

Workshops on QuickBooks planned

SEASIDE — Clatsop Economic Development Resources (CEDR) holds an upcoming series of workshops on QuickBooks, accounting software for small businesses. The first workshop, "QuickBooks Tips and Tricks," runs from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Thursday at Clatsop Community College's South County Campus, at 1455 N. Roosevelt Drive in Seaside. It covers navigation through QuickBooks, keyboard shortcuts, memorizing transactions and reports, customizing forms, customizing charts of accounts and using subaccounts.

Preregistration is required. Email SBDC@clatsopcc.edu for a registration link, or call 503-338-2402. The workshop costs $39, payable at the event by check or credit card. Future QuickBooks workshops cover:

- Sales transactions Feb. 26.
- Vendor transactions March 5.
- Payroll March 12.
- Financial reports March 19.

The workshops are funded in part by a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration.

OBITUARIES

Thomas Dwight Potter

Astoria
Nov. 20, 1937 — Feb. 9, 2015

Thomas Dwight Potter, "the man in black," was reunited with his beloved wife in heaven on Feb. 9, 2015. Tom was born in Armada Township, Mich., on Nov. 20, 1937, to Paul and Thelma Potter.

His freshman year of high school, he moved to Phoenix, Ariz. Upon his graduation from Sunny Slope High School, he attended Arizona State University, earning his degree in architecture. After his graduation, he learned of a job in a "small fishing town" in Astoria, and decided to give it a try.

He started his career with the architecture firm of Brown & Brown. He started his own architectural firm, Gabriel & Potter, adding another partner making it Grider, Gabriel & Potter, and eventually on his own as Tom Potter Architect. Prior to his retirement in 2014, he was involved in several projects including the Maritime Museum, local schools, the Chamber of Commerce, the Social Security building, the old Fisher Bros. building, and many home remodels.

Tom and Ann's first date was April Fools' Day, they were married seven months later on Nov. 26, 1966, and enjoyed 47 years of marriage. Tom loved to travel by train, enjoyed working in his yard, remodeling his home, watching football and NASCAR races, and being involved in his grandkids' sports and school activities.

Tom loved living in Astoria, and immersed himself in the community. He served four years on the Astoria City Council, was a chaperone for the Astoria Regatta court, volunteered his time at Star of the Sea school, Clatsop County Humane Society, Astoria youth baseball, career day at the schools, driving newlywed couples in his 1931 Model A Ford, and donating his architectural services to many fundraisers. He was a member of the Lion's Club, Rotary Club, and Lower Columbia Classic Cars.

Tom was preceded in death by his loving wife, Ann. He is survived by three daughters, Pauline (Polly) Riutta, her husband John, and daughter Elizabeth of Scappoose, Catherine (Cathy) Stutzner, her husband, Norm, children Pamela, Jeffery, Ryan, and Karmen of Astoria, and Jeanine (Jeany) Potter of Astoria; his brother and sister-in-law Robert and Jean Potter of Walcott; his sister Mary Wiles of Sacramento; as well as several nieces, nephews, and friends.

A celebration of life will be held Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2015, at 2 p.m. at Caldwell's-Luce-Layton mortuary. Contributions in Tom's name can be made to Lower Columbia Hospice or Clatsop Care Center.

Jeanne Winifred (Marincovich) Sherman

Oregon City
July 4, 1927 — Jan. 30, 2015

At 1 p.m., a Celebration of Life and Memorial Service will be held on Monday, March 16, at Crown Memorial Center in Milwaukie (17064 S.E. McLoughlin Blvd.) for Jeanne Winifred Sherman, who passed away on Jan. 30 at age 87.

Jeanne was born on July 4, 1927, in Astoria. She is preceded in death by her father, John Russell Marincovich, who died just after her first birthday; her mother, Pearl (Helme) Bjornstrom; adopted father, Tom Hobbs; older brother, John Raymond; son, David; daughter, Karen; and great-granddaughter, Mariah.

