The Oregon Electric put Hillsboro on the map. Why not give the S. P. a chance to do the same. The best business men in the city are willing to take chances that it will not injure Main Street property. Get all you can out the S. P., and yet, get the line.

Hillsboro has another factory—the Keepfresh—and there is a chance for another. If you are interested in a good proposition just talk over the Rhoades proposal to put in a finishing mill. Every little will help.

Geo. W. Kelly, of Buxton, was in town Monday afternoon.

Born, at Witch Hazel, Jan. 20, 1912, to the wife of Albert L. Yanskey, a son.

Born, at Wheeler, Jan. 20, 1912, to the wife of M. E. Blanton, a son.

Jacob Zuercher and son, Walter, were up from near Cedar Mill today.

C. A. Jones is nursing a very badly injured foot. Dr. Robb is taking care of it.

J. C. Beach, of North Plains, was in the city today, and called on the Argus.

Adam Roemhild sues to quiet title to real property, and Wm. Brogden files a like suit to quiet title to Brogden acres.

Martin Beebe, father of L. M. Beebe, fell at Roy, yesterday, and dislocated his hip. Dr. J. P. Tamiesie is attending the injury.

Ernest Hansen, Scholls, and Mollie Mintz; Manuel Ingram and Clara Fuller, Farmington, have been granted license to wed.

For sale: A nice lot of thoroughbred White Leghorn cockerels for breeding purposes. First arriving get the best—John Reichen, Hillsboro, Route 4, Box 106.

The Tongue & Tongue law offices, Dr. F. A. Bailey, Dr. Robb and Attorney John M. Wall are moving their offices into the Schulmerich Block, upstairs this week.

Politics quiet all week. Aside from B. W. Barnes filing for school superintendent, the only petition filed with Clerk Bailey since last week has been that of Commissioner John McClaran.

W. H. Weston, Forest Grove, aged 26 years, son of a well known hopman of Forest Grove, has been missing several days. He has a wife and a six months baby, and has been running a cafe at Lents.

John R. Bailey, of above Buxton, was down to the city today. His wife and son, Frank, have just recovered from severe attacks of pneumonia. John R. has harvested five acres of new-ground potatoes, and has 700 sacks of fine product.

Boots and Shoes repaired—I have opened a cobbler shop at Farmington, on the corner opposite the Farmington M. E. Church, and will do all work neatly and promptly. Bring your old boots and shoes and see what I will do for them.—Chas. Jasperson.

O. Phelps and E. L. Moore have leased the Crescent Theatre and will endeavor to get some of the best road shows and vaudeville people on the circuit to visit Hillsboro. The motion picture business now in the Crescent will be installed in the Dr. Wood brick, vacated by Emmotts, as soon as the structure can be remodelled.

The Oregonian of yesterday shows a map of the Southern Pacific's proposed electrified loop from Portland, via Hillsboro to McMinnville, and then back on the Yamhill division into the metropolis. The big question now is—will the line come through the business part of Hillsboro, or go to the South boundary of the city.
