MRS. AMANDA LEE HOLCOMB

Mrs. Amanda Lee Holcomb, widow of the late Stephen A. Holcomb, died at her home near West Union, Wednesday, Jan. 11, 1911. She was the daughter of Philemon and Elizabeth Johnson Lee, and was born in Jefferson County, N. Y., April 21, 1833. Her parents crossed the Plains in an ox-team train in 1846, Mrs. Holcomb being then 12 years of age. They arrived at Whitman Station, Wash., in the Fall, and left that point but a few days prior to the historic massacre. From The Dalles they came down the Columbia river on flat-boats, and landed where Lorimer is now located, on New Years' day, 1847. She was married to Stephen A. Holcomb, September 13, 1850, the husband having been a pioneer of 1845. He was one of the first men to cut a road over the Portland mountain, into this county, and he died June 11, 1901. To them eleven children were born, and Mrs. Holcomb resided on the donation since her marriage all of her life, with the exception of six years, when she and her husband lived in Hillsboro. The living children are: Abraham L., born in 1861; Belle, wife of J. C. Wilson, born in 1863; Grant, born in 1866; Frank, born in 1868; and Chas. E., born in 1871. All the children reside in the Bethany-West Union section, excepting Grant, who lives at Springfield, Ore.

Her eldest son, Judge W. W. Holcomb, died at St. Johns, a short time ago.

Mrs. Holcomb was a woman of sterling endowments, and the Holcomb home was ever noted for characteristic pioneer hospitality. She had been a member of the Methodist church for sixty years. A peculiarity of her death is the fact that four of the family have passed away on the 11th of the month.

The funeral takes place Friday, at the West Union church, at 2:00 in the afternoon.

MISS MANN, MEDALIST

The second oratorical contest, held in Hillsboro, Friday evening, Jan. 7, was even a greater success than the one held at Cornelius. The church was literally packed with an eager and appreciative audience, who were treated to an admirable program. The young people are indeed to be congratulated upon this satisfactory and commendable undertaking. The judges were Mrs. Case and Mrs. Reed, of Hillsboro, and Mr. Thomas, of Cornelius. The averages were very close; the highest one being given to Miss Mann, of Cornelius, whose selection was entitled "Cripple Tom" or "Knowing is Living and Living is Doing." A storm of applause greeted Miss Mann as she received the medal.

Special music consisted of a quartet by Misses Clare, Gussie, Faye and Ray Sigler, and a ladies sextet by Misses Myrtle Harvey, Lucy and Nellie Frank, Ruby Galloway, Gussie and Faye Sigler.

The third contest will be held in Orenco Hall on Saturday evening, January 21, at 7:30 o'clock, when some of the contestants will be young people from Orenco. Everybody welcome.
