PIONEER ISAAC LEISY HAS PARALYTIC STROKE

Stricken in Portland, Last Week, and is Unconscious

LINGERING BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH

Came to Oregon in 1850 and Settled North of Hillsboro

Isaac Leisy, for many years a resident of north of Hillsboro, and who came to Oregon in 1850, suffered a paralytic stroke last week at his home in Portland, and he is now lingering between life and death. He is still unconscious, and the physicians are doing all in their power to save his life.

The children from Washington County were summoned to the bedside Sunday. Geo. Hathorn, of Laurel, a son-in-law of Mr. Leisy, was in the city today, and says that although there is a slight improvement in his condition there is but little hope for the aged pioneer. Mr. Leisy is in his 80th year. His aged wife is a constant attendant at the bedside.

AUTO LIVERY

L. W. House has purchased a 35-Horse Power Pope-Hartford car, carrying five passengers, and after listening to the many solicitations to open an auto-livery, has decided to put the car in service. He will carry family parties on trips to the mountains this Summer, take fishing parties up country, and also carry excursions here and there. He says that his charges will be reasonable as compared to the general charges for such work.

His car is very comfortable, and has a water proof top. Mr. House keeps his machine on Washington Street, at his woodwork shop.

IMBRIE BUILDING

The Imbrie Building is rapidly nearing completion, Contractor Moore having installed the glass front the past week. The front now shows a very neat appearance and the building, which is but one story, is a credit to the city. The floors are laid, and the contractor thinks he will have all in readiness for occupancy for C. L. store by May 1. The floor is laid over a gravel-cement underlay—a new feature here.

The Heidel building, across the street, which is nearly completed, reflects in the Imbrie front, making the Imbrie block look as though there were a balcony in the rear. The two structures add much to the appearance of Main Street.

BIG BUGGY SALE

On Saturday, April 23, Connell & Co. will make a special sale of buggies and vehicles at special prices. Do not overlook this if you need a buggy, hack, or wagon. They have the best manufacturers and they are going to sell at prices that will save you money. Do not fail to attend this sale—one day only—on April 23.

Connell & Co. Incorporate

John W. Connell, W. E. McCourt and Ward Downs have incorporated under the name of Connell & Co., with a capital stock of $40,000, the firm to transact a general mercantile business. The new firm will at once take possession as soon as inventory is completed. Meanwhile, business continues until this is perfected. Fred Cornelius has retired from the firm, but is still with the store.

J. W. Connell and Ward Downs have been appointed to open stock books for the new firm. All three of the incorporators are well known in the county and all are good business men.

GRANGE RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS: Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom and love has called our sister Mrs. Cahow from active life to be at rest with her companion waiting for her in the realms of eternal piece and joy, where there are no more partings, neither grief nor sorrow; and

WHEREAS: by such removal our grange suffers the loss of a faithful member;

BE IT RESOLVED by Scholls Grange No. 338, that we deeply mourn the loss of our sister and hereby extend our heartfeft sympathy to the remaining ones, who mourn the loss of mother; and

BE IT RESOLVED; that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting; also a copy sent to the bereft family.

Councilman C. Heim, who returned the last of the week from a Southern Oregon trip, says that he saw some good country, but none that could compare to old Hillsboro's outlying districts and Washington County in general. He noticed, however, that most Southern Oregon cities were more cleanly kept, and he says if people realized how little effort it took, and how little expense it incurred, they would clean up the streets, the back alley, and back of store buildings, much more than they do in this city. Mr. Heim says that from observations, he believes if Hillsboro would get a hustle on itself in this regard it would be one of the prettiest little towns in Oregon.

You want the Norman School question separated from politics. That is what the Initiative bill does for Monmouth. This is your opportunity to keep it always separate. The state educates her lawyers, farmers, doctors, pharmacits, etc., why not her teachers? We must have schools. The better trained the teacher, the better school and more intelligent service the child gets. Vote Yes for Monmouth. 5

H. Harrington, of near Centerville, and who owns one of the big ranches of his section, was in town the first of the week. Forty eight years ago today, Mr. Harrington was shot in the leg in the second day's battle at Shiloh, and forty eight years ago yesterday, the father of the Argus reporter was shot through the right knee in the first day's battle of Shiloh—and there were things doing those two days down in Dixie.

