ELECTRIC STORM PASSES OVER COUNTY

Glencoe Barn Struck by Lightning, and Burns

FIREMEN SUFFER BURNT FUSES

Power House Sustains a Minor Loss Only

An electric storm which held sway between 8:30 and 9:30 last night was the most severe experienced for years. The telephone and electric light lines over the county suffered many burned fuses, and the Independent lines out in the city has 22 lines burned out. The Pacific States has about 20 out of commission. The service came early in the storm. It was the one that crippled the dynamos in the power house, killed off so many telephones, and struck Clyde Lincoln's barn, a new one, and just filled with hay, at Glencoe, causing a total loss by fire. A binder and buggy and other articles were also burned. Commissioner Buchanan, of near Cornelius, says no particular damage was done up there, except that the lights were put out, and several people experienced a shock, himself among the latter. The Lincoln barn was a new structure, and there was no insurance.

Thos. Connell was in from his Glencoe ranch this afternoon.

Teams wanted for hauling 100,000 feet of lumber. Will pay by day or by thousand.—Beach & Steffer, Hillsboro, Route 1.

Henry Hannan, of Hannan & Son, Buxton, was in the city this morning. He reports Buxton as moving right along.

E. M. Tucker, of Jefferson, a prominent hardware man, who visited this city in May, calling on Mayor Dennis, on the mission of looking over our city water and light plant, died the first of the week. Strangulated hernia was the cause of death.

The Greenville District S. S. Convention will be held in Buxton next Saturday, in a grove. There will be a good program and a picnic dinner. All the Sabbath schools of the District are expected to be represented by large delegations. Rev. C. A. Phipps, State S. S. worker for Oregon, will be present also Mrs. M. Hidden, of Portland, who is the Supt. of Temperance work in the Sabbath schools for the W. C. T. U. of Oregon; will deliver an address, and Rev. A. Robinson, who formerly had care of the Buxton church, expects to be present. A. B. Garrigus is vice president of the Greenville District and expects the county president will be there also. Everybody invited.

To the Public: Although we are forced to suspend business for awhile on account of repairs, we are not going out of business entirely. We will soon be located in our Second street store, with a bigger and better Den of Sweets, where we wish to meet all our old-time patrons, as well as many new ones. Yours for good candy.—Jas. Miltenberger.

Rachel Ruth Emily Gosney, formerly a Miss Trumbo, and who married Luther M. Gosney, of Hillsboro, in 1890, has, through Attorney T. H. Tongue, sued her husband for divorce, asking the custody of three minor children, $100 to prosecute the case, and $500 alimony. The couple lived here a few years ago, residing in North Hillsboro. From here they went to Baker County, where Gosney's father lives, and later they returned and have been living at St Johns. Mrs. Gosney says her husband has been very cruel to her, and that not recently he drew a butcher knife on her at their St Johns home, and threatened to kill her.

Party who has lost a bay filly, white hind feet, star in forehead, will find same at John Lehman's farm, near Cedar Mill, where it has been taken up as an estray. Owner can have same by paying charges accrued and cost of advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jack, of near Farmington, were in town this morning. Via Jack, their son, is in bed today, the result of a shock received, last night, by lightning. Via was sleeping upstairs, and had his bed close to the window. The telephone wire came in close to him, and the bolt followed the wire in, rendering the young man semi-unconscious for a time, and doubling him up in all kinds of double hard knots. Miss Nellie Wallace, of this city, came near being knocked down by a lightning stroke at the same time.

In July brightly shines the sun—
These days we'd rather walk than run;
And cool soft drinks, ice cream and such,
Appreciated very much.
So come with wife, sweetheart, or friend
Or come alone—for we intend
To suit you all—though wants may vary,
At Palmateer's Confectionery.
—L. J. Palmateer, Prop.

