Mrs. A. M. Collins, wife of Capt. Collins, of this city, celebrated her 74th birthday, last Tuesday, Sept. 24th, by giving a dinner to a few of her friends. The special guest on that occasion, was Capt. M. C. Collier, whose 76th birthday occurred on the same date. Other guests present, were County Clerk Godman and wife, Miss Effie Godman, Capt. R. Crandall and wife, Grandma Shannon and Mrs. Margaret McKinney. The Colliers and the Collins came to Washington County together from the East, in the seventies.

I am now prepared to show you the Chas. Stevens & Bros. samples of new Fall and Winter styles in Ladies' and Misses' dress suits, shirt waist suits, and dress skirts, made to your special order, and of your own selection of goods. Fall and Winter coats also carried. I carry a standard line of corsets and underskirts. I will be glad to bring my goods to your house upon request. Independent phone, No. 264. Mrs. M. E. Caudle.

Marshal Robinson, the colored man, and Chas. Reynolds of Cedar Mill, who were arrested last week on a charge of stealing a horse from Owen Murray, of that place, were arraigned before Judge Bagley last Monday, when both waived examination, and were bound over to the next grand jury in the sum of $800 each. Failing to provide bonds, they were remanded to the county jail.

Wm. Schulmerich, of Farmington, was on the streets Tuesday. He says the State Fair was a great success, the attendance being unusually large. The exhibition of horses was the best ever seen at the Fair. For some reason, the Ladd herds were not on exhibition at the Fair this year, but there were many fine herds there, including the Dutch Belted cattle, this being their first appearance there.

Engineer Chas. Follette, of the P. R. & N. Co., met with a severe accident Monday morning, while lighting the oil on engine No. 1. The burner exploded, and burned Mr. Folette severely on the face and on the left hand, in consequence of which he had to quit work temporarily, and have his burns treated. Master Mechanic D. H. McLaughlin, is filling his place, as engineer.

EVERYTHING READY FOR THE CARNIVAL

Riley Cave Looking Out For Horse Show and Parade

VOTE FOR QUEEN NOT COUNTED

Promise of Finest Exhibit Ever Witnessed in County

Preparations for the coming Street Fair and Carnival are going forward. A large arch and pavilion will be erected at the intersection of Main and Second streets, where the Queen will be crowned. Several races are scheduled for Saturday, and if the weather permits, Lord Lovelace, Burke Tongue's fast pacer, will give an exhibition pace. This will give the people a chance to see the only Oregon bred horse that ever paced a mile in 2:10, in action. Two harness and two pony races are certain to be pulled off, and there may be others. The base ball program includes a game each day, with final contest for championship of the county on Saturday. A fine exhibit of fruit and vegetables is promised, while the fancy work and horticultural exhibit will be held in the Dr. Linklater building, next door to the Argus office.

The livestock and poultry exhibit, and the horse and colt parade, will well be worth a visit to the county seat. All in all it is calculated to have something that will equal the oldtime county fairs, held here years ago, and dear to the memories of all old timers.

The vote for Queen is not canvassed as the Argus goes to press, so it is impossible to name the successful candidate.

HORSEMEN ATTENTION

Notice is hereby given to the horsemen of Washington County, that a meeting will be held in conjunction with the Hillsboro Street Fair, at Hillsboro, Oregon, on October 3, 4 and 5, 1907, in which you are invited to participate, and on which occasion there will be a parade of stallions, foals and dams, and an exhibition of draught horses. You are respectfully requested to bring your stock, and take a hand. Premiums of some sort will be offered.

The house of an old soldier, who is named Wellman, burned at the Grove, last night, shortly before 12. Wellman and Geo. Carlton, formerly a resident of the county seat, lived together, and it is said they had been indulging in booze. The old man was taken out first, and was uninjured, Carlton, however, was severely burned, and the physician, Dr. Ward, says the chances of recovery are slim. Carlton's mother and brother live in Brooklynn, New York, and are wealthy. For years they have been sending the Forest Grove relative remittances for his support. Carlton is well-informed, and spent years in the Orient, as manager of a large tea importing concern.
