitured with decent chairs, so that farmers may have some place for their wives and daughters to pass away an hour or so while in the city, and awaiting trains, or for the completion of business. Such an accommodation, with proper sanitary connections, and a necessary toilet, would make the town better liked and give it a distinction that very few cities of its size on the coast can boast.

DR. W. D. WOOD IS NOW HEALTH OFFICER

Dr. F. J. Bailey Claims Balance due From County

CASE MAY GO INTO THE COURT

Other Counties pay Statutory Salary to Physicians

Dr. W. D. Wood is now the county health officer, vice Dr. F. J. Bailey, who has held that position for two years. After consulting the records in other counties, where there is less than 50,000 population, and consulting the law as to remuneration, Dr. Bailey claims the county still owes him $2,183.04, and he bases his claim upon the statutes, which, he avers, other counties in the state have recognized. The attorney general of the state backs up Dr. Bailey with his legal opinion. The ex-health officer went to the county board and offered to stipulate and permit Judge McBride to pass on the question, but this they declined to do Dr. Bailey says that he intends to bring suit, and settle the question one way or the other. He has turned over the records to Dr Wood. The duties of the office are not small, if the statute is followed There is hardly a time that there is not some epidemic somewhere in the county, and it is his duty to quarantine and treat such cases, and also to keep a record of all contagious diseases, and a chronicle of births and deaths.

Will we get it? Three Portland men say they will each draw their check for $500 toward establishing an auto road from Portland on to Tillamook. The road would necessarily have to come through Washington County, and it would be a grand thing. Just let our Portland friends remember that $1,500 will construct about one-half mile of good road. As there are all of twenty miles of good road yet to build in order to get them through the county this will give them chance to figure. Sixty thousand dollars will make it—come again, Portland, and put up half of the cost, and the Argus will pledge the thoroughfare.

For sale: Driving mare, gentle, fine driver, not afraid of auto or cars, safe for woman to drive; top buggy, harness, and in good repair, for sale. Entire outfit goes at a bargain, for $200 cash.—S. J. White, at Mincemoyer place, 1½ miles north of Reedville.

Last Saturday, Oscar Miller, son of Harvey Miller, of Shady Brook, came near losing his life as a result of bee stings. The virus of the stings made a powerful impression on the heart, and the young man was on the point of collapse when Dr. F. A. Bailey arrived and prescribed an antidote, which soon had the lad resting easily. But for medical attendance he might have died. It was a similar experience that cost Dave Campbell his life in this city two seasons ago.

Hop pickers wishing to pick at Ray Hop Farm, Witch Hazel, will please register at the ranch, or send their names for registery, with number of pickers in family to the undersigned. Fine accomodations.—Frank Weisenback, Manager.

Two young fellows from Portland arrived in town this morning and proceeded to sell some hams, having about fifty in their possession. There was complaint made to Recorder Bagley that they had been shortweighing purchasers, and he had them brought before him for an investigation. They said they got the hams from a farmer in Portland, and were selling them through the country. Upon making good the weights they were allowed to go on their way rejoicing.

We carry the best shoe on the market for the money. W. L Douglas and Dr. Reed's famous cushion shoes for men. Leading makes for ladies. Latest styles and finish.—H. Wehrung & Sons

Fred Rockstroh, son of Chas. Rockstroh, of Calistoga, Cal., is here for a visit, and is stopping with friends at Mountaindale. He was in the city this morning, and says he notices that the old county seat has improved wonderfully. He returns in ten days.

Spray your hops: Now is the time to spray before the vine gets too heavy, and the lice too thick. We have quassia chips and whale oil soap in stock. C. B. Buchanan & Co.

Assessor Geo. H. Wilcox has discovered that state land, contracted to parties on sale, is eligible to assessment, and he has placed on the rolls two places, the Corey place at Mountaindale, and the place held by Vanderwal, north of Beaverton.

We are agents for the Deering and Osborne harvesting machinery, and have a complete line on hand, received direct from the factory.—Schulmerich Bros.

Sheriff J. W. Connell, Dr. E. Dewitt Connell, Portland, Walter B. Honeyman, Portland, and J. H. Wescott, of Gaston, leave the last of the week for a deer hunt on the Wilson River and Trask.

If you want to spray your hops remember that the Greear Feed Store, Second Street, keeps Whale Oil soap and quasia chips, in any quantity.

Dr. W. D. Wood has proved up on his homestead, and will soon receive his patent from the government. The tract is now of considerable value, owing to the increase in timber values.

The Oregon State Medical Association is now in session at Seaside and will hold until Saturday evening, and end with a huge Clambake. Dr. F. J. Bailey is the delegate from this county.

Have you any fence to build? If so we can save you money. We sell a good substantial fence, 4 feet high, for 40 cents per rod.—Schulmerich Bros.

Carl Harris, with the American Type Founders' Co, and who resided here a few years ago, was in town today, interviewing the newspaper fraternity.

Born, June 17, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Gould, Tualatin, a daughter.

Henry Harris, the dairyman of this side of Cornelius, was in town today.