Watch the farmer boy plow all day in a pair of Connell & Co.'s plow shoes and then come to the house with feet that are not tired. He then cleans up, puts on a pair of Connell & Co.'s dress shoes, takes his best girl to a dance; gets home about 2:00 a. m., and starts work for another day—but you never hear him complain about sore feet. It's the way our shoes are made—Connell & Co.

E. Wenstrom, of near Scholls, paid a fine of $75 Monday, on the charge of having allowed sawdust to get into a streom. Mr. Wenstrom was brought up Saturday evening and remained over until Monday in charge of Sheriff Hancock, and Monday evening paid the assessment. He says that he is starting in the sawmill business and that he is not financially able to test the law or he would give it a whirl.

A carload of genuine newly manufactured Hercules stumping powder, made by the E. I. Dupont de Ne Mours Co., of San Francisco, just received. Both telephones.—J. E. Borwick, Reedville, Oregon.

Mrs. Ralph Edwards, of Sherwood Route 4, and who has lived within 15 miles from this city for many years, was in town Monday, and states that this is her first trip to the county seat. She was very much impressed with the little town, and says she is very much surprised at the enterprise and progress evidenced.

F. L. Geiger, of Cornelius, and who was elected recorder to succeed himself, Monday, was in the city Tuesday. He says that as Mr. Merrill and Mr. Ness each polled 60 votes they will have to draw straws to see which will sit as councilman.

Wanted—Some stock sheep and lambs. Need not be fat. Could also use a few registered Cotswold or Shropshire ewes and lambs.—Edward L. Naylor, Forest Grove, Ore. 2-8

Herb Matteson, of near Gaston, and who has been rounding up the sawmill men all over the county to see that they conform to the non-sawdust law, was in town Monday afternoon.

Get one or more cockerels from my $100 pen of White Orpingtons. We have them from $2 up. We also supply you with eggs for hatching. Address T. P. Goodin, Hillsboro, Ore. 52tf

Herman Schulmerich, of Portland, was out Sunday, visiting friends. He is now shipping clerk for R. M. Wade, a responsible position that carries a good salary.

The Schiller—a 10 cent cigar, and the Grand Marca, a two for a quarter cigar, are what you want when you buy a cigar. Kept at every bar in Hillsboro. Ask for them.

Irving Bath, with the Independent a number of years, returned from a trip to Collins Springs, Monday, and is helping on the Argus this week.

Dr. Schmelzer, osteopathic physician, of Portland, will be at the Commercial Hotel, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; hours, 1 to 4 p. m. Consultation free. 5

A Columbia Ann Arbor hay press, for power, 17x22, for sale cheap, for cash. Been used but little. Address Argus H. P., Hillsboro, Ore. 4-5

Spray your trees—but do not forget your pruning shears. We keep the Standard shears.—Emrick & Corwin.

TWO YOUNG MEN LOSE FINGER TIPS

One the Victim of Gopher Gun, Near Newton, Yesterday

OTHER LOSES TIPS IN SAWMILL

Jos. Lorsung, Newton, and Herman Greener, of Buxton

Jos. Lorsung, son of J. S. Lorsung, of Newton, lost the tips off of two fingers on his right hand, yesterday, while exhibiting the working of a gopher gun to a neighboring young lady. The gun exploded just when it should not, with the result that the finger tips were soon a minus quantity.

Herman Greener, a young man aged 22 years, and a son of Ferd Greener, of below Rood's, while working at Buxton, Tuesday, caught the ends of three fingers in a saw, neatly scalping the ends of the digits. Dr. A. B. Bailey dressed the wounds of both the young sufferers, and they are taking a holiday.

Mrs. Eckhart, of Redfield, Dakota, is the guest of Mrs. D. B. Emrick. Hostess and guest were acquainted in the Dakotas.

Fred Goetze, of beyond Blooming, took advantage of the wet weather to visit the county seat this morning.

General Manager C. E. Lytle, of the P. R. & N., made a trip overland to Timber, Monday and Tuesday, taking in a number of the sawmills enroute.

M. Cantwell, who left Mountaindale a few months ago, and is now gardening at Clackamas, was in town Monday, greeting his old Washington County friends.

Dr. C. E. Hines, Druggist C. F. Miller, Hugh Smith and Jake Wirtz were all down from Forest Grove, Monday, mixing with their county seat friends.

J. B. Walker, of below Beaverton, was in town Monday, transacting business. While in town he called on his mother, Mrs. Lucy Walker, who has been indisposed for some time.

Emmett Quick has severed his connection with the Hillsboro Livery Company and has gone to Forest Grove, where he is foreman in the McNamer stables. His family will remain here for the present.

