EDWARD JETER ARRESTED YESTERDAY

For Non Support of Wife and Children

$500 BAIL IS PROVIDED FOR

And he Agrees to Pay Family $100 Per Day

Edwin Jeter, of Portland, was arrested in Portland last Wednesday and brought to Hillsboro by Deputy Sheriff Frank Kane, on a warrant issued by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, John M. Wall, charging him with a misdemeanor in failing to provide for the support of his wife and children at Gaston. Jeter was arraigned before Judge Goodin Wednesday, and upon his agreement to provide a bond in the sum of $500, and his father's agreement pay $1 per day for the support of his family, he was released from custody. The arrest was under the provisions of an act passed by the last Legislature. Jeter's wife resides with her parents at Gaston.

Jeter said to friends in Hillsboro that he had sent money to his wife but upon advice of her parents she had refused to go to Portland to live, and that he had not deserted his family. It is said that Jeter will contest the matter in the courts.

MAUDE ETHEL McCONNAHAY

Died at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Marsh, near Centerville, Oregon, Sept 10, 1907, Maude Ethel McConnahay, aged 24 years.

Maude Ethel Marsh was born in Washington County, Oregon, May 6, 1883. Attended the O. A. C. at Corvallis, where she won many friends by her pleasing personality. On August 24, 1904, she was married to N. A. McConnahay, and removed to Lakeside, S. D., where she lived until about a year ago, when she came home on a visit.

At the time of her marriage, was a teacher in this county. United with the M. E. church, at Cornelius in 1904, and was ever a true Christian woman, enduring her long last illness with patience and fortitude. Besides her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Marsh, she leaves a husband and little son to mourn her loss. Her disposition was cheerful and sunny, and won her many friends, who greatly regret her death. Funeral services were held at the Centerville School House, Thursday, Sept. 12, being conducted by Rev. Blake, of Cornelius, and interment was in the Cornelius cemetery. The grave was decorated with beautiful floral gifts, the last kind tribute of loving friends.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tamiesie of the North Plains, this county, celebrated their fiftieth marriage anniversary, this week. Mr. Tamiesie was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1833, afterwards removing to Marion, Iowa. Mrs. Tamiesie was born in Soisy, Belgium, in 1840, at the age of 10 years she came to America, and settled with her parents in the state of Iowa. In 1857 she was married to Mr. Tamiesie, her maiden name being Phillipine Goffett. They lived in the state of Iowa 22 years, removing to Oregon in 1879, where they have since resided. During the 50 years of their happy married life, ten children were born, eight of whom are alive as follows: Dr. A. E. Tamiesie, of Salem, Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, of Hillsboro, Mrs. Wm. Reiling, of Forest Grove, J. H. Tamiesie, J. V. Tamiesie, Dr. J. C. Tamiesie, Dr. G. W. Tamiesie, of Portland, and Miss Marie Tamiesie, who resides with her parents, near this city.

SENATOR FULTON VISITS HILLSBORO

Is Pleased With Growth of Town and County

PUTS IN DAY SHAKING HANDS

And Incidentally Talks Politics With His Friends

Senator C. W. Fulton, Oregon's senior representative in the United States Senate from Oregon, arrived in Hillsboro yesterday morning and spent most of the day in this city visiting with political friends and getting acquainted with our business men. In conversation with an Argus reporter, the Senator expressed surprise at the rapid growth of Hillsboro, and the surrounding country, changes noticeable since his last visit to this city. Senator Fulton predicted a bright future for Washington county by reason of its nearness to the metropolis, and its natural resources, which latter assets are now being so well developed. The Senator is an avowed candidate to succeed himself, and will go before the people, he said, relying upon his senatorial record. His opponents for for the primary nomination are ex Senator Frederick W. Mulkey, and Hon. Wm. M. Cake, of Portland, with W. S. U'Ren as a possible fourth man in the race. Senator Fulton went to Forest Grove, yesterday afternoon.