John Cawrse, of North Plains, says the lightning did some very peculiar things out his way. Their telephone was knocked off the wall and a hole was knocked in the building. Many trees were struck, and he says it is reported that a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gregg, at Leisyville, was rendered nearly unconscious by a stroke. John says considerable rain fell out in his section.

Those desiring to pick hops at the Bagley hopyard, Leisyville, will please register at the farm, or at the law office of Bagley & Hare, either in person or by letter. Please register prior to August 25.

Supt. Ringle, who threw the belts at the power house last night, just in time to prevent disastrous damage, says the lightning did not do very much damage. It required an all night session at the dynamo, and further work until the noon hour, today, when all was placed in readiness for the evening's run.

For Sale: Fifty acres cleared land in the viciniy of Hillsboro, on rural mail and milk route; near telephone line. Fine location; good building site.—Inquire of Argus.

Capt. Miller and wife, of Goldendale, Wash., and formerly of this county, were in town this week, after an absence of thirty years. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of the late Dr. Boise, who practiced medicine here years ago. They relate that Mr. Kellogg, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Miller and formerly of this place, died in Southern Oregon on July 6. All early pioneers remember him well.

For sale: Handmade wagon, 3¼ half-truck style, in good repair; 150 lb anvil; 60 lb blacksmith vise; Little Giant screw plate, almost new.—H. S. Sturdevant, Cornelius, Ore.

C. H. Tavenner, representing the Newspaper Enterprise Association, was in town today, getting a special story on the life, age, habits, and peculiarities of Grandma Wood, who is 120 years old. The article will reach 67 of the largest newspapers in the United States and England.

Taylor Hill, of Mountaindale, was in town this morning. Mr. Hill says that the storm of last night did no particular damage out his way.

Union services of all the churches will be held at the Christian Church, Sunday evening, Rev. Belknap occupying the pulpit.

TOTAL CRUISE NOW IN ASSESSOR'S HANDS

One Little Strip South of Baseline, Yet

OVER FOUR AND A HALF BILLIONS

Cruise Will Add to Tax Roll Over Four and a Half Million Dollars

County Assessor George H. Wilcox this week received the total cruise of timber in Washington County, except perhaps a million or two feet south of Baseline. This will be cruised by C. A. Cavell this and next week. The cruise, to date, is in round numbers, 4,643,230,750 feet, which at one dollar per thousand assessment, will make a value $4,500,000, on the roll, when enough is exempted to cover some lands which have yet not gone to patent, but which will be on the roll next year. Assessor Wilcox finds it hard to estimate precisely, but he thinks that he will have a total county valuation of about eighteen million dollars.

This will make the timber assessment at least one-fourth of the values, and as it is entirely new property it will mean, generally, that for every four dollars paid last year, on a like assessment, a man not having timber lands will this year pay but three dollars of tax. It will mean thousands, and the cruising of timber is a proposition that meets with general favor.

GAS FROM CRUDE OIL EXPLODES AT OIL TANK

Blows Lantern and hat Over Thirty Feet Distant

JAMES GRAY WAS BADLY BURNED

Climbed to Man Hole, and Lighted Lantern Ignities Vapor

James Gray, a son of Wm. Gray, who is track man for the P. R. & N., was unloading oil from the oil tank, last Thursday night, at the spur at the water tank, and when he climbed to the top of the tank, with a lantern, the vapor rising from the crude oil, at the manhole, ignited, and the explosion was heard for several blocks. The force of the explosion blew his lantern and hat over 30 feet distant, and young Gray, who is about 17, was badly burned about the head, face, neck, chest, and his right arm. The burn on his neck, under his chin, is very bad, and he will be laid up several days. He at once went to the home of Dr. F. J. Bailey, who attended the burns.

The accident took place about 11:00 o'clock in the evening, and at the same time a falling star was noticed down in the Jackson Bottom section. The next morning there was talk on the streets that a meteor had fallen on the river bottom, and it was stated that the object had exploded when it struck the ground. Many were sure of this, and when they found that the noise was from the oil tank, it occasioned a genuine surprise.