You will have no trouble in finding something to suit you in a farm or in city property, in location, price and quality of soil, if you consult the Imbrie Land Co.

Mrs. Bruce Wolverton, of Portland, was out Saturday, the guest of her brother, John H. Humphreys. She was accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Irving Wolverton and wife, of Calgary, Alberta.

When you are satisfied you are right, stay with your proposition, That is why we are staying with the lots in the Donelson Block, because we know they are the best residence lots in the city and the prices are right. You can practically make your own terms. Imbrie Land Co.

Chas. Hickethier, of near Cedar Mill, was up yesterday, walking pretty spry for a man who was captured 48 years ago last evening by the rebel forces at Shiloh. Chas. says his entire regiment, under Wallace, who was killed, was gathered in by the Southerners.

W. A. Shaw, of the Shaw-Fear Company, having over 3,800 acres sub-divided in the Beaverton--Reedville section, was in town this week, adding another addition to their holdings. They are having great success in selling five and ten acre tracts, and last Sunday, Mr. Shaw says, there were over 50 people out looking at their holdings. Many easterners are buying small tracts, and Mr. Shaw states that many young orchards are being blocked out.

BIG CASE AGAINST COUNTY, TOMORROW

A. L. Sexton Asks Circuit Court to Award Him $710

FELL THROUGH THE WATTS BRIDGE

Wagon Loaded With Gravel Shot Down Thirty Feet

Tomorrow the case of A. L. Sexton versus Washington County will be heard in circuit court. Sexton was hauling gravel on the Gales Creek road, March 17th, 1910—St. Patrick's day,—and while passing over the Watts' bridge, the structure collapsed. His team, consisting of two horses and a mule, crashed through the structure, and Sexton says they were precipitated a distance of 30 feet. He asks for $210 damages for his team and wagon, and $500 personal damages. The case will come before a jury. The court made a tender of about $200 to settle, which Mr. Sexton refused.

John Pierce, changed with pointing a firearm at A. Lower East of town, a few weeks ago, demanded a jury trial and he was convicted. He was fined $50, which was paid. The jury trying the case: Louis Wilcox, Edw. Hughes, Thos. Corkill, John Schmeltzer, Carl Iller, J. E. Baldwin, J. J. Adkins, Wm. Roberts, H. T. Buxton, Findley McLeod, M. H. Henderson, J. T. Downing.

Jacob Brugger, of Chehalem Mountain, is on trial today, charged with cutting a cow, belonging to Henry Becker. Young Challacombe is fighting the case. He says that he had no intention of injuring the animal, which, he claims, had been in his field.

Cases set—Sears vs Murdock, April 18; Shute vs Buxton Lumber Co., April 20; Venen vs Booth, April 21.

District Attorney E. B. Tongue moved the court that adjournment take place yesterday, out of respect to the memory of the late Hon. Geo. H. Williams, whose funeral took place in Portland April 6. The court granted the request.

MARRIED TWENTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Burkhalter, of Farmington, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Sunday, April 3, 1910, and a large number of relatives and friends assembled at the farm to commemorate the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhalter are well known in their community, and in Hillsboro, and they have a host of friends who contribute congratulations. A big dinner was served and a general fete enjoyed. Those present to wish them many more anniversaries were: Wm. Schulmerich and wife; Geo. Schulmerich and wife; Ervine Burkhalter and wife; J. F. Stevens and wife; J. C. Schulmerich and wife, Banks; W. L. Stevens and wife and F. J. Stevens and wife, Farmington; T. C. Johnson and wife, South Tualatin; E. C. Schulmerich; Henry Hogrefe and wife, Blooming; Claud Cook and wife, Cornelius; Herman Schulmerich, Portland; Miss Etta Schulmerich, Hillsboro; Geo. Biersdorf and wife, North Plains; J. M. Simpson; H. C. Toelle and wife; J. J. Krebs and wife, Hillsboro; J. B. Stewart and wife, South Tualatin; John Kamna and wife, Farmington; Mrs. Susan Burkhalter, Mrs. W. A. Walker, Frank Schulmerich, Johnny Kamna, Ferd and Melvin Schulmerich, Kenneth, Irene and Delvert Biersdorf, Elbert Stevens, Edwin Burkhalter, Daisy Mann and Oda Schulmerich.