Upon graduating Commerce (Cleveland) High School in 1945, Jeanne went to nursing school for six months before she dropped out to marry Fred L. Conrey. Early on, Jeanne worked at her first husband's motor repair shop, Conrey Electric, winding armatures and helping with the accounting books, but then quickly became a mother, raising three sons.

She remarried to Phil Thomas and had two daughters. Throughout raising her five children, she was active in PTA, Scouts, church and campaigning for school bond issues. After her children were grown, she was a religious school secretary for Congregation Beth Israel for eight years, and secretary to the assistant rabbi for another six years. Later, she was office manager at her son's refrigeration repair business for over a decade. Her final professional years before retirement were spent working in medical records for a local medical clinic.

Without question, what Jeanne loved most was her family. She also loved to laugh, tell stories of yesteryear, research family genealogy, and cats. In memoirs, she wrote of especially loving to tell scary stories. She enjoyed traveling, reading Nora Roberts' books and People magazine, and was interested in food and culture.

A natural people magnet, many found it easy to confide in her. Her bubbly personality made her well-liked by all who knew her. She was baptized Catholic as a very young girl, but clearly was interested in religion and faith as she converted to Judaism when she married her third husband, Arnold Sherman, but later practiced Buddhism.

Family mourning her passing are her younger sister, Patricia; sons, Stephen and Richard; daughter, Cindy; two nieces; nine grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren. Jeanne, you will forever be close in thought and treasured in our hearts.

In lieu of flowers, remembrances can be made by making a donation to Hilarity for Charity (www.hilarityforcharity.org), which benefits the Alzheimer's Association.

Marietta Hill

Astoria
March 24, 1925 — Feb. 9, 2015

Marietta Hill, 89, of Astoria, Ore., passed away Feb. 9, 2015, in Astoria.

Marietta was born to Elis and Helmi Aspegren Posti in Simo, Finland, on March 24, 1925. She was raised and schooled in Finland.

In 1954, at the age of 29, she and a friend made a trip to the United States to visit her aunt, Amanda Aspegren Hellberg, in Astoria. She came with the intention of visiting, only, but when she met her future husband, Ellis Hill, that all changed. They were married in Astoria on March 18, 1956, and she has resided here ever since.

Marietta's husband was a commercial fisherman, and she began working at local fish canneries during the summers when he was away. She was a hard worker, and put her best effort into everything she did. She also enjoyed growing beautiful dahlias, clam digging, intricate handwork, and baking Finnish cardamom bread and tarts. Her Finnish heritage was a big part of her life, and she enjoyed lifelong friendships with many of her Finnish counterparts. Marietta was a devoted member of Peace Lutheran Church.

For many years, Marietta and Ellis enjoyed spending part of the winter months in Indio, Calif. They also made numerous trips back to Finland, of which Ellis was also a native, to visit family and friends.

Marietta was preceded in death by her parents, Elis and Helmi Posti, and by her husband, Ellis.

In Finland, she is survived by: sister Laila Yliniemi of Kemi, Finland; sister Alli Uunola of Maksniemi, Finland; brother Mauno Posti and his wife, Alli, of Maksniemi, Finland; five nieces and two nephews; as well as their children and grandchildren.

She is also survived by: sister-in-law Ella Hill of Astoria; nieces Jane Pelosi of Atlanta, Ga., Melissa Powell of Astoria, Ore., Sue Anne Olson of Stayton, Ore., and their children; and numerous cousins of the Nimmo, Knickerbocker, and Hellberg families.

Graveside services will be held Tuesday, Feb. 17, 2015, at 10:30 a.m.

at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton, Ore. A memorial service will follow at Peace Lutheran Church, Tuesday, Feb. 17, 2015, at 1 p.m., 565 12th St., Astoria, Ore.

Memorial contributions may be given to the Peace Lutheran Memorial Fund.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of arrangements. Please sign our online guest book at www.caldwellsmortuary.com