SOUTHARD-RICE

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rice, North Hillsboro, Thursday, April 7th, 1910, at high noon, when their daughter, Addie Blanche, was united in marriage to Mr. Cyril Carl Southard, of Portland, Rev. Frerichs, of the Baptish Church, officiating.

The parlors were decorated with Oregon Grape, fern, callas and carnations. The bride was gowned in white silk, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride is well known and highly respected in the communnity, and for several years has taught in the county. For two years she was on the staff of teachers at the Hillsboro High School. The groom is a well known young lumberman, and at present holds a position in charge of the filing department of the North Pacific Mills.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at 423 Cranston Street, East Portland.

Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.

Piano for Sale.—$150.—C. S Parker, Hillsboro.

An elderly woman from the Nehalem was brought over this week on a charge of larceny by bailee. It appears that she was working in one of the big North Plains hopyards, last Fall, and was overpaid $20. The error was discovered a fortnight later, and the hopman wrote her. She replied that she would be over in a few days and settle, as she admitted the overpayment. Time ran on, however, and nothing was heard from her, until an officer went after her. She settled the affair at once and nothing was done with her. She is advanced in years and is a hard-working homesteader.

Here! $54 an acre buys on reasonable terms, a fine ranch of 130 acres, south of town; half of it is cleared and in cultivation; and is slightly rolling and will grow anything; there is 3 million feet of fir and about 2000 cedar trees, also two fine creeks. You can get this fine ranch if you hurry. Imbrie Land Co.

The Hillsboro Grange meets on the second Saturday of each month. On May 9, they are to discuss the subject of whether the State of Oregon should adopt the system of Proportional representation as provided in proposed constitutional amendment. Besides this, they have a subject of great importance to both city and country—"Boys and Girls on the Farm." Every member of the Grange should attend this meeting.

You will say that $40 an acre is cheap for an improved Washington county farm. It is a trifle over 60 acres—lays on the main county road; about 25 acres in cultivation with fair buildings, and a fine creek running through place, and is close to school. Good reasons for selling.
Imbrie Land Co.

John M. Brown, the Wells-Fargo agent, tried out his new auto-transfer yesterday afternoon. This is the machine that he ordered from Chicago several months ago, the frame work to be built here. When it arrived it was not up to plans and specifications and much correspondence ensued. A compromise was finally effected, and U. G. Gardner turned it out of his shop the first of the week. It isn't a beauty, but it has the "go" in it.

A good buy! $2100 takes a good house and a full quarter block on one of the main streets of the town. This is cheap.

C. W. Bloom, who owns a hopyard below Witch Hazel, was in town yesterday, and called on the Argus. Twenty four years ago this Spring Chas. and the Argus reporter worked for J. C. Hare, on the present Ervine Burkhalter place, over in South Tualatin, "pailing cows" and clearing land, as well as a little farm work—and they weren't bad times, either.

Keep your chickens enclosed! Just received—a large consignment of poultry wire. Now is the time to buy.—Emerick & Corwin.

W. Hughes, at the condenser, had a foot caught in an elevator at the condenser one day this week and he was separated from a portion of a toe. Dr. Tamiesie dressed the wound, and Hughes will rest a day or so.

Van DeLashmutt, mayor of Portland in olden times, and now in business at Spokane, was down the first of the week, and came out to look over the Witch Hazel interests. While here he visited with friends at the county seat.

Pinky says—"Hey! Jimmy, gimme some of that choc-currant fudge you just bought at the Den of Sweets; me brudder--big lobster, swiped all mine."

F. M. J. Murphy, of Cedar Mill, was up yesterday. He is building a barn for Mr. Druyza, on Rock Creek. "Larry" is the same old rollicking Irishman as of olden times.

Circuit court adjourned Wednesday morning, in order to permit the Judge to attend the funeral of the late Judge Williams.

Won't you kindly try choc-currant fudge? You're sure to like it.—Den of Sweets.

A. F. McGill, of Orenco, and who is a busy man between the Oregon Nursery and the Orenco townsite, which is booming, was up to the city yesterday.

T. B. Perkins, of Buxton, and who is in the mercantile business at that thriving railroad point, was down to the city yesterday, greeting his county seat friends.

L. W. House has bought a new auto, carrying four passengers, and expects to do some livery work at odd times.

Fred Zilly, of the Irwin--Hodson Co., was out yesterday, on business.

R. H. Walker, of Cedar Mill, was up to the city this afternoon.

We pay 25 cents per pound for Mohair.—Wyatt & Co. 4

Geo. Ross, of Witch Hazel, was in town the first of the week.
